U. N. M. TENNIS CLUB STAGES TOURNAMENT

Brainy Work of Skeel, Campus
Violet, Takes Game From
Graham—Sig. Star

In a fast, showy game, Skeel of the Sophomore class, vanquished our Graham, the Junior Champion. Skeel won the first three games in a very few minutes by brilliant serves and rallies. The stroke work in the first set was as nearly perfect as we have seen in this part of the country. Mid-season class was shown by both players.

The second set opened with each man determined and fully aware of the skill of his opponent. Crafty placings and nasty cuts were exchanged to the delight of the packed galleries, all of U. N. M. being on the side lines. Skeel took a net position for all of Graham's services and throughout the whole set showed the crowd a high degree of perfection in net strokes, completely mystifying Graham in the twisting, smashing returns, first to one side, then to the other.

Graham opened the third set with a service that we have not seen the equal of before or since. Apparently innocent looking tennis balls bounded high over Skeel's head, spinning and twisting like something alive. Skeel's mature, experienced game overcame the novel game of his opponent though, and he finished the set with colors flying.

The winner was awarded a beautifully hand painted jar of Bando-line, the prize selected a week ago by a committee consisting of Bruce Hanger, George Owen and Frank Ogg.

Scorekeeper for the match was Charlie Caldwell. Linesmen were Pat Pugh and Dean Waite.

Score:

Skeel	6	6	6
Graham	0	3	2

PAN-HELLENIC HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

At the first meeting of Pan-Hellenic this semester, Miss Helen MacArthur of Kappa Kappa Gamma came into presidency. Work on the Constitution was begun. Pan-Hellenic feels that the Constitution should be brought up-to-date and new rules made to keep pace with the growth of the University. A beautiful new scholarship cup was secured and presented to Phyllis for highest scholarship record for the semester ending June, 1921. Alpha Delta Pi won the last cup for three successive highest records. Plans are being made for a big inter-sorority dance March 18th. It will probably be held in the Masonic Temple and be one of the most important social events of the season.

Miss Mary J. Baker, a student volunteer from the University of Nebraska spent Monday and Tuesday of this week visiting the Varsity Y. W. C. A. While in school Miss Baker was prominent in all student activities and she is now planning on taking up work in the foreign field. Through conferences and meetings with the girls, Miss Baker was able to give a great deal of interesting information concerning the many calls for foreign service and the need of the various countries. The girls derived much pleasure and benefit from Miss Baker's visit and it is to be regretted that more students were not able to meet her.

She looked with favor on his suit.
For why should she evade it?
She was the tailor's daughter cute
And knew her father made it!

PIPE AND PEN BOYS NEEDED ARTICLE

Heated Debate in Organization
Results in Purchase Now
on Exhibition

At a recent meeting of the Pipe and Pen club, it was decided to purchase a much discussed and long needed article. The question of the purchase has been lingering over several meetings and it was only at the end of a long and somewhat complicated debate that a set of resolutions were drawn up and a committee appointed to investigate the matter. The committee was given full power to use its own judgment regarding the article to be purchased, the size, shape, color, material, price and capacity having been decided upon by the club.

However, upon inquiring, the committee met with further difficulties, when it learned that brass was the only material in which the article could be obtained, whereas the set of resolutions specified that it be granite. A call meeting was immediately summoned to settle the situation and since there seemed to be no other way of adjustment, each member gave ten cents more, and the brass commodity was purchased. It is now entranced in state in the meeting rooms of Pipe and Pen, where anyone who wishes may view it. There is nothing especially remarkable about it but considering that it belongs to that much feared and respected organization, this added attraction will without doubt draw large crowds.

Pipe and Pen expects to startle the public with the results gained from having this useful appendage added to their other furnishings. The artistic effect in the midst of pipes of all varieties as well as pens of all kinds, is a unique one, and one that lives up to the credit won by the organization. The article is a spittoon.

If I could only pipe and pen
Like certain very worthy men.
Complete would be my glory then.
If I could only pipe and pen.
Brave weapons are a pipe and pen
Mightier than a sword, and when
I make a wish, I wish again
That I could learn to pipe and pen.

PECULIAR EVENT STARTLES CLASS

Action as Rare as Dodo Takes Place, Giving Cause For Investigation

A class in English literature suffered a severe shock several days ago from which many of them are not expected to recover. It is said that one of the students who has never, within the memory of any member of the class, been known to arrive any earlier than fifteen minutes late, actually made his appearance in the class room before the final echoes of the last bell had died away. The phenomena occurred quite without warning and the class promptly succumbed to the overwhelming wave of astonishment that swept over them.

Authorities are fabled in their attempts to solve the mystery. Just why any individual who is accustomed to adorn the front of the main building surveying with a truly reflective eye the comings and goings of campus couples, dreamily enjoying his cigarette to the very last puff and who dropt into classes with the nonchalant air of one who has come to pay a social visit and see how everything is getting along anyhow, should actually arrive on scheduled time, cannot be easily determined.

It has been suggested that the matter was accidental. The guilty party may have been quite innocent of purpose. His watch although not of the wrist variety, may have been fast or he may have been impelled to act as he did by false reports of the hour. The results of the crime, however, were no less than if he had acted from the basest motives and anyone who submits the nerves of the student body to such shocks must not go unpunished.

Another theory has been advanced by one of the women in the afflicted class. She claims, indeed that the incident was not unexpected. It seems that the professor had mentioned a few days before an unloved and unsung mathematical maxim, that three tardinesses make one cut, and one cut makes one zero and that he had threatened to put this ancient law into practice in the near future. The young lady believes that this suggestion may have been

NORMALITES TRIM VARSITY SEXTETTE

Snappy Team Work and Matured
Experience Hands Defeat
To Fighting Co-eds

In their first appearance in a match game against opponents from another school, the Las Vegas Normal, the Varsity Sextette, though defeated with a score of 31-13, played a hard, fast game. The Varsity squad showed good team work and good individual playing, though lack of practice proved to be a disadvantage against the Vegas veterans.

The beginning of the first half was rather slow, the Normal scoring several baskets before the Varsity team got into action, however, after this the score was more even and during the second half, the Varsity came back with real fighting spirit. Clarisso Parsons starred as forward for the Varsity, throwing several spectacular goals, while Emma Gerhardt played a fast and accurate game. The team work in center was especially good, Helen Nelson proving herself to be swift and level headed. The guards, Leona Sherwood and Freda Mitchell had the hard task of holding down the experienced Normal goal shooters and their work was very creditable. Joy Currie and Helen Mills as forwards starred for the Normal, their goal shots being particularly accurate.

The line-up was as follows:

Normal	University
Helen Mills	f. Emma Gerhart
Joy Currie	Clarissa Parsons
Dia Herring	c. D. Stephenson
Charlotte O'Mally	Helen Nelson
Violet Ford	g. Freda Mitchell
M. Barden	Leona Sherwood

This game will be the only one of the season. Prospects for next year are that several games will be scheduled with teams of college rank.

The result of the game was a natural consequence of the lack of interest in athletics which has been shown on the part of the women students throughout the year. Without strong backing as well as a well equipped, regulation indoor court, the team cannot do its best.

WOMEN TO COMPETE IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

There will be a Tennis Tournament for Women early this month to determine the Tennis Champions among the Co-Eds. There will be a meeting on March 6th at 12:30 P. M. in Room 26, to plan for the tournament and to select the tournament committee which will conduct the draw, select the referee and be in complete charge of the matches.

There will be a singles and doubles tournament in order to give each contestant a chance at the form of the game with which she is most familiar.

This is the first event of this kind for the Co-Eds and is one of the heralds of a revival of the Athletic spirit among the College Women. If the tournament is a success, it will open the way for other contests of an athletic nature.

TO ORGANIZE SWIMMING CLASS

Miss McCormick has secured permission from the manager of the Y. M. C. A. to organize a swimming class, which will be conducted at the Y. M. C. A. swimming pool. The class will be under the supervision of the swimming director of the Y. M. C. A. The class will be conducted once a week, an hour, has not yet been decided upon. A great deal of interest has been displayed, at least 20 having applied for admittance.

ONE WORD IN EDGEWISE

This issue of the Weekly, which is put out by the Co-Eds is not primarily intended to be a literary production. We are entirely inexperienced in such matters, none of us being fortunate enough to be included on the Weekly Staff or any other place where practice is gained in handling material of this sort. The first purpose of this editor is to express our feelings on a matter which has concerned us rather deeply for the past two or three months. It is the fact that the women students have been rather plainly discriminated against wherever the opportunity presented itself regarding student activities. The general sentiment seems to be that the women are weak, we should be satisfied with the vice presidency of everything and that association with the broad minded men students of the University should be enough to appease our desire to have a finger in the pie. However, we are finding this inadequate. This college is not the University of Pennsylvania nor any other Eastern college where women are considered as an unnecessary element and consequently are discouraged in participating in college activities. The Co-Eds do not desire to create any ill feeling whatever, nor strife of any kind, neither do we wish to monopolize the student body organization. We ask only a share and the proper share in helping to direct college activities. Is this more than fair? At the recent elections of the Dramatic Club officers, the Co-Eds put over the movement which they did, to experiment with what could be done, as well as to show their desire to engage in a promising college activity. The result seemed to provoke expressions of disgust on the part of the many men students and a counter spirit to crush any further movements of this sort. We do not wish to create a feeling of this kind. We are not asking for mercy nor begging to be let it, we can manage that without any help. We merely wish to create a better spirit in regards to this matter and to let the public know that we are interested in the University of New Mexico and wish to do everything we can to further the progress of its organizations and activities.

We don't intend to give you the razz (As hard as you give it to us)

BURSEY DISCOVERS ENTIRELY NEW JOKE

At last the fourth joke—or is it the fifth—is about to make its bow to the world! For a new joke has been discovered, one that will sink into oblivion everything ever attempted in the line of wit, and the credit for its discovery goes to our own Joe Bursey, Joke Editor of the Weekly. No longer will the world be limited to the stock jokes of the past! No longer will wit take a subordinate position among literary arts! For, by means of Joe's discovery, wit will receive a stimulus that is bound to carry it above all past literary achievements. And Joe's name will go down in history emblazoned alongside those of Aristophanes and Laurence Sterne as one of the keenest and most penetrating minds in literature. This new joke will make its appearance in the next number of the Weekly.

Numerous consultations with friends and members of the faculty were held by the discoverer last week to determine the advisability of launching his supreme bit of wit at this time, as it was feared the numerous complicated subtleties upon which it rests might be unappreciated. However, after careful consideration, it was decided to publish Joe's bit of condensed wit in the belief that the high intellectual standards of the campus, gained through the presence of the Co-Eds, would enable perfect comprehension on the part of all students.

Despite efforts to keep the matter secret, it is rumored that, in some mysterious way, word reached the officers of Life, Judge, and Punch, of the new discovery, and that enticing offers were made for the right of original publication. But Joe, with characteristic loyalty to his Alma Mater, declined the tempting offers. Rumor added, moreover, that Joe was approached by several vaudeville concerns with offers to make the rounds of their numerous theatres and deliver his joke at first-hand to the public. It was even suggested that a European tour might follow his American triumph. But Joe was adamant. The result is that the Weekly will have the single honor of publishing this new joke in its columns next week.

Don't be afraid that you will not be allowed to run the business if it is seen that you know how.

Columbine, a faithful and eccentric, is vainly looking for a way to charm Harlanquin. A confirmed heart-breaker, Pierrot, in his turn, worships blindly at Columbine's feet, but is snubbed for his pains. The maid, Margot, is constantly offering advice gleaned from her rather shady past and makes a hitting comedy out of the most tragic of scenes. Of course it ends well if not wisely through the troubles of Punchinello, the magic peddler.

The whole thing is fanciful and pleasing and at times becomes almost a farce. Mrs. Noxon is dainty as Columbine, and, Peggy Hamilton heads the list as Margot. They are surrounded by a capable cast which includes Dale Snyder as Harlanquin, Tom Hughes as Pierrot, and Louis Hesselton as Punchinello. Mrs. Rockwood is ably directing the play which will be presented at Rodey hall, Friday, March 17.

responsible for the lamentable event. This seems very improbable but if it is true it is to be hoped that the faculty will be more considerate about making these announcements in the future.

Detectives who have been employing the utmost diligence in seeking out the underlying causes of the deed have come to the final conclusion that it was committed rather in the same spirit that impels the suicide rather than in that in which the murderer executes his bloody deeds.

Three young men have admitted that they were severely approached by the criminal a short time before the calamity occurred with a request for a cigarette. All three refused, the first having been vainly expecting the next check for some days past, the second youth not desiring to give up the very last specimen of the desired commodity that he possessed, as he was saving it to recuperate with after taking an English quiz from Dr. Hubbell; and the third, unfortunately belonged to the small but select group who never indulge. It is little wonder then, that such a series of misfortunes brought about a despondent frame of mind which precipitated the calamity. The public is assured that due precautions will be taken by proper officials to avoid a repetition of the event.

* SOCIETY *

Among the sororities the past week was a busy one for second semester pledge day came on Washington's Birthday. The familiar little ribbon bows are decorating blouses of a number of fair neophytes. But due to the fact that "The Sheik" was in town with Rudolph Valentino you know very few large affairs were "pulled off" as all the girls wanted a Rudolph instead of a mere man.

Alpha Chi Omega:

The Alpha Chi's entertained their many friends at an "at home" Sunday from four to six. Ice cream and dainty cakes in the sorority colors were served. Callers were students and faculty of U. N. M. By their delightful tea Alpha Chi added to her many laurels in the entertaining game.

Hokona

The visiting basketball team from Las Vegas will be entertained at the Girls Dormitory after the game Friday night. The affair will be in the nature of a reception. There will be guests from among the High School girls who have so obligingly played several watch games with the Varsity the past week and allowed the Varsity to use their gym. Reception and refreshment committees promise ample entertainment.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Six men initiated. Phi Kappa Alpha celebrated Founders' Day with banquet at Taft Hall the night of March 1. Charles Lembike presided as toastmaster.

Six new pins, six new pins.

See how they shine, see how they shine!

They all belong to men without coats.

And see how each man over his pin gloats

Phi Mu

Xi chapter of Phi Mu will celebrate the 20th Birthday of the fraternity with a banquet at Taft Hall Saturday night, dues alumnae, pledges usetings Phi-Mu's will be present. Miss Louise Lowber will be toast master.

Phi Mu celebrated Washington's Birthday and the pledging of Marcella Matson with a 6:00 o'clock dinner in the house. A delicious four course dinner was served by the pledges. Guests were Dean Mosher, Erna Ferguson, Louise Lowber, Wenonah Dixon and Marcella Matson.

HONOR DAY AND PRIZES

Annual Honor Day Exercises were inaugurated during Commencement of 1921, and will be repeated at succeeding commencements. Annually on the occasion of HONOR DAY, the president of the State University and the president of the Associated Students, in the presence of the students and friends announce in Rodey Hall the names of those students who are entitled to certificates of excellence or prizes for achievement. The honors bestowed by the Faculty are awarded by the President of the University and honors bestowed by the Student Body are announced by the president of the Associated Students.

The occasion is one of interest to the students and their relatives and friends.

UNIVERSITY HONORS AND PRIZES

The C. T. French Medal For Scholarship

A friend of the University, Mr. Chester T. French of Albuquerque, during the Spring of 1921, notified President Hill of his willingness to establish a permanent fund, the proceeds of which might be used perpetually as a prize to stimulate scholarship. Mr. French accordingly gave $500 in Liberty Bonds for this purpose. The C. T. French Medal for Scholarship will be awarded annually by the President of the State University to the student who meets these conditions:

(1) He or she shall have obtained during that year the highest general average for scholarship in a regular course of not less than 15 hours, leading to the Bachelor's degree, during a residence of not less than one full academic year.

(2) Only Juniors and Seniors in residence will be eligible in competition for the C. T. French Medal, and the Medal can be awarded to the same person but once.

Katherine Mather Simms Prize in English

Another friend of the University, Mr. Albert Simms, during the Summer of 1921, gave $250 in Liberty Bonds, the interest of which will be paid in cash to that student who in the opinion of a Faculty Committee and the President of the University has excelled in English Composition. The prize is named for Mrs. Katherine Mather Simms, a great grand-daughter of an early president of Harvard.

Class Certificates

The Faculty on Honor Day awards Special Certificates of Excellence, as follows:

College of Arts and Sciences

Best Scholars respectively in the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior Classes.

College of Engineering

THE CECIL RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS

In accordance with the provisions of the will of Cecil Rhodes, awarding two scholarships every three years to each State and Territory in the United States, tenable at Oxford, England, and of the annual value of $1,750, New Mexico has the privilege of electing a scholar from the candidates who present themselves.

The election from the State, without the examinations formerly required, is made by a State Committee appointed by the American Society of the Rhodes Trustees. Recommendations of candidates from the University are made to the State Committee by the authorities of the University.

March 17, 1921, when with other elaborate ceremonies the Engineers pay honor to their patron, Saint Patty was given last Saturday evening by Mrs. W. G. Hopewell for her son, Willard Hopewell, who spent the holidays at home. Dinner was served tertaing with a dance at the Wom-

Angle, Tom Bunn, Stewart Mac-Ar-
they, Van Olson, Ray Gilbert, Max
