THIRD DEBATE OF SEASON APRIL 25

Carl D. Brorein and Pryor B. Timmons Selected to Represent Varsity in Third and Last Debate With U. S. C.

The third and last debate of the U. N. M. debating season will be held in the High School auditorium on Tuesday evening, April 25. On that evening the University debating team composed of Carl D. Brorein and Pryor B. Timmons will meet the representatives of the University of Southern California. The question to be debated is: "Resolved, that the Federal Trade Commission should be empowered to regulate trusts and monopolies as the Interstate Commerce Commission is empowered to regulate railroads." The question is one of national interest, and is one which Congress may in a few years be called upon to settle either with the affirmative or with the negative.

At the first try-out for the selection of the team held Saturday evening at the University, Coach Bonnett and Dean Hodgkin selected Carl D. Brorein and Pryor B. Timmons from among the contestants who tried out as the ones presenting the strongest argument in the try-out. With the near approach of the debate, the members of the debating team are devoting all their spare time and energy to putting the finishing touches to the most crushing points of their respective arguments upholding the affirmative side of the question.

The names of the visiting debaters have not yet been received by Coach Bonnett, but this much we know: the visiting debaters will be students of the U. S. C. Law School and will be men having extensive experience in the field of college debating, men who have shown their oratorical and argumentative powers through long service in their college, and they will represent the flower of U. S. C.

J. F. JONES TALKS AT VESPERS

The vesper service Sunday afternoon was addressed by Mr. J. F. Jones who gave a very interesting talk upon the text taken from the gospel according to St. John as follows: "And the word was made flesh and dwelt among as full of grace and truth." He laid especial emphasis upon the word grace and pointed out the full significance of this word. He showed what a beautiful and lovely life might be secured by striving to build into one's life this virtue of grace. He also pointed out how little this word was understood or preached in our modern life and that theology took up its time considering the things about which we know so little and which cannot affect our life very much to the exclusion of the beautiful things in life.

The vesper service was not attended as well this past Sunday as the previous week and again we wish to take the liberty of urging upon you the need of whole-souled support of this college activity. The music furnished by Professor Seder with the help of others is well worth the time which the vesper service requires.

VARSITY ATHLETES IN GRIP OF EPIDEMIC

National Ailment Spread to Varsity Diamond by Red Skins Takes Senior-Juniors and Faculty as First Victims.

Although the Indians, Thursday, were repulsed 5-3, the faculty and senior-juniors were exposed and Friday, Doctor Public attending them at the Varsity diamond, pronounced the attack to be of a grave and serious nature, but declared the junior-seniors to be the worse off by a 10-9 ration.

Serious indeed appears the epidemic that has spread among the Varsityites. Its serious—its extremely serious—aspect becomes evident to everyone when it is known that the super-alls of the institution—the faculty and senior-juniors—were the first to break down. The far renowned Dr. Public called upon these it-would-appear-unsusceptible bodies at the Varsity diamond last Friday afternoon and after serious contemplation voiced the opinion that these bodies, individually and personally, were afflicted with the great National Ailment—an ailment appearing in spring and lasting until last fall; an ailment that makes diamond idols of small town sports and fans out of business men and office boys—Baseball. Doctor Public said that the disease probably has been spread by the Indian nine which visited the hill Thursday.

His attention being called to the violent and peculiar actions of one Prof. Math., Dr. Public declared his to be an exceptional case and that he doubted seriously Prof. Math's survival of more than one period or game. Dr. Public went on to state that there need be no undue alarm; that the patient had best let the disease run its course, and, although at first the attacks were violent, that

A PRAYER FOR UNIVERSITY SENIORS.

O God, Thou art good. Within Thee is comprehended all truth, wisdom, power and love. We bow down before Thee in reverence. Thou hast brought us up out of Egypt unto the borders of the Promised Land. Thou hast been the supreme Architect of our soul's destiny. Laboring together with Thee have been many builders: Our kith and kin, the passers-by on the high road, the teachers, prophets and priests of our youth, the precious intellectual heritage of the past, the love of manhood and womanhood, the Great Friend. Reveal to us the means whereby we may render back a small share of our indebtedness to these unacknowledged creditors who go with us and before us. Grant that we may realize, for their sakes, a portion of the future which they have seen in us and made possible. We feel within us the surge and potentiality of vast resources. We know that we are well able to possess the land. But help us, O God, in the dawning consciousness of our sovereignty, to be not overwise in the pride of life. Enable us so to organize and employ the material we find ready to our hand, from whatever source, that by Thy plan we may before splendid in our ability to do a man's or woman's work in the world; unspoiled in the humbleness and simplicity of sages and little children; worthily useful in the teeming vineyards of human service. And as the manifold structure of our lives unfolds and approximates the models we have set before us, teach us to throw open this rich treasury of which we have been appointed stewards in trust, and to pour it out, unstinting, at the feet of our homes, our posterity, our fellowmen, our nation, the peoples of the earth and the Kingdom of Heaven. Amen.

THE HOME STRETCH.

We are now on the home stretch of the year 1915-16. With some it is now a test to see whether the ever-thinning trousers seat will last until the end of school and we can get home. With others it is a test to see whether we can stall the Prof. off a little longer without letting him find out how little we know about his subject. And with still others it is a question as to whether that last ten dollars will carry us through.

And what will these students do when at length the year is over and the final sprint finished?

Ah! Some will go home and mow the lawn between smokes, and next fall dad will yield up a few hundred dollars to them because they helped him so much during the summer. But for others it is a harder matter to spend a vacation. It is necessary for them to take get-rich-quick lessons from professional grafters, so that they can bunco the farmer and the unsuspecting housewife with sure cures for corns on the ear, headache in the head, and backache in the back—because money must be acquired during the summer by some means.

How different is our view of life now from that we held when we used to chase around bare-footed among the stubble, going swimming in the irrigation ditches, stealing watermelons on Sunday and borrowing the rich ripe apples from the farmer. And we would tell our friends of these exploits with no less zeal than a Wellington would tell of his victory over Napoleon.

But those days when our wardrobe consisted of a blue shirt and a pair of overalls are gone, and with them the care-free attitude that hangs around the swimming pool and the trapeze out in the old apple tree. The college man begins to look upon the world with the thought that there is a hole in civilization that he must fill.

The "Home Stretch" in college brings different visions to the home stretch of the school year, when we were in the fourth grade.

THE HONOR SYSTEM IN TEXAS.

Texas university has had the honor system for a year and it seems to be very successful. Six students, four upperclassmen and two freshmen, have been found guilty of violation by the student council. They were all suspended from school in punishment. Two of the men who were sentenced were convicted of violating the honor system by getting another student to prepare some work for them, which they memorized and used in examination. Two more were convicted of an offense growing out of misconduct and the other two stole some zoology drawings and handed them in as their own work.—Ex.

ANNUAL GEOLOGY TRIP FURNISHES EXPERIENCE.

Twelve men of the Geology Department, accompanied by Dr. Kirk and Dean Prickett, left the University campus Sunday morning at 11 o'clock for the annual field trip.

No definite destination was given by Dr. Kirk, the principal object of the trip being to get out of the way of civilization, next to nature's heart, so that these embryo geologists may study geology where geology exists.
