TRY OUT FOR DEBATE TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Both sides of question to be argued with University of Southern California will be stated in Rodey Hall.

The preliminary for the debate with the University of Southern California, will be held Wednesday, Jan. 17th, in Rodey Hall. All candidates for the team have been working for some time past and the preliminary will be well worth hearing. The question is Resolved, "That the Federal Government should impose a Literacy Test on European Immigration." This question will be debated in California on February 16th, by whoever is chosen in the preliminary Wednesday. Debating is one of the ways in which any institution may be recognized, and to win this debate means a great deal to us.

Brorlen, Timmons and Lee Walker, having represented the Varsity in debates before, are on the job, as well as numerous other new men, who will have something to say about the choice of the team.

Professor Bonnet has expressed himself as being very pleased with the debating prospects, and with the hearty support of the student body. U. N. M. should distinguish herself this years along this line.

Varsity Five Wallop Indians to Tune of 53-0

United States Government School Gymnasium crowded with spectators who witness fast game of basketball last Friday night.

The first basketball game of the season was played at the Indian school last Friday night, in which the Varsity defeated the Redmen by the score of 53 to 33. The entire Varsity squad was given a chance to play at some time during the contest. The floor was decidedly slippery, and the Indians were able to handle themselves a great deal better than any of the Varsity men, who continually slid around the large gymnasium. The game was called at 8:15, and the Indian coach, Mr. Kishgo, refereed, and his decisions were entirely satisfactory throughout the game. Twenty minute halves were played.

Lyman Thackery, a new man at forward showed up better than any of the rest of his teammates, and besides playing all over the floor, caged seven baskets from the field. "Thack" is speedy, and willing and ready to go the entire period, and will undoubtedly prove a good man for the Varsity quintette this season. Bob Wigely, the veteran guard, played his usual good game, holding his man to a few baskets and making two or three himself. Louis

MYRL HOPE HARD AT WORK ON MIRAGE

Staff of about fifteen have been chosen, but there still remains a few positions to be filled; anyone interested see the editor,

The Mirage work is progressing rapidly at the present time, and there will be an important staff meeting on Monday, January 15, in Miss Hichey's room at 12:30.

While the staff is very busy with their end of the work at the present time, help is still wanted and needed from all the students to make the Mirage a success this year. Anyone who has any idea for this work will please see Miss Hope, or those who have any contributions for the book, see her, also.

Such letters as the one our friend, "Rusty Ray" sent in, show the spirit of the alumni of the old U. N. M.

U. N. M. RIFLE CLUB RESUMES ITS DUTIES

Captain John Gruener states that work of organization is progressing rapidly and will develop some first-class shooters.

U. N. M. Rifle Club, which was organized last semester has resumed its activity on the bill this semester and Captain Gruener states that with the return of good weather the shoots will be held regularly. At the present time there is no definite date set for the next shoot, but it will be probably this Saturday.

This work is one of considerable importance and should be backed by all students in the University. If you are not a member of the organization, see Captain Gruener immediately and find out what kind of arrangements may be made for the rest of the term. Possibly a reduction in price might be effected on account of the shortness of time. The club now has a good number of members, but there is always room for more. First-class equipment is always kept on hand, and there is no reason why some real good shots should not develop from this organization.

DR. WINFIELD HALL TO TALK AT VARSITY

One of the most influential men of the country along physiological lines will deliver address to student body some time soon.

Dr. Winfield Scott Hall, member of faculty of medicine at Northwestern University, will be in Albuquerque some time within the next two weeks and the male students of the

'RUSTIE' RAY SIGNIFIES WILLINGNESS TO WORK

Former art student and expert, now in Cincinnati, Ohio, sends letter to editor of Mirage, Miss Hope, stating his desires to see the U. N. M. prosper.

2132 Sinton Ave.,
Cincinnati, Ohio,
Jan. 2nd, 1917.

Dear Miss Hope, (I believe):

Though I am not in school there this year, I still take great pleasure in U. N. M.'s activities and if you have not assigned all the art work, I would beg leave to make a drawing or so for you. Of course, I do not want to be "butting in," but merely showing that I am still "strong" for the old Varsity.

Wishing you much success in your publication, I wish to remain,

Yours sincerely,

Signed: "RUSTIE" J. Ray.

DR. CLARK TO REPRESENT U. N. M. AT WASHINGTON

National Security League extends invitation to University to attend meeting, January 25, 26 and 27.

Dr. John D. Clark has been asked to attend a national preparedness convention. The National Security League is the name of this new organization and the object is to consider the basic conditions of national security and the development of an efficient national spirit. The congress will meet in the New Willard Hotel, Washington, D. C., on January 26, 26 and 27.

The league has many members who represent all the important institutions of learning of our country, as well as the big business interests, and we are glad to know that Dr. Clark has been chosen to represent us in this worthy cause and hope great things of the organization.

University will be given a chance to hear him lecture. The date has not been definitely set as yet, but will be announced on the bulletin board, just as soon as possible.

Dr. Hall is one of the greatest talkers of the country on the subject of physiology, and makes annual tours, visiting all the universities possible. This lecture which he will deliver will be for men only, but if it is desired, arrangements may be made to have him talk to the women of the institution as well as the men.

No man at the University can afford to miss such an opportunity as this. One of the members of our faculty heard him talk several years ago, and states that it was one of the most interesting talks he had ever heard.

Pelham McClellan is not with us this semester.

NEW GYM NOW READY FOR USE OF GIRLS

Captain Alberta Hawthorne has made last call for volunteers to basketball squad; all interested report for practice immediately.

The new gymnasium for women has been completed and is now ready for use. The gym classes will start immediately and the girls will be able to practice basketball regularly. Capt. Alberta Hawthorne has stated her intention of having practice every night from 3:30 on.

With the material now available, we should have a team even better than our championship sextette last year. No games have been definitely scheduled but it is believed that arrangements will be made to play the Silver City Normal school and the Agricultural College teams, some time in the first part of February.

Dr. E. Frisbee is examining all the girls who intend to play basketball, so they will be in physical condition to stand any strain that might be placed upon them. Coach Hutchinson is insisting that all girls shall pass this examination successfully before being allowed on the basketball court.

The girls need support just the same as anyone else, and it is up to the entire student body to render them this service.

A.H.S. TAKES W.M.C.A. TO SEVERE DRUBBING

Robertson's men completely outclassed by fast quintette from high school; score 34 to 19.

The Albuquerque High School defeated the Y. M. C. A. team last Friday night by the score of 34 to 19, at the "Y." The game was decidedly fast, and the Y. M. C. A. quintette was not able to check the basket throwing of the speedy little high school team. Dave Chaves was undoubtedly the star, caging nine baskets from the field. Chaves and Mann are a hard combination to beat at forwards. The entire team from last year has returned, thus making them a great deal stronger.

Ricketts was not in the game the first half, on account of his absence at practice the last week or so. However he was put in the second half. The Y. M. C. A. expected to run away with the Highs, but were unable to do so.

A fairly good sized crowd witnessed the game.

All young ladies who are expecting to play basketball and who have not yet been examined, will please see Alberta Hawthorne in regard to same.

Professor Arno K. Leupold and wife have moved into their new home in the University Heights addition.

ARE YOU ABLE TO WRITE.

Very frequently it happens that a student is given a failing mark in examination because of the fact that the professor is unable to read the writing in the blue book. With college students, this of course, should never be the case, but nevertheless it has happened right here in our midst. Let us be thankful that there have not been many unfortunate ones, and also let us guard against there being any more. Some have suggested that we introduce typewriters in the University and thus do away with all scribbling. The introduction of typewriters would be practically impossible to attempt all work by means of these machines. In some cases in after life, it is necessary to be able to write fairly well in order to hold a position. Therefore it seems more logical that we introduce a course in penmanship, requiring all Freshmen and Sophomores to take it. Penmanship should be taught in the grade schools, and in fact is, but from the number of students in the University who are not able to even read their own writing, it appears that some step should be taken for their benefit. Neatness in examination papers, as well as all other kind of work is highly essential. The time saved by the professors, if nothing else, should warrant some such scheme as this.

CONTRIBUTE TO THE WEEKLY

Up to the present time, very few letters have been written to the editor, by students, stating their views and opinions on different subjects. It seems highly desirable that this should be done. Undoubtedly, there are things happening every day which please or displease a great number. If it is important enough to you, sit down while you are in the mood, and write a letter to the editor, stating how you think it can be remedied, or even improved. The Weekly is the mouthpiece of the student body and should be used as such. Co-operation of the entire student body is the only way to have a successful organization. One letter will bring forth another. Let some one start this good work and see what advantage will be derived therefrom in the course of a few weeks.

For example, there are students in the Senior class who have been here four years. Surely they have discovered something by this time, which they think deserves special mention, or which needs to be improved. If, by placing the proposition before the student body, it may be improved, it certainly seems worth the effort to do so. Let some broad minded student express himself so his statement may be published in the next issue.

BEWARE 'VARSITY BACHELOR.

Beware of the New Year's dance, my lad,
A score of old maids have gone plum mad.
They're coming with whims from the suffrage float;
All dolled and powdered to get your goat.
The old maids know, with their curls and locks,
That Leap Year will aid with a tick o' the clock.
Ladies' choice is scarce in this of chance;
They'll enter the game and wear the pants.

II.

Beware of the New Year's party, my boy,
The spinsters are seeking their future joy;
Tany's natural to them as water to a duck;
Bamboozled you'll be till you think you're stuck.
They'll urge you to in flirtation courts,
And talk of gym till you'll swear they're sports;
They'll offer a kiss with outstretched arms;
Beware, young man, they're not from the farm.

III.

The plot is on for the New Year's dance,
And you'll be the target for Cupid's lance.
The suffragette girls are aiming the blow;
They're anxious to marry, as well you may know.
At last they'll seize you, with sisterly better cop;
With fifty in hand, the question they'll pop.

They've got your goat, and they've got you red hot;
Too late, bashful boy, they've fired the shot.

KAPPA DELTA NU'S

RATTLEBRAINED!

Everyone has time to think. Some of us, however, do not think, although we have the time to do so. A great many people act merely on impulses, never waiting for second thought, while others can never keep more than one thing in mind at one time. Both kinds are rattlebrained.

Deliberation, if practiced in moderation, is a virtue, and a rare one in Americans. Most people do not even know what it means to think over every action before committing the same. It would be a sign of slowness and indecision to ponder over every little thing, and that is what live Americans dislike in the extreme. But the tendency is to swing over to the other extreme—rattlebrainedness.

The most successful executives everywhere deliberate well everything of importance that is to be done. When they seem to flash an answer to a question without any apparent thought, it is only because that particular question falls into a class, which is already covered by a general policy determined upon beforehand. The writer is acquainted with a man who was formerly the chief executive of a great mail order establishment, and who made it his duty to personally oversee nearly every little detail in the immense office system. His office was continually full of people that wanted to see him on important matters. Heads of departments wanted to know what was to be done in certain unusual cases, inter-department disputes had to be settled, causes of inefficiency in the dark corners were to be ferreted out and removed. The way this man worked was marvelous, but through it all, he kept his head, knew what he was doing and why. Sometimes, when the pressure grew to be so strong that he became just a trifle uncertain in his rapid decisions, he left the office and locked himself in his private room for five minutes. He quit all the important matters that clamored for immediate decisions, and took time to think. In five minutes of seclusion he collected himself, jotted a few notes on a piece of paper, and most of all, he thought. Then he returned to his office and dispatched the waiting business with doubled speed.

That was a man who took time to think, but thought fast. It takes training to do things in that style. But, with or without training, everyone should think long enough to know what will be the probable results of every action he is about to commit, and whether those results are desirable or not.—Rocky Mountain Collegian.

GOING DOWN

The Missouri pastor looked over his glasses and hook his uncut locks. "Carrying out my original declaration," he said, "I am about to call the names of those persons who are now asleep in the congregation. John Stackpole!"

There was no response. "John Stackpole!" The stout man stirred again. "Be down in a minute," he drowsily called. "Keep things hot for me."

The pastor's voice rang out: "You're going down, all right, John Stackpole," he roared; "and things will be kept very hot, very hot for you! Let us now sing the ninety-ninth hymn."

UNSAFE

The editor in charge of the Personal inquiry column opened his seventieth letter with a groan. "I have lost three husbands," a lady reader had written, confidentially, "and now have the offer of the fourth. Shall I accept him?" The editor dipped his pen in the ink. This was the last straw.

"If you've lost three husbands," he wrote, "I should say you are much too careless to be trusted with a fourth."—Tit-Bits.

SIGNIFICATION AND MISINTERPRETATION.

A young lady much admired by a young man staying at the same house, was kissed by him one day, greatly to her indignation.

"If you dare to kiss me again," she said, "I must tell my father."

Kiss her again the ardent lover did.

"From this she fled to her father's room where she happened to find him examining a gun.

"Oh, papa," she exclaimed, "do run downstairs and show Mr. Much-love your gun. He is so interested in guns."

"Very well, dear," was the good-natured reply, and down went the unsuspecting father.

Returning to his daughter, he remarked: "That Mr. Much-love is so excited he is almost sick. He thinks out of the house to see to it that his gun is safe."

The young lady, who was out of an apartment in the building in which she lived.
