EVEN BREAK FINISHES BASKETBALL SEASON

Varsity's Men Win, But Women Lose to Business College; Strong Individual Playing a Feature.

The basketball season closed Friday night with one of the hottest contested games played on a local floor this season. The Varsity and Business College broke even, the former winning the boys' game, and the latter the girls' game. The Varsity girls, although they received the smaller end of the 38 to 14 score, put up a game fight. The team was considerably weakened by the absence of Miss Ethel Kieke from the game, who was not permitted to play because of a broken nose, received in a previous contest. Miss von Wachenhusen also received injuries in the first half, which kept her on the bench the final period.

The A. B. C. girls took the lead in the early part of the first half, and although the Hill girls did their best they were not able to surpass the Stenog's during any period of the game.

Miss Myers, at-forward, starred for the Business College, making twenty-three of the thirty-eight points total. The Varsity score, with the exception of two points, must be attributed to Miss Loudon, who did wonders, notwithstanding the tenacity of the Business College guards.

Men's Game.

The boys' game started like a flash. Neher was the first man to score. The Varsity then took the lead with four field goals and a free throw in succession. The A. B. C.'s broke this scoring streak with a free throw. The Varsity came back with three more baskets. Neher then made two baskets for the Business College, and Lapraik followed with five goals in succession. The Varsity tightened, and the basket shooting ceased. The half closed with a score of 17 to 15 in favor of the Business College.

The U. N. M. boys came back for the final period with the determination to win. Calkins started the good work with a nifty throw. Three more baskets successively put the Varsity in the lead, which they safely maintained throughout the remainder of the half, by gradually adding to the score. The close of the half found the Varsity in the lead by a fair margin, the total score being 35 to 25 in their favor.

Special mention should be given to Lapraik. His playing was exceptional during the first half. Neher also played a strong game at center. The Varsity, as a team, was in the lead during the larger part of the game. It was only in the final moments of the first half that they weakened. The two McCannas played their usual strong game. Friday, at forward played consistently. Calkins starred at guard, and kept Spitz, the fast A. B. C. forward, completely out of the running. Claiborne also played a strong game.

The attendance was three hundred, and all went away well satisfied.

DOUBLE PROGRAMME AT ASSEMBLY HALL

D. S. Rosenwald Talks on Education in Business Success; Music by Profs. Seder and Tello.

A double program of much interest was enjoyed by the audience present at the University assembly this morning.

The first part consisted of a talk by Mr. D. S. Rosenwald, of the firm of Rosenwald Brothers, of this city, who spoke on "Is Education a Factor in Business Success?" The second part consisted of musical selections on the violin by Professor I. L. Tello, with the University's musical director, Professor E. S. Seder, assisting.

Mr. Rosenwald was introduced to the audience by Professor C. E. Hodgkin, dean of the University, who had been Mr. Rosenwald's instructor in the Old Albuquerque academy in the early days of education in this city.

Mr. Rosenwald's talk was short and to the point. He discussed the cultural value of education toward enabling a business man to enjoy not only his own life, but also in making him take the proper interest in the welfare of his employees. He declared that whereas in the past business had been considered inferior to the learned professions, it was now taking equal rank with them, and considered as honorable and desirable as law, medicine or the ministry.

Mr. Rosenwald declared that the college training received by the person entering the business world was of inestimable value to him, in that it enabled him to think out plans and take the initiative in them, so that while at first he was on an equal footing with the ordinary boy or girl, yet this superior training of his shortly enabled him to outstrip them.

Mr. Seder and Mr. Tello then rendered the musical portion. The program was as follows:

Sonata for violin and piano, G minor, Op. 13 Grieg
I. Lenten Doloroso; Allegro vivace.
II. Allegretto; tranquillo.
III. Allegro; animato.

I. L. Tello, E. Stanley Seder.
(a) Adagio from Sonata in B minor Bach

(b) Valse Triste Sibelius

(c) Scherzo-Tarantella .. Wieniawski
At the conclusion of the regular program, as an encore, there was rendered a waltz, a composition of Professor Tello.

CANTATA PROGRESSING.

Work on the Cantata, "The Story of Calvary" to be presented by the University Choral Clubs Easter Sunday afternoon, is progressing rapidly, and practically all arrangements are now complete for its presentation. The full programme will be announced shortly.

LATEST FASHION NEWS FOR WOMEN'S PERUSAL

Varsity's Correspondent, With Lifting of Veil of Censorship, Sends Joyful News to U. N. M.

The very close censorship on the news from the countries that are involved in the great European war has at last been lifted and our foreign correspondent on fashions is able to give us some hints on the new spring gowns for the women who are fastidious and wish to be modishly dressed.

One thing in particular that our correspondent writes, which attracts our particular attention, is that the skirts are to be full, very full, and stop five inches above the ankle; now don't mistake and think that he means the floor for he means exactly what he says, "the ankle"; also, something out of the ordinary is that real underskirts are to be worn underneath them. This is some of the startling news that was not censored.

Empire waist lines are to be the rage, and sleeves are elbow and three-quarter length. A few bolero jackets are being shown. Most of the other coats exhibited stop about five inches below the hips, falling in godet folds from a waist line four inches above the natural one.

Blue is the leading color, while faille and silk gabardine are the leading materials, although covert cloth is also making a strong showing. Something out of the ordinary that is being extensively used as trimming is monkey fur. This may seem quite cannibalistic to some but fashion dictates to all. Necks of dresses are higher in the back and low in the front, there being no collars that are high all around.

Our correspondent writes, "I have attended the openings of Paquin, Benard, Beer, Lavin and Doucet. Doucet is showing three-piece, Empire, long coat suits; also, afternoon gowns in black net, Chantilly lace and jet. Afternoon colors are Chateaux, navy blue and dull rose.

"At Paquin's much net and very full skirts in black and light blue over tinsel petticoats. Small bouquets of roses are scattered about the skirts to good effect.

"The most notable showing at Beer's are the dresses for young ladies. Dresses have full skirt and the Empire waistline; a little short cape goes with them, which is no longer than the waistline.

"Many of these capes are seen in fur, they being a change from the coat and jacket.

Long capes with only slashes for the hands are seen in many charming models. Hats are extremely simple with the style characteristic of 1856 dominating."

USEFUL.

"What kind of work could you possibly do around an office?"
"I'm a kind o' all-round handy man, mister. I kin hold a door open, light a match for ye, look out an' see if it's rainin', call a taxi, drop a letter down the chute, an' tell folks yer out when ye ain't."—Life.

TEN HIGH SCHOOLS IN COMING MEET

Everyone of Last Year's Participants, With at Least Three New Ones, Will Be Represented.

To date, the University has heard from ten high schools throughout the state who will participate in the Third Annual Interscholastic Track Meet to be held here April 23-24. The athletes of these high schools are training daily for the events, and the University is expecting a stiff battle for the possession of the cup.

Those schools which, to date, have accepted the University's invitation to participate in the meet are: Roswell, Artesia, Tucumcari, Las Vegas, Santa Fe, Belen, Albuquerque, Hagerman, Alamogordo and Deming.

The first seven named contended for the loving cup here at last year's meet, and the last three named will be new participants and will undoubtedly show unexpected class in some of the events.

Prof. A. O. Weese, chairman of the committee in charge of the meet, expects to hear from perhaps two or three more high schools in the state before the event takes place.

SPLENDID MUSICAL PROGRAMME TUESDAY

Third of Series Given, with Prominent Local Musicians Participating; Prof. Bonnett Speaker.

The third in the series of University musicales will be given Tuesday morning, the 23d, at 10:30, following the assembly address by Professor C. E. Bonnett. The musical program will be participated in by Miss Louise Nichols, who has been prominent for several years as an exceptional pianist, by Miss Louise Thorn, whose beautiful contralto voice has already been heard at one of the vesper services, and by Louis Hesselden, formerly a student and star football player at the Varsity, whose fine bass voice has been repeatedly heard in high class concerts in the city.

The following program will be given:

Bedouin Love Song Pinsuti
Mr. Hesselden.
Rhapsodie in G minor Brahms
Miss Nichols.
"One Fine Day," from "Madam Butterfly" Puccini
Miss Thorn.
Witches' Dance MacDowell
Miss Nichols.
(a) To One Afar LaForge
(b) Deserted MacDowell
Miss Thorn.
Rolling Down to Rio German
Mr. Hesselden.

COMING EVENTS.

Prospects in all forms of students activities certainly look bright for the rest of the year. With a good bunch out for baseball and track, and with a number of last year's stars left over, the University has every reason to feel certain of an excellent showing in these activities.

The Interscholastic Track Meet will provide an interesting form of entertainment for all of us, and with the prospects of persuading some of those youthful athletes to pursue their further education at the University, we feel that we are entitled to a general feeling of optimism.

"THE MIRAGE."

The editorial side of The Mirage need worry no one; it is in safe and experienced hands, and the quality of its reading matter can be vouched for beforehand.

But the financial side is the one wherein the co-operation of every student is necessary in order to insure its success. The manager finds it pretty rocky to obtain ads as it is, and should need have no fears about the students contributing their mite in the form of subscriptions.

You need The Mirage and it needs you. Nothing will afford greater enjoyment to you in after years than a perusal of its contents, serving to bring back the days spent at the U. N. M.

Everyone can afford one copy; and in most cases, two or more. So buy your tickets NOW, be sure of getting your annuals, and then you can feel that you have tried to do your duty!

PRESIDENT BOYD TO SPEAK
AT ROSWELL COMMENCEMENT

Dr. Boyd has accepted the invitation of the Senior Class of Roswell High School, to deliver the Commencement address this year.

As Roswell will graduate the largest class of any High School in the State, the honor that falls to Dr. Boyd, in being selected to deliver the address, is a splendid tribute to his ability, scholarship and reputation as an educator and speaker, aside from his connection as President of the University.

FIRST BASEBALL
PRACTICE HELD MONDAY

"Monday afternoon the first baseball practice of the season was held. About fifteen men appeared and Coach Hutchinson put them through the usual preliminary work-out which was rather light. The form showed by the candidates was naturally quite crude after the winter's rest, but "Hutch" is enthusiastic and believes he can put out a good team.

All men who play baseball are urged to come out for the daily practice, as several extra men can be used.

DIFFERENT SORT OF LEADER
DESIRED IN MODERN WARS

Contrast Noted Between Ages of Generals Herebefore and the Ones Directing Present Conflict.

General Grant was in the 41st year of his life when he captured Vicksburg, in the year of 1863, and Meade, the victor of Gettysburg was at the same time 48; Sherman was 43, and Sheridan was 32 years old. In the same year "Stonewall" Jackson was killed, he being but 39; when McClellan was placed in charge of the Union forces in 1861 he was only 35.

Napoleon was in the forties when he commanded with so much brilliancy the armies of France.

These ages are interesting because they are in such striking contrast with the advanced years of the men who are in command of the armies now battling in Europe. On the German side General von Emmich, the captor of Liege, is 66, and General von Kluck is 68. General von Hausen who recently gave up the command of the Saxon army, is 68; General von Heeringen is 64; General von Bismarck, 61, and General von Beulow 68. General von Moltke, who is in command of East Prussia is 67. One interesting thing is that nearly all of these officers took part in the Franco-Prussian war in 1870. On the Allies' side, Earl Kitchener is 64, Smith-Dorrien 56, and Sir John French 62. The three French generals Paul, Joffre and Gallieni, are all approaching 70.

From this statement of years it is easy to infer that modern warfare demands in Generals mature judgment and experience rather than the superabundant energy and high personal courage that were supposed to be the distinguishing marks of the old-time warriors.

An' I don't like his wife.

He's not so quick and clever,
That is, not as a rule;
At times, the times we disagree,
He seems a sort of fool.

Put still, it somehow thrills me
To grip his hearty hand;

Is that we understand.
I understand the varmint;
Sometimes he savvys me,
And that's what makes a man your pal
As far as I can see.

UNIVERSITY'S MUSICIAN RECIPIENT OF PRAISE

Seder's Playing in Miss Albright's Concert at Santa Fe, Spoken of in Most Complimentary Manner.

In the splendid concert given in Santa Fe last Wednesday by Miss Claude Albright, the famous operatic star, one of her assistants was Prof. E. S. Seder, Head of the University's Department of Music.

The Santa Fe New Mexican has the following to say concerning the concert:

Miss Albright's remarkable artistic discrimination was shown equally in the choice of her assistants and the designing of her programme. Professor E. Stanley Seder, the organist-composer, who heads the Department of Music in the State University, who has the honor of being the youngest member of the Organists' Society of America and a genius whose talent has attracted national attention.

The work of Mr. Seder at the piano was also a revelation to those who had only been conversant with his wonderful mastery of the pipe organ, at which he is nothing less than a youthful wizard.

Mr. Seder's numbers included Grieg sonatas and Moskowski's Valse in E—enough to show the capabilities of the performer splendidly.

UNIVERSITY CHILD HAS VERY NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

Miss Marian Clark, daughter of Prof. Clark, had a narrow escape from drowning the other day. Marian, who is two and a half years old, was romping about Prickett's yard when she fell into the University's cess-pool. Her loud cries attracted the attention of her sister Nellie, age five, who promptly pulled her out and took her home.

Nellie reports that somehow Mother Clark did not seem to like the looks of Baby.

You'll find the world is cold, I fear, When for some aid you holler; For all your friends will shed a tear, But none will shed a dollar.—Ex.

There Are Plenty Just Like Her.

New Haven, Conn., claims to have discovered a young lady whom, when asked by her grandmother what needles are for, answered that they are to make a phonograph play.—Ex.

Names Is Names.

A. B. See is a school teacher at Learning, N. D.—Ex.

The Wise Fool.

"A man is known by the company he keeps," observed the Sage.

"Yes, and he is also known by the phonograph records he buys," added the Fool.—Ex.

California's Pan-Hellenic has issued a decree forbidding undergraduate women from attending the Panama-Pacific exposition without chaperons, whether with male escorts or not. Severe penalties are attached to any breach of the decree by any member of the university organizations concerned.
