CO-ED STEAM ROLLER CRUSHES OPPOSITION

Dramatic Club Presidency Won by Miss Jackson, Treasurer Falls to White.

Ingenuously combining the co-ed forces, Misses Stephenson and Sands had the satisfaction of seeing their candidate, Miss Helen Jackson seated as head of the University Dramatic Association, carrying with the office control of the club for the Feminine members. The co-eds were at last Friday's meeting early, and in numbers and cast, with the exception of five wayward votes, a solid ballot for Miss Jackson. Mr. Hugh Graham was the victim.

The vice-presidency went to Miss Sands without opposition, for being the only nominee she was seated by acclamation. The opposition managed to get a finger in the pie, when White was nominated by the party secretary, Bill Stahl, for the office of treasurer and treasurer. Upon his nomination, White immediately moved that the nominations be closed. Amid the laughter that ensues the motion was carried and he was for lack of opposition, elected to the position.

Following the election of officers, Miss Jackson took the chair and read the Club Constitution. After some discussion it was adopted. Plans were then discussed for future activities, and it was proposed that a play should be staged soon after the beginning of the second semester. The offices of Play Manager and Property Man have not yet been filled by the president, but will probably be announced in next week's issue of the WEEKLY.

DISTINGUISHED JURISTS TO ADDRESS UNIVERSITY

It is announced that the program for the University Assemblies in the near future contain the names of two prominent lawyers from the State of New Mexico.

On Friday morning, January 20, 1922, at 11 o'clock, Judge Reed Holloman of Santa Fe will speak before the students, faculty members, and citizens of New Mexico in Rodey hall on "THE SPIRIT OF THE LAW."

On Friday morning, February 3, 1922, at the same hour, Hon. John F. Simms, of Albuquerque will speak before the Assembly on the subject "THE FEDERAL CONSTITUTION."

The increasing interest of students and faculty members at the University in the study and discussion of practical questions of the day, adds to the enthusiastic attention which will greet the speakers. All citizens as well as students and members of the university staff will be welcome at the above mentioned assemblies, is the announcement.

MIRAGE PLANS FEATURE UNIQUE ART

Art will play a major part in the construction of the 1922 MIRAGE, according to William Morris Stahl, impressionist, and futuristic art champion, who has charge of the interior furnishings of the book. A University so artistically built in such a charming setting, should cultivate a characteristic type of designs which should be used whenever possible, thinks Mr. Stahl, with his characteristic disregard for conventional restrictions. Mr. Stahl's coterie of imagist artists have already completed a number of tones and half tones, which will contribute greatly to the atmosphere of the MIRAGE.

SIGS AND PI K. A.'S TIED FOR LEAD IN BASKETBALL RACE

Blue and Gold Team Wins from Rivals in Sensational Game Last Tuesday, Moving into First Place; Alpha Deltas and Barbs Lose.

ALPHA DELTA FIVE HUMBLLED BY SIGS

Sigma Chi basketballers moved up from third place to second as a result of the games played last week in the intra-mural tournament during which they defeated the Alpha Delta quintet 20-3, the result of the contest never in doubt, as the Sigs worked perfectly together, and the Alpha Deltas seemed to have trouble, not only in getting started, but in keeping the fast pace set by their opponents.

Greenleaf's absence was keenly felt by the Alpha Delta combination, as he is, in addition to being an aggressive player, an excellent floor general. Bryan, who captains the quintet, played his usual consistent game at guard, and seems to be the only player of Varsity calibre on the team. Betts and Stowell were the outstanding Sigma Chi figures on the floor.

A great deal of speculation is being indulged in as to the outcome of the Sigma Chi-Pi Kappa Alpha contests. In the first struggle, the East Silver lads were victorious by the narrow margin of 16-14, but since that time, the Sigs have been perfecting their team-play and tossing, and are expected to present strong opposition to their ancient rivals. It is evident, that at the present time, these two teams are the only contenders for the title of the hill, but it is considered as yet to be anybody's race, and much interest is shown in the contests from the numbers of spectators that crowd the balcony of the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium.

FINAL RALLY WINS STRUGGLE FOR P. K. A.

After a contest that was closely fought all the way, and with very little to choose between the two teams, the Pi Kappa Alpha five defeated the Independent quintet, 23-10, by a rally in the last five minutes of the play that swept the barbs off their feet. At the end of the first period, the un-affiliated players led their Greek letter rivals 8-6, and opened the second frame with a basket by Hyder. They looked good for the game, until Jones and Hite commenced finding the cage with their long shots, running up a score which cinched the struggle.

Elder and Lovitt started for the Pi K A's at the guard positions, but at the end of the first half, they were replaced by White and Wilfley, who have played together before, and who are more aggressive on the floor. Clark was sent in for Harrington by the Independents, but could not last under the buffetings of his heavier opponents.

It seemed to be the general opinion of spectators that the superior condition of the Pi Kappa Alpha basketballers aided largely in determining the outcome of the game, as they were moving at top speed all during the contest and in the final decisive rush for goals the Independents were unable to follow the play except with their eyes. Fewer fouls were called, which made the game faster than its predecessors, and it was much more like basketball than the first game the Barbs played and lost to the memorable count of 5-3.

They are Woffort, Seaman, McClellan, Slonaker, Marshall, Manzo, Broderick, Hobbs, Sweet, Gould, Crowell, Clymer, Witten, Barkley, "Steamboat" Smith, Clark, Wiley, and La Shelle. Capt. Woffort responded to cries of speech with a brief report on the Centre game, in which he stated "that the score did not tell the story."

Mirage Photographers on the Job

"Fuzzy" Faw reports that the camera work for the MIRAGE is progressing at a fine rate. He and his staff of aggressive marksmen have been on the job continually since their appointment, getting interesting sketches on campus life ranging from the unique and curious to the laughingly ludicrous. Faw promises that the 1922 year book will not suffer for lack of ample photographic work. He earnestly solicits any shots of campus interest that any student may care to turn in.

MIRAGE SPONSORS RENOWNED CONTEST

Most Beautiful and Most Popular Co-Eds to Be Chosen in Annual Race.

Oh girls! Get out your bibs and tuckers, polish your nails, practice that "Andale Muchacho" smile, wrap your hair in a permanent marcel, and clear the decks for action. That positively appealing, pride touching, contest of popularity and personal pulchritude, is about to begin. Prepare now, cultivate your press agents, and when the ballot box is opened for deposits, shower down the votes which will place your features in permanent fame on a full page (three noses) of the nineteen twenty two MIRAGE.

Hey Hombre! Get on the job early and stick to it late. See the face of your favorite fairy framed. Place her features in the MIRAGE'S Hall of Fame, to the eternal shame of yesterday's wire beauties. Get in under the wire and don't fail. Remember, her success depends upon your aggressiveness. It pays to advertise. Get on the job now. Fool your enemies and influence your friends. At any rate, produce the goods. She will expect you to make good.

The MIRAGE'S Annual Contest to determine the Campus Belle, and the most popular demoiselle will start promptly on registration day. For each four dollars ($4) turned into the Contest Manager, "Blanco" White, a thousand perfectly votable votes will be issued to the purchaser, five hundred to be voted for any of the striving beauties (take your pick) and five hundred for one of the many seeking popularity. The four dollars ($4) is the purchase price of the MIRAGE which goes with the votes.

Many splendid features (besides those of the lucky charmers) will be included in the year book. From cover to cover it will contain records, pictures, and glances behind the scenes which made the year a memorable one. The staff has been carefully selected and all are hard at work, from the office boy to the Contest Manager. Much of the success of the book depends upon the success of the GREAT BEAUTY AND POPULARITY CONTEST. It builds subscriptions, and subscriptions raise the value of the advertising space. "None but the bold deserve the fair."

JOKING EDITOR OF MIRAGE IS SERIOUS

College wits take notice! (Girls are included.) The Joke Editor of the Mirage is offering a prize of one annual to the best person who hands in a joke. Everyone is eligible. No one will lose. The copy of the Mirage will be the same as the ones being sold; all of the pages will be intact and the stories will read the same. If you don't know a joke, try to think of one. They must be original (however, if you can win on an old joke, you get the bologna.) A box will be placed in the Library sometime in the near future and the winner will be given a vote in the annual beauty contest—providing she doesn't vote for herself. Conundrums on Mothers-in-law, home, love, and all of the other emotion rousing themes are acceptable but not encouraged. If you write the best joke, you receive the Mirage, if I write it, I get the prize, so get yours in first.

P. S.—Try to be serious with these jokes. (Signed)

JOE BURSEY, Joke Editor.

STUDENT MOVEMENT OPENS IN NEW YORK

A nation-wide movement for the wider participation of the colleges in public affairs is to be opened with mass meetings under the auspices of the National Student Council for the Limitation of Armaments in Boston on January eighteenth and in New York on January nineteenth to pass resolutions concerning the entrance of the United States into the coming Genoa conference. Other meetings will follow throughout the country, when the opinions of every college on international questions will be secured, and, finally, the tabulated results will be presented to President Harding by a delegation of students representing the various sections of the country.

The New York meeting will be opened by representatives of foreign governments with statements of their country's part in the coming Genoa conference. Speakers include M. Casenave of the French Delegation, Signor Giuseppe Gentile of the Italian delegation, Dr. John Mez, Washington Correspondent of the Frankforter Zeitung, and the American economist, Dr. John Foster Dulles, one of the former American members of the Reparations Commission and the Supreme Economic Council.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot is honorary chairman, President James A. Blaisdell of Pomona College, vice chairman and Regd.-Gen. Nathan William McChesney, treasurer, of the National Student Council for the Limitation of Armaments. The executive chairman is Rothschild, Harvard '21, and the student chairman, Charles Denby, Jr. of Princeton, nephew of the Secretary of the Navy.

The resolution to be discussed in New York is "that a conference of the Powers, as decided at Cannes, to include Germany and Russia, and which shall deal with the economic consequences of the Peace, is the logical sequel to the Washington Arms Conference, and that such a conference is fundamental to the civilization of Europe and to the prosperity of the United States." The meetings for the discussion of our entry into the economic conference at Genoa are but a part of a definite program of collegiate discussion of international economic problems. Plans have been made to hold frequent meetings in convenient centers throughout the country and in individual colleges in order to discover and record the sentiment of the colleges on the questions of the day.

The first conference for the discussion of disarmament and the economic problems growing out of it was held at Princeton University. A second conference at Chicago where 178 delegates from the denominational colleges discussed similar problems resulted in the permanent organization of the National Student Committee for Limitation of Armaments. The entire movement is a hopeful sign of awakening student interest in public affairs. There is every reason to believe that the students of America are learning to apply the economic principles of the class-room to problems of active politics, and to voice their opinion freely in international matters.

And there is reason to believe that expressions of their opinion will be welcomed. The Press has shown interest in the movement and many prominent people have endorsed it. The Secretary to the Advisory Committee of the American Delegation to the Disarmament Conference, Mrs. Eleanor Franklin Egan, has said, "Your work is of paramount importance to us, who are now engaged in perfecting the instruments of peace. We shall soon be gone and the future of our labors is now in the hands of your generation."

Col. William Boyce Thompson, of the American Delegation to the Conference on Limitation of Armament has asked that editorials in college papers in connection with the student conferences and disarmament be clipped and sent to him for the permanent records of the Delegation.

TRACK

The outlook for a successful track team is brighter now than in many years, but at this time many weaknesses loom up as possible in certain departments of the Varsity representation. Now is the time to begin strengthening the weak spots. Last year we were hopelessly beaten in the distance events and weights, not by the strength of the opposition but by our own incapacity. Right now the Varsity needs ten men on the track daily, training for the half mile and mile events. The best of the school should soon start working with the shot and discus. Let's have signs of active interest now, that we may have a successful team this Spring.

Hill on "The Relation of Mind and Body." Besides the members of the fraternity, there will be several guests from outside, among them Bishop Howden, Miss Wilma Shelton and Dr. Haught. U. N. M. STATION ASSIGNED CALL

The government has licensed the Korber wireless station here to send out official weather reports, which are, in substance, the same as those circulated here in town. The government assigned this station the call letter "5YQ" and a 200 and 375 meter wave length.

YOU'RE WEALTHY

Don't worry just because you're poor;
If you were rich you'd worry more—

You get your three square meals a day;
You couldn't eat more anyway—

Don't think the fates have been unkind;
There's many millionaires you'll find—

There's lots of men with so-called means
Who'd like to wear your old blue jeans—

You fellows in your working clothes
Can shake 'em when the whistle blows—

The boss with dollars to your dime;
You bet he's working overtime—

There's them who'd give up every sou
If they could stand up strong like you—

You've got your children and your wife,
You've love and happiness and life—

—George W. Stevens, in "K.W.K.'s Saturday Night."

TEMPUS FUGIT

One of the hardest things to learn, and one of the most difficult to impress upon employees, is the vital value of time. Every hour is a substantial sized unit of life, and once it is gone, it will never return. Moreover, there is such a thing as only partly wasting it, and so saving our conscience that all is well.

Let us call ourselves strictly and frequently to account as to just how we are using the golden days of business opportunity, and whether we are making them count for all they should, or merely holding down the job in stupid, senseless fashion, and letting someone else who is taking our good money, render indifferent service in return. If we are foolish enough to do this, we have no one but ourselves to thank.—American Stationer.

THE SOFT ANSWER

Master: I bet you've been at my whiskey, James!
Butler: Beg pardon, sir, but I never bet.—Bystander (London.)

AROUND THE CORNER

Around the corner I have a friend,
In this great city which has no end;
Yet days go by and weeks rush on,
And before I know it a year is gone,
And I never see my old friend's face;
For life is a swift and terrible race.

He knows I like him just as well
As in the days when I rang his bell
And he rang mine. We were younger then;
And now we are busy, tired men—

Tired with playing a foolish game;
Tired with trying to make a name.
"To-morrow," I say, "I will call on Jim"

Just to show that I'm thinking of him."

But to-morrow comes—and to-morrow goes;
And the distance between us grows

And grows.
Around the corner!—yet miles away
"Here's a telegram sir, Jim died to-day!"

And that's what we get—yet deserve in the end—
Around the corner a vanished friend.

—Charles Hanson Towne. Saturday Evening Post.

MYSELF

I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know.

I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye;

I don't want to stand, with the setting sun,
And hate myself for things I've done.

I don't want to keep on a closet shelf
A lot of secrets about myself.

And fool myself, as I come and go,
Into thinking that nobody else will know

The kind of a man I really am;
I don't want to dress up myself in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect,
I want to deserve all men's respect;

But here, in the struggle for fame and self,
I want to be able to like myself.

I don't want to look at myself and know
That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I can never hide myself from me;
I see what others may never see;

I know what others may never know,
I never can fool myself, and so,
Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience-free.

INDEPENDENCE DAY

The Canary Corners Clarion never failed to publish a eulogy of anyone of any note who appeared in that small village. So when the Rev. Mr. Johnson, a preacher of some prominence, elected to come there for a few days, it started its story in this way:

"Dr. Johnson is among us for a brief season. He says and does exactly as he thinks right, without regard to the opinions or beliefs of anyone else. His wife is not with him."

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE

Mrs. O'Brien—"They say it's not polite to be helped twice, Mr. Flaherty, but ye'll take another piece of my cake, won't ye?"

Flaherty—"Indade, Oi will that, Mrs. O'Brien. Shure, it's the height of politeness to ate a second piece av such cake as this."—Western Christian Advocate.

VARSITY NET MEN
MAY MEET U. S. C.

Formidable Coast Team Asks
Place on U. N. M. Schedule;
Play Arizona in Tucson.

Another division of University athletics will achieve prominence if present plans are consummated. A letter which Frank Reeves, president of the Tennis Club, received from the Athletic Council of the University of Southern California, asked for a contest between the coast racket stars and the University representatives, to be staged here.

U. S. C.'s tennis team has been for the past ten years, one of the strongest in the United States, and this Spring, it will tour the country, competing against mid-western and eastern combinations. The schedule calls for the team to pass through Albuquerque on April 29th, when the tournament will be played, if possible of arrangement.

Reeves has turned the letter over to Coach Johnson for his consideration, and it is thought that all influence possible will be brought to bear in making the tourney a reality. The Californians ask a guarantee of fifty dollars, which, if not provided by the Athletic Council, is expected to be raised by the student body contributions, through the efforts of the Tennis Club. It is seen that twenty-five cents from every member of the undergraduate body will comfortably finance the contest, and the undeniable attraction of seeing the strong coast team in action is expected to prove a strong drawing card to the public of Albuquerque.

The University net combination will meet the University of Arizona team in Tucson, when the Lobo track squad matches with the Wildcats on the Cinder path in the Arizona city, and the material available points to a strong team to represent the University. Several additional tournaments under the auspices of the club will take place before the Spring season officially opens.

BLONDE CAGE-GIRLS TO BATTLE WITH BRUNETTES

After the Sophomore-Senior combination trounced the Freshman-Junior aggregation to the tune of 20-7 in their last battle, Miss McCormick decided that a little variety was necessary to relieve the monotony of successive victories by one team. Accordingly, she has organized two other houses, blonde and brunette, which will tangle on the co-ceds' open air court in the near future.

The blonde teams are composed of the following basketweavers: Team No. 1—M. Culpepper, M. Lamb, F. Condit, M. Cleve, L. Sherwood, M. L. McGuire. Team No. 2—E. Gerhardt, C. Parsons, M. Coan, M. Hamilton, M. Wood, R. Morgan. The Brunettes mustered as follows: Team No. 1—F. Mitchell, H. Morris, E. Carter, J. Fleischer, F. O'Hara, I. Connor. Team No. 2—H. Nelson, F. Andrews, B. Guley, M. Walker, A. McGuire, M. Nelson.

Every afternoon, from four o'clock until five, the court is crowded with desperate co-eds, trying to polish their style for the epoch-making contests. The date of the games will be announced by Miss McCormick, and will be open to the public.

MORTARBOARD JUNIOR
STEPS INTO ACTION

Organized May 29, 1921, Mortarboard Junior is now an active factor in Campus Club circles. The club is honorary, secret, and exclusively select. Its membership is made up of Senior class women, who elect their candidates each Spring from the Junior class.

The purpose of the organization is to promote scholastic achievements and all general activities upon the campus among the women students. Their pins, which are now very much in evidence, are in the shape of Senior Mortarboard Caps in dark blue and gold. The charter members are: Anita Osuna, Helen Goetz, Winona Dixon, Grace Peterson, Beulah Breeden Sutherland, Estelle Weisenbach, Blanche Guley, Wilma Snyder, Eleanor Cameron, and Irene Wicklund. Dr. Edna Mosher, Dean of women, and head of the department of Biology in a honorary member.

MISS CONANT APPEALS TO STUDENTS FOR AID

"Something to think about" was the subject of an address delivered by Miss Conant, Southwest Field Secretary for the Y. W. C. A., in Rodey hall last Friday morning. Miss Conant told some pitiful tales of the hardships of the starving students in Russia. "In some houses there are ten or fifteen boys trying to study around one little candle. They have no fire and eat only once a day. Their meal consists of a little tea and a crust of bread. Most of them go to school without shoes, and the weather is zero cold."

Miss Conant told a very beautiful story about a war incident. "It was during the war and an English officer happened to see a German hanging on the wires in No Man's Land. He thought of the uncomfortable situation this German was in and being a tenderhearted officer, he could not see this man suffer, even though he was a German, so disregarding the danger he was in, he crawled out of his trench and walked slowly to where the German was lying and picked him up, he carried him to the German trench and gave him to his comrades, then returning to his own trench. A German officer seeing this incident was filled with gratification. He left his own trench and crossing over to the English trench he pinned the Iron Cross from his own breast onto the English officer's chest." This indeed was something to think about.

Mrs. Nixon who sang several selections, was as usual well received. Mr. Darrow, a local singer, also sang.

Excursions

The other night,
I took a trip to the big city.
My girl met me at the station
With the Cunningham.
Her father had the Simplex at the Club and her mother was Using the Rolls-Royce at Palm Beach, so we had to be Satisfied
With the small car.
First we went to a show.
Marion Harris and Sophie Tucker Sang a Duet, and Fred Stone and Fanny Brice
Did a little dance.
Then, Al Jolson laughed and cried
And sang about what made the Sad sea waves so sad.
The Dolly sisters danced, and the Dooley Brothers cut up—I can't Remember the rest of the program.
Then we went to a swell place to Eat and had boiled Humming-
Birds' wings on toast,
And peacock livers, and on the Table, were
Two faucets, that gave champagne.
When the bill came, it ran into
3 figures, and my girl insisted
On paying.
Now, gentle reader, if
You would like to take the same
Trip, just follow my recipe—
To one gallon
Of boiling shellac, add
A quart of nitroglycerine.
Flavor with Juniper berries
And color with Paris green.
Remember the old advice to drink
When standing with both feet on a Concrete floor.
That's to avoid ruining the
Soles of your shoes
When the wood
Catches
Fire.

MANY STUDENTS HEAR
MISS RHEA'S RECITAL

University students again demonstrated their interest in the fine arts by the large number who attended the recital by Miss Virginia Rhea last Monday evening at the High School Auditorium. Miss Rhea is a coloratura soprano and was brought here as the third number of the Artists Course by the Fortnightly Club.
She is a singer of beautiful tone and a very pleasing personality. Due to illness she was unable to finish the entire program but the portion of it rendered was greatly appreciated.
The next number of the Artists' Course is Elias Breeskin who is to appear on the Second of February. He is said to be a violinist of exceptional ability. University students should make plans to attend this concert, the last of the series.

For the past three years the University of New Mexico has not been completely represented in this field although there has been an abundance of talent. This year the club is going to put the Alma Mater back on the Dramatic map, with two or three first class productions. A great success is predicted. Are you going to be a part of it? You don't have to be a Lionel Barrymore or a Bill Hart. You don't have to do any acting at all, other than the little act of putting your hand in your pocket book, producing the required amount, and guaranteeing your active support. Help put it over.

THE DRAMATIC CLUB

The U. N. M. Dramatic Club is now an active, aggressive organization, recognized as the official representative of the University in dramatics.
It has adopted a working constitution, elected competent officers, and merits the support of every student in the school. The club has already some sixty members and a working capital of approximately three hundred dollars.

 * WITH THE GREEKS * *****

Closing season for the rest of the semester has put the cold quietus on all campus frolics, and all is serene and still in social circles. With proper respect for the advent of final examinations, the Argentines and the Greeks are seeking little other diversion. However the beginning of the second semester looms up as fine grounds for celebration, and many have secured dates.

PHI MU

Next Sunday afternoon, the women of Phi Mu hold the center of the stage with an "At Home" at the chapter house. Invitations have been issued to the various groups for the hours of from three to six thirty. Tea will be served, also cakes. The pledges will officiate as kitchen mechanics.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA

The Kappas were entertained last Friday afternoon by Mrs. Harry Ackerson at her home on Stanford Ave., following a meeting of the Alumnae. All present enjoyed a very pleasant social hour. Mrs. Ackerson was formally Miss Louise Walraven, former student and member of the local chapter of K. K. G.

PI KAPPA ALPHA

The Pi Kappas won't step very heavily into the social ring until the third of February, when they give their first High Jinks party since before the war. It is to be a masquerade. The house is alive with a lot of serious speculation on where the costumes are all coming from.

SIGMA CHI

Preparations are also being made by the Sigs for a whale of a dance in honor of the deceased first semester. It is probable that the Masonic Temple will be the scene of the ball. The date is set for February eleventh.

LOWELL SOCIETY ACTS TO ACHIEVE PERMANENCE

Members of the Lowell Literary Society held a meeting in Rodey Hall last Tuesday and discussed the adoption of the constitution. Nothing definite was done but another meeting was arranged for the latter part of the week.

The society has two contracts for debates with the State College and the University of Arizona, to be filled sometime next semester. It is rumored that the University of Southern California wishes a debate with the University this year. It is possible that a debate may be arranged with that institution.

All three of these institutions were victors over the University last year, even though two decisions seemed unjust, and through the efforts of the Lowell Literary society it is hoped that these defeats will be avenged.

PI K A vs. Alpha Delt

Pi Kappa Alpha added another win to its string of victories when its representatives humbled the Alpha Delta's to the music of 21-7. At no time during the game was the cage of the winners in danger, and they held their lighter opponents to passing, and defensive work.

A feature of the game became evident when Jack Jelfs, the diminutive lad from Raton, was sent in at center for the Alpha Delt. On the first tip-off, Dow outjumped the seven-foot marvel, but after that, the ball went mostly the way Jelfs wanted it to. The floor work of the Pi K A quintet was immensely superior to the brand displayed by their opponents, and White distinguished himself at guard, where he intercepted all but a few passes, in the direction of the Alpha Delt goal.

Bryan again loomed as the most promising Alpha Delt player, and he is thought by most dopesters to be one of the two best guards on the hill. Bryan, alone, however, cannot hope to bring his combination through with wins, and he is handicapped with a lack of forward material.

PI K A vs. SIGMA CHI

Upsetting all the dope, the Sigma Chi's, by showing a more aggressive and speedier game of basketball, defeated the Pi K A quintet on the Y. M. C. A. court last Tuesday, 28-12. From the starting whistle, the Sigs grabbed the lead, and were never headed till the final pistol-shot Jack Wilton, Boys Secretary of the Y, an authorized official by the A. A. U. refereed the contest, and as a result, a number of fouls were called, among which were sufficient personals to disqualify our Blanco.

Team work, and passing of the Sigs was much superior to that of their rivals, and these two threats were bolstered by the addition of several long shots made by Abe Stowell, from the center of the court. Jones and Dow played most consistently for the denizens of East Silver avenue, although neither approached the efficiency of Wagner in bagging free throws.

The result of this game placed Sigma Chi tied for the lead with Pi Kappa Alpha, and it is conceded that these two teams are superior to anything else in the field.

SHE COULD USE HIM

"Rastus," said the judge sternly, "you're plain no-account and shiftless, and for this fight I'm going to send you away for a year at hard labor."

"Please, Judge," interrupted Mrs. Rastus from the rear of the court room, "will yo' Honah jes' kinder split dat sentence? Don't send him away from home, but let dat hard labor stand."—The American Legion Weekly.
