FRESH ACKNOWLEDGE SOPH SUPERIORITY

Yearlings Overwhelmed in Annual Contest; Popejoy, Wright Stage Big Battle.

Stung by the Freshmen's intimation that they intended to hang up the King's Cross, the Sophomores went on the field Saturday in a blood-thirsty mood and soon brought the yearlings into a state of complete subjugation. The second year men made a clean sweep of the entire party, capturing the Freshman goat along with the major portion of their canes. Not satisfied with this they polished off the program with an easy victory in the compound-obstacle relay.

In the cane rush, Captain "Red" Popejoy was the chief attraction, vanquishing his deadly rival, "Kid" Wright, from the Institute after nine minutes and thirty seconds of grueling combat. Second in importance to this combat was the duel fought between "Fighting" Bob Elder and "Stringbean" Bursey, which ended in a draw and which was the only match which was undecided when the final whistle blew. Bruce Hanger deserves especial mention for the desperate fight he put up with his more powerful Irish opponent, Mr. Patrick Miller. Hanger was subdued after eight minutes of real gravel-slinging action.

Bill Hale of the Sophomore division deserves the biggest part of the credit for winning the relay for his class. He led off and secured a safe lead which was never overcome by the Freshmen. At one state of the event, however, the Frosh threatened to make the grade. This was when "Slim" Akinhead, running the slipperiest race of his life, surmounted and skidded under all obstacles and materially reduced the Sophs' lead. Jelfs, however, ruined whatever chance his class had by his inability to force his slight frame through the impediments in the course, and in the last lap, Jones, the Freshman champ, was under too great a handicap to have a look-in.

On the result of the contest depended the continuance of Freshmen Inkspots as part of the Campus color scheme. Their defeat at the hands of the fighting Sophs makes the wearing of the green a duty still for all male members of the under class, at least until a time when the Sophomores shall see fit to release them from this obligation.

Y. W. C. A. MEETING HELD IN HOKONA

At the weekly meeting of the Y. W. C. A. held in Hokona last Monday, the revised constitution of the organization was adopted. Plans were made for a candy sale to be held on the campus on February 11. The proceeds of the sale will go to paying the debts of the Y. W. C. A.

Under the direction of Miss Mary Sands, the girls in the Y. will give a stunt for the entertainment of the members of the Y. W. C. A. on Washington's Birthday.

The usual amount of refreshments were served, after which Miss Dorothy Cameron played a couple of little ditties on her violin.

"Bill" Stahl, beloved "Pitfall and Ginner" has departed this University. The Wanderlust hit him too hard and he has packed his baggage for Redlands and the Golden State. Fare Ye Well, "Bill"—You're gone but not forgot.

WHY NOT EXTEND THE BASKETBALL SEASON?

After the remarkable showing made by the University basket-ball team against the undefeated Arizona quintet, there should be no doubt as to the desirability of an extension of the season to include contests which will afford the Lobos an opportunity to make a bid for the State championship.

Games with the Agricultural College and the School of Mines at Socorro can be made feasible. They are the only institutions, having teams in the field, who can rightly lay claim to the inter-collegiate title of the State.

The pronounced difficulty, is as usual, the financial problem. Having established the fact that the University of New Mexico has a real basketball team representing it, there should be no trouble in securing attendance at games. The sport can be made very nearly self-supporting, and the value of strong athletic teams is well known.

Last year, the Washington's Birthday fete did not become a reality. Great possibilities are contained in this project, and if devoted to raising funds for the athletic association, under the management of a competent group, it should provide a means of reimbursing the athletic fund for any strain that might be caused by the basketball season.

It is not too late to schedule games with the institutions mentioned above. Our chances are good. We feel that the student body should be willing to support the team. If you are willing, take it up! Think about the fete, and invent means by which you may assist in its success.

Let's play the Aggies!

CONTEST CANDIDATES TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Race for the Mirage Feature Page to Start Next Tuesday When Blanks Arrive.

As soon as the tags are printed the Mirage's grand annual contest will get under way. Rivalry is already keen on the campus among the various groups. The field of possible candidates is especially fruitful this year. Consequently the cost of placing the winner is going to be high, for none of the factions will give up without a complete canvass of all the possibilities. The Pi Kappa Alphas, Sigma Chis and Alpha Deltas have all announced that they will place candidates in the field. A list of these will probably be available for publication in our next issue.

The Dormitories and Sororities have not given out anything on the subject, but each will probably have its representatives in the field. According to the contest manager, Mr. Blanco White, there will be no less than six candidates in the field for the honor of being chosen the most beautiful woman in New Mexico; and probably as many as ten will be out to prove their popularity.

Votes, of course, are secured with the sale of the Mirage—five hundred votes to the copy. Should every student in the U. contract for the nineteen twenty-two number, there will be some 130,000 votes to be contracted for on the campus alone. The winners of the contests will be photographed by Albuquerque's most skillful camera artist for a full page (three poses) in the Year Book—a page to each successful candidate.

Mortarboard Junior held a meeting last Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Eleanor Cameron.

Miss Florence O'Hara left last Saturday night for her home in Clovis, much to the regret of her many friends. She will probably return later in the Spring.

Beta Xi of Sigma Chi announces the pledging of three neophytes. Walter McCarthy of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Fredwyn Valentine of Santa Fe, New Mexico; and Charles Sullivan of Williams, Arizona. All three are new men who just enrolled this semester.

Mr. Ralph Miller who has been taking advanced Secretarial Training at the Western School for Private Secretaries has accepted a position in Roswell, New Mexico.

JOHN SIMMS DELIGHTS AUDIENCE IN CHAPEL

One of the most accomplished speakers that has ever graced the platform in Rodey Hall entertained the University student body last Friday with a discussion of the Federal Constitution. Into an apparently scientific and legal subject, John Simms, Albuquerque attorney, injected a wealth of natural appeal and interest that held undergraduates and visitors alike with its eloquent charm.

Carefully modulated, Mr. Simms' voice, with his pleasing Southern "fore's" and soft accents, made an ideal medium for his appreciation of the most significant document of the United States. It was with reverence that Mr. Simms spoke of the evolution of the Constitution, and of the vital importance which it bears towards the welfare of the nation. The ideals of its founders and the steadfast devotion that made it possible were touched upon, and formed an unusually effective background for an explanation of the document itself.

Mr. Simms explained the relation of the Constitution of the Federal Government to those of the Sovereign States, which is a question occupying a large portion of the time spent in civil litigation, and he concluded his address by suggesting that each undergraduate review the Constitution of the Federal Government every six months, in order that the future of his community may be provided with at least one person well informed as to the fundamental laws of the nation.

His wit, his droll humor, and his native manner of introducing startling incongruities, as Santa Clause, into the discussion, betrayed his ability to secure the attention of the fickle undergraduate, and the student body accorded Mr. Simms the most hearty applause encountered to the present time of any speaker. Miss Dorothy Cameron again favored the assembly with an intricate selection on the violin, which displayed all her technical skill, and her splendid powers of interpretation to best advantage. For an encore, she played a simple composition, with a great deal of sweet melody.

Miss Rosa McComick of the University of Oklahoma has enrolled in the University. She is at present staying at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Miss Marcella Matson, Margaret Smithers and Rosemary Murphy, all of Albuquerque, have enrolled in the University.

VARSIITY PASSERS BOW TO WILDCATS

Lobo Dribblers Recover from Stage-Fright and Nearly Take Second Battle; Team Shows Fight if Not Polished Game.

Playing a polished brand of basketball, the University of Arizona quintette came through with the long end of the score, in both Wednesday's and Thursday's contests with the fighting Loboes, winning the first easily by a 58-22 tally, and squeezing through with the second 25-21. Both games were hair-raisers until the final gun. In the first event the Varsity were unable to solve the Arizona offense, and the Wildcats scored repeatedly on signals, demonstrating excellent team work, and remarkable skill in hitting the hoops.

The Loboes, however, displayed occasional flashes of skill and repeatedly put the Arizonians on the defensive. Inability to connect with the net lost New Mexico a great many badly needed points. Slonaker, for the visitors, seldom missed an opportunity, scoring thirty-two of the fifty-eight points garnered by his team. Jones was easily New Mexico's star in this game, registering fifteen points.

Thursday night's game was a thriller from start to finish. The Loboes, playing the ball from the Arizona center, and using a five-man defense, put a decided crimp in the basket shooting of the visitors. For the first eight minutes in the first half no score was made by either team, and guarding was so close that neither side had opportunity to shoot except from the center of the floor. The Loboes took first blood when Abe Stowell sunk a long one that seemed to take a half-hour to come down. On the strength of this start, Jones came through with one followed by another by Horgan.

The Wildcats came back with a rush scoring three in rapid succession, two straight from center on signal play. A foul on Dow gave Arizona a one-point lead when Slonaker dropped it straight through.

U. N. M. TENNIS CLUB PROMISES FAST TEAM

Racket wielders have been encouraged by the announcement that a series with Arizona is practically assured. Last year the men from the sage-brush state came over and administered the double 0 to the net men of the U. With this defeat keenly felt, the members of the tennis club are assuming a belligerent attitude and practicing daily. The dopesters are convinced that Arizona will be on the short end of the count, when the referee calls a halt at the next meeting.

Prospects for a series with the University of Southern California are also good. This institution has never sent a team to meet New Mexico, but both institutions are eager for a test of skill.

The recent rallying tournament brought out some splendid material in this branch of sport. All club members have been classified according to their final position in the tournament, and any player can change his position on the dope sheet by challenging and defeating the man rated above him. The order in which the contestants now stand is: Wilfley, Reeve, Horgan, Wagner, Miller, Dow, Berger, Long, Hoyland, Mapes, Clark, Culpepper, Angle, Davis, Bowman, Bursey.

seniors, Cullen Pearce, Vernon Wilfley, Ed Horgan, and George Bryan, who constitute the total active membership of the Khatahle Senior Honor Society, met for a short get-together and business meeting. While the organization is still a comparatively

WHERE'S THE OLD PEP?

Marked lack of interest in student affairs is very much in evidence. We ask "What's the Matter?" Nobody has pep enough to answer. During the first week of the new semester, the heads of three student organizations called meetings, made announcements on the bulletin board, and named the places and dates. Not enough students appeared at any of these meetings to enable the transaction of any business.

If some of the undergrads of this institution were as dead from the neck down as they are from the neck up, they wouldn't even get to classes. We owe it to ourselves and to our school to get behind these things and push. Attend your class meetings. Back the Lowell Lit. and Dramatic clubs by getting into the game up to your ears. If something doesn't get going pretty soon, we'll have to have Calkins deliver the last rites and go ahead shoveling in the dirt.

JOHN SIMMS

We wish to express to Mr. Simms our sincere appreciation of his address on Friday last. It is not often our good fortune to listen to words as sincere, or as pleasing as those of his address.

A compelling personality, and an inimitable manner of speech cause Mr. Simms to stand out above the average chapel speaker. We can assure him of an enthusiastic audience on any occasions when he may be able to visit us.

A MESA IDYLL

Out to the mesas, brown and bare,
With their soft, sweet calm and the desert air,
A crowd of happy revellers throng.

And this the burden of their song,
"O Youth is young and her heart is free."

And her lips are tuned to melody,
And she dares to love with untrammelled heart;
The gloom of sorrow's but a thing apart.

So sing her songs with notes of glee,
For we are a jolly company."

The night birds sing with silvery note,
And love songs trill from every throat

And by love are the revellers' lips made bold,
For is not youth's heart love's own stronghold.

The moon swings up with her silvery disk,
And she blushes not at the lovers' kiss,

And the stars wink with joyous ecstasy,
At the proof of loves' felicity.

O the Moon is but a silver boat,
And her sails are made of a cloudy cloak;
And her voyage is one that appeals to me

For she sails on a sea of ecstasy.

And old love is but a silver boat,
And her sails are made of a gossamer cloak;
And her voyage is one that appeals to me

For she sails on a sea of mystery.

UNIVERSITY CONCERTS TO BE SENT BY WIRE

Weather reports sent out from the University wireless station Friday night were received by the government station at Camp Ira J. Jones, Douglas, Arizona, according to a telegram received by Professor Carey recently.

The University station is now sending weather reports and market indications issued by the Denver Weather Bureau. These reports are sent out at 12:30 noon and 6:30 in the evening with a wave length of 375 meters.

The equipment of the radio station has now been completed with the installation of a new Westinghouse type R. C. regenerating set. This is a very compact tube detector, and two stage amplifying unit, which will receive from any distance. Time signals from as far as Honolulu have been received.

The sending set at the station is the most powerful in the Southwest. Cards received by Professor Carey indicate that it has been heard in every state. When the continuous wave telephone transmitter arrives, the University will give regular Sunday night concerts in Rodey hall and will broadcast them by wireless. These concerts, (not phonograph record recitals) will also be open to the public. Judging from the distance which smaller sets will send, this new telephone set should reach anywhere in the United States, it is stated.

Vernon Wilfley, operator of the station, will open a short course in radio transmission the next semester.

A successful business man was asked what he considered the best product that he ever produced in his plant, and he answered: "Men." WITH THE GREEKS

Rushing season is on again—everybody's in his best clothes and manners; the beauty and popularity contests are beginning—intrigue and campaigning for votes has started. In short, things are perking up a little and campus life shows signs of interest.

Alpha Chi Omega—Sunday night, January 29, the Patroness of Alpha Gamma of Alpha Chis entertained the actives and pledges of the chapter at six o'clock dinner at the Alvarado. Places were set for twenty guests.

Alpha Delta—The Alpha Deltas are making plans for a smoker sometime in the near future.

Phi Mu—Tuesday afternoon the Phi Mu house was the scene of a very enjoyable "cozy" for a number of invited guests among the University students. The rooms had been cleared and dancing was the order of the afternoon. Later, light refreshments of tea and wafers were served. Altogether, everybody had a dandy time and it added to the Phi Mu reputation for "tea dansants."

Pi Kappa Alpha—The P. K. A.'s flung a "keen" dance at the Masonic Temple Friday night under the direction of "Bill" Roy. A masquerade ball. The hall was elaborately decorated and delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Miss Florence O'Hara was awarded the prize for the best costume, among the many clever and unique ones there.

Sigma Chi—The boys in the chapter house and a few invited guests were entertained by Mrs. Mullen at her new home on East Gold Avenue, February 4, from four to six. The party took the dual role of a housewarming and a reception for Mr. and Mrs. Dick Bruce. The house was tastefully decorated with sweet peas and carnations. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Gass presided at the table.

Next Saturday the Sigs will give another of their characteristic, clever dances, in all probabilities at the chapter house.

Kappa Kappa Gamma—The Kappa pledges have recently perfected an organization of their own, separate from the active chapter. Norma Williams was elected president, Elizabeth Shepard, vice president and Helen MacArthur was chosen advisor from the active chapter.

Tommy—"What does LL.D. after a man's name mean?"
Jimmy—"I guess it means that he is a lung and liver doctor."

VARSITY PASSERS BOW TO WILDCATS IN FAST CONTEST

From this time on until the end of the half it was nip and tuck with the Wildcats fighting to retain their lead. The half ended 12 to 10 in favor of U. of A.

The Wildcats started the scoring in the second half and for a time threatened to take a large lead, but the Lobos stiffened and scored several in succession. Horgan was injured by a hard fall and had to be taken out for a time. He was replaced by Wilkenson. The last few minutes of the half showed the Lobos in full possession of the game, with the Arizonians stalling for time. The game ended 25-21 Arizona.

The work of Thomas at center in this game was the outstanding feature of the Wildcat victory. He consistently outjumped his opponent, and contributed several beautiful baskets. For the Lobos, Horgan and Stowell played the flashiest game, Horgan was all over the floor after the ball. Besides scoring three from the field, he made four out of five tries from the foul line. Stowell played his usual style of game, provoking his opponents with his elusive manner of handling the ball and dribbling largely to advantage. He scored three long rainbow shots from midfield.

The line-ups were as follows:

Arizona:	New Mexico:
Slonaker	Horgan
Tovrea	Jones
Thomas	Dow
Wallace	Stowell
Lockling	Bryan

Substitutions:

Arizona—Hobbs for Lockling.
New Mexico—Wilkinson for Horgan.
