ROSWELL HIGH AGAIN WINS THIRD TRACK MEET CHAMPIONS OF THE STATE BY NARROW MARGIN

DEFEATS ALBUQUERQUE HIGH ITS NEAREST RIVAL, BY ONLY TWO POINTS

PRELIMINARIES INTERESTING

Weather Rather Unfavorable, But Good Crowd Present Both Days to Cheer Contestants on and Make Them Put Forth
Best Efforts to Win Out.

The Third Annual Interscholastic Track Championship of New Mexico, held under the auspices of the University on Friday and Saturday, April 23rd and 24th, marked another onward step in interscholastic track athletics in the State, and showed the keen interest that is yearly growing among the schools of New Mexico for this branch of athletics.

Good crowds were present on both days, and everyone was enthusiastic and impartial in his rooting, the cheers of the crowds and friends spurring the young athletes on, and causing them to put forth their best efforts to bring home the championship to their respective teams.

As was the case last year, the contest soon narrowed itself down to a fight between Albuquerque and Roswell High Schools, both of whom fought hard, and the victory was in doubt until the final event, the hop, step and jump, when by Roswell's annexing first place here, their lead was cinched by the narrow margin of two points, and the day closed with the score standing 54½ to 52½ in favor of Roswell.

The weather was not so favorable as formerly, rain at one time causing a temporary suspension of "hostilities," but soon the sun came out again with full vigor, and the crowd again filed out into the field, where the events proceeded with enthusiasm and determination.

The summing up of points for the finals was as follows:

100 yards—Mann (Albuquerque), 1; Feather (Artesia), 2; Aydelotte (Roswell), 3. Time, 10 3-5.

Putting 12-pound shot—Higgins (Roswell), 1; Clifford (Albuquerque), 2; McKinney (Roswell), 3. Distance, 41.7.

Half-mile run—Davis (Roswell), 1; Boldt (Albuquerque), 2; Clark (Deming), 3. Time, 2:15 3-5.

Pole Vault—Clifford (Albuquerque), 1; Mann (Albuquerque), and Whatley (Roswell), tied for second place. Height, 9.8.

120 yards high hurdle—Thackery (Albuquerque), 1; Erb (Roswell), 2; Whatley (Roswell), 3. Time, 18 2-5.

Running high jump—Clifford (Albuquerque), 1; Whatley (Roswell), 2; McCaw (Artesia), 3. Height, 5.4.

440-yard dash—Davis (Roswell), 1; Jaffa (Roswell), 2; Thackery (Albuquerque), 3. Time, 57 3-5.

Running broad jump—Arnold (Roswell), 1; Saulsberry (Alamogordo), 2; Calkins (Albuquerque), 3. Distance, 19.9 feet.

"UNDISPUTED CHAMPS" BATTLE MONDAY NIGHT

Contest Will Positively Come Off on That Date, no Matter What May Happen, is Final Decision.

The debate between the two teams from the Debating Classes of the University, which was to have taken place on Friday evening, April 23rd, and was postponed on account of work in connection with the Track Meet, has been definitely set for Monday evening, May 3rd.

The contest will come off on this date, no matter what may intervene. It has been finally decided by the members that they will allow no activities of any kind to interfere with this final intellectual battle, and so all are again busy at work with their speeches, getting everything polished up, and both sides positive for victory.

It has been unanimously decided to allow the decision to rest with the audience, who will constitute a committee of the whole to pass on the merits of the case.

An interesting musical programme has been prepared by Professor Seder for the occasion, which will occur before and after the debate, after which a vote will be taken by the audience.

The subject, as announced previously, will be, "Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Own and Operate the Railroads of the United States."

The members will be allowed five minutes each for main speeches, after which there will be two rebuttals by one man from each team, of five minutes each, one for main rebuttal and the other for counter. Allen E. Bruce will rebut for the affirmative, with Carl D. Brorein doing same for the negative side.

The members of the teams will be as follows:

Negative: Ray McCanna, Leonard J. Claiborne, William J. Higgins, Ernest Hall, James K. Polk, Carl D. Brorein.

Affirmative: Joe McCanna, Orie McGary, Glen Emmons, Adlai Feather, Fred M. Calkins, Allen E. Bruce.

DANCE AND DINNER AFTER TRACK MEET

Cups and Banner Awarded, Medals
Are Distributed, Enthusiastic
Speeches Given, and All Ends Merrily.

The dinner and dance given to the participants in the Interscholastic Track meet last Saturday evening was a great success. All the high school track men and the track officials were on hand when the University girls served the four course luncheon. When the athletes had broken their six weeks training by eating all the salad, ice cream, etc., Prof. Weese formally awarded the track cup and the relay race cup to the victorious Roswell team. Next the medals were awarded, and it may be interesting to note that the most of the medals were given to men who had set new state records. Speeches were called for by the crowd from the various contestants and the boys told of their hopes for winning in next year's events.

President Boyd told of the plans the University had for next year's meet.

Since the flooding of Traction Park had resulted in changing the place for the meet and the subsequent success of holding it on the University campus had been shown, henceforth the Interscholastic Track Meet will always be held on the campus. Coach Hutchinson congratulated the track men on the good sportsmanship they displayed and urged them to specialize in their events next year, and for each man to limit his entries to two or three events in which he excels.

From then until midnight the guests enjoyed themselves in dancing and playing cards.

HONOR STUDENT TO BE ENTOMOLOGIST FOR THE U. S.

(From the O. A. C. Barometer, published by the Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Ore.)

W. J. Chamberlin, '15, left college Wednesday, the 14th, to work on forest insect infestation on the Lower California and also on the Santiam National Forest.

After June 1st he will hold the position of Entomologist in the Forest Service of District Six, including Washington, Oregon and Alaska, taking the place left vacant by the death of Jack Pernot.

His ability may be judged by the fact that he has been on the honor roll for three semesters and had the highest scholastic average of any man in college the first semester of last year. Last summer he spent with the local Department of Entomology.

Mr. Chamberlain has been a student here for two and one-half years, having entered from the University of New Mexico.

RESULTS OF MEET.

The results of the Third Annual Interscholastic Track Meet were highly satisfactory to everyone connected with them. The High School athletes evidently enjoyed themselves greatly, everything went off without a "hitch" and no stones were left unturned by anyone to insure the success of the events.

To all the committees, collectively and individually, the highest praise is due, and to Professor Weese, who managed the affair, and saw to it that everyone knew his duty and why, the heartiest appreciation and congratulations must be extended.

The value of the meet in stimulating and keeping up the interest in track athletics is incalculable. Turning the minds of the high school students in the direction of healthy and honest sport is about the finest thing a person can do, and not only provides means for them to exert themselves in honest competition, but also helps to lay the foundation for a physique that will stand them in good stead throughout their lives.

Let us all be looking forward, with even greater anticipation and enthusiasm, then, to the fourth annual meet next Spring, and when the time comes around for it, may the memory of the former successes urge all forward to greater and better efforts.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.

Commencement Week with its exercises and events will soon be here, and it is to be hoped that every student and faculty member will consider it his duty to stay for this week, and consider himself a committee of one to use all his powers of persuasion to get others to do likewise.

A number of interesting and profitable events are scheduled, with distinguished speakers, and all who partake in these exercises may well be assured of getting the utmost of value out of them.

Elsewhere, the programme for the week is given, which it is hoped each student will feel it his duty to read and consider thoroughly.

NO JOKE.

Though he has hours for slumber deep,
Man's a contrary pup;
He never really wants to sleep
Until he must get up.

Knees.

(By a Mere Man!)

Knees bag trousers, hold girls, and at one time were extensively used for praying.

Knees are also employed in baseball and football. When used for this purpose they are first covered with hair mattresses.

Knees come in pairs; as in poker, four knees usually beat a full house.

Every knee, like most well-ordered kitchens, has a pan; no knee, indeed, is complete without this necessary domestic article.

Knees are also used by husbands, who plant them firmly in their wives' backs, while hooking them up, engaging themselves meanwhile in merry songs and airy persiflage.

Every knee helps to tether the calf of the leg to the thigh; if it were not for the faithful knee the calf would wander off by itself and get into trouble. Sometimes it does anyway.

Knees will go on uncomplainingly for a long time with heavy burdens, but when requested to carry alcohol they almost immediately begin to fall out with each other.

They frequently have to hold up a perfectly useless person for many years; before the altar, however, or during an after-dinner speech, they frequently knock each other hard.

Sometimes knees are fond of lamp posts and will cling to one for hours at a time.

Knees are ambitious; a pair will begin by holding up one girl, and will end by holding a whole family.—Life.

HE DIDN'T KNOW

IT WAS LOADED

(Weekly's English Theme.)

Professor Fooseburg, the eminent naturalist, was seriously injured yesterday when struck by a shell from one of the huge cannon which the United States has recently had made. The Professor's injury is not fatal, however, and it is reported that he will soon be about again. A reporter tells the following story of the accident:

"As I was standing today near one of the huge cannon which 'Uncle Sam' has recently purchased for coast defense, I observed Professor Fooseburg, the eminent naturalist, frantically pursuing with a net some specimen of the Genus Butterflies. A few minutes later I saw the bug suddenly check its flight and dart into the mouth of the huge gun. The Professor ran up to the gun, peered near-sightedly into it for a moment, and then, to my astonishment, he crawled into the great barrel. I was horrified for I knew that the gun would be electrically discharged in a few minutes in order to test its range, which was supposedly about fifteen miles. I stood as though rooted to the spot by terror for a moment and then started to rush toward the gun. But I was too late. There was a deafening roar which shook the ground. I looked toward the gun in horror. Smokeless powder had been used and there was no smoke. I expected to see the remnants of the Professor blown into the air and then to see the huge shell hurtle far out to sea. Instead I saw the Professor come sliding out of the gun and alight some ten feet away. The shell, which was very much battered then dropped out of the muzzle. I rushed to where the Professor lay and was very much astonished to find that he was intact save for a great bruise on the top of his head. I hurried to the nearest telephone and summoned the ambulance and a doctor. The doctor arrived with the ambulance and after a short examination said that trepaning would be necessary but that when this operation had been performed, the Professor would soon be all right. Seeing that I gasped with astonishment at this, the physician explained that in Professor Fooseburg's case, as in many others, the prolonged study of natural science had caused a thick bony formation in the upper part of the skull, which was almost impregnable. We took him to the hospital in the ambulance and the operation was performed. As soon as he recovered consciousness he asked after the specimen he had been pursuing and grieved much at its loss. He said he had not known the gun was loaded."

TUNNEL IS USED BY THE MALE STUDENTS

To Reach Dormitory of Fair Co-Eds at Earlham College. Heroes on Athletic Field Set Back in Credits Because of Clandestine Meetings.

Richmond, Ind., April 27.—A sequel to the charges of lax discipline and favoritism shown athletes at Earlham College made by Prof. Elbert Russell following the action of the trustees recently in accepting his resignation is the investigation now being made by the faculty of the Quaker institution of the report that certain men students have been making use of a tunnel connecting the men's and women's dormitories to spirit co-eds into the campus after the hours prescribed for young women to receive callers.

Four of the school's most prominent athletes, without whom baseball, football and basket ball teams would be handicapped seriously, are involved. Their names have been withheld. It has been learned that on the night of March 12 authorities caught these young men, all of whom are employed in the dining room at Earlham Hall, filling clandestine engagements with girls.

The conduit which carries water and heat pipes and electric wires from Bundy Hall, the men's dormitory, to Earlham Hall, is sufficiently large, to admit a good-sized man, allowing him to walk through the passage. At Bundy Hall it enters a part of the basement which is unoccupied. The entrance to the tunnel is close to a basement door opening onto the campus at the rear of the building.

At Earlham Hall the passage has its opening near the kitchen.

Students and friends of the young men implicated say they had keys to the tunnel, which permitted them to pass from the men's dormitory to the girls' building at will. Information obtained at the college indicates that matrons, who have charge of the girls' dormitory, often were puzzled by the disappearance of co-eds from their rooms and by subsequent inability to locate them in the building.

As a result of these incidents members of the Student Council, the self-governing body which acts on matters of discipline and reports its recommendations to the faculty, called an investigation. The verdict was that each of the prominent athletes should be deprived of five hours' credits.—Cincinnati Enquirer, April 28, 1915.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS AT FINALS OF THE TRACK MEET

"Uncle Joe" Cannon and Party, on Way to Hawaii, Motor Out to Field and View Few Events.

During the holding of the final events in connection with the track meet, on Saturday afternoon, through the efforts of Dr. Boyd and the Commercial Club, the party, consisting of former Speaker of the U. S. House of Representatives, "Uncle Joe" Cannon, and a number of Congressmen and their wives, were brought in automobiles out to the University's athletic field, where the long line of machines was driven into the center of the field, facing the audience and contestants.

Yielding to cheers and solicitations, "Uncle Joe" stepped from his machine and bowed several times to all present.

He was scheduled to say a few words, but a severe cold prevented his making any remarks, so the audience, greatly to its disappointment, had to be contented with his bows and smiles.

After a brief stay, as the party remained only three hours in Albuquerque, they left the grounds for the city, followed by the cheers of all present.

It proved a pleasant innovation for the afternoon, besides gratifying the desire of many to get a glimpse of so remarkable a man as the former ex-Speaker, with whom all are familiar through the newspapers or other mediums.

Roswell took the lead at the first in this and kept it up, increasing with each lap, and finished a good 100 yards ahead of the nearest man, representing Albuquerque. Roswell high school won a well deserved victory, and the University's championship banner, and Matson cup again goes to them. The boys all made a fine impression upon all the University authorities and their departure for home in automobile was greatly regretted.

The teams representing Santa Fe, Deming, Tucumcari and Artesia also distinguished themselves by their excellent manner while at the University and made a host of friends among the student body and authorities. The track meet has had the effect of bringing a strong bond of friendship for the University among the various schools represented, and all are now beginning to look forward to their active participation in next year's events, with the hope of better luck then.

The individual championship goes to Clifford, of Albuquerque, with a total of sixteen points, with Davis of Roswell second, with fifteen points, and Mann of Albuquerque, third, twelve and one-half points.
