STUDENT BODY VOTES TO POSTPONE CIRCUS

At Meeting Held Last Week it Was Decided to Discontinue Preparations for Varsity Show Which Was Called for April 21st; War Crisis and Devotion of all Time to Military Work Given as Cause for Such Action.

The University showed her patriotism in other ways than merely joining in the patriotic demonstration at the assembly April 11. Almost all the colleges of this country have given up some branch of their athletics or school work in order to provide time for military training for men of these colleges. Those that have not substituted this training have either taken up some other branch of work that will be of some use to their country as well as themselves, or have given up such evidences or irresponsibility merely to show their patriotism at this time. The University of New Mexico is not to be left out of this list.

Until now, plans and training for the University circus—that was to be have been going forward at a rate that showed the pep of the persons in charge, as well as their willingness to work. At the assembly on April 11, called to decide whether this work should continue, the vote of the student body showed that the sentiment of the majority of the members of the University was against a circus at this time of the national crisis, when everything that we do and every evidence of backing the government that we show, has its weight. With this vote, the idea of having a University circus was given up entirely, and the men of the college will have military drill from this time on until the end of the college term.

Coach Hutchinson has had some valuable experience along this line and has offered to drill the men in this "branch of athletics." This sacrifice on the part of the University merely shows that we are willing to "do our bit."

FACULTY TAKING STEPS TOWARD COMING CRISIS

At Meeting Yesterday Afternoon of Instructors of University, Question Was Brought Up Concerning Sending Farmer Men Home; Outcome Not Known Now.

The faculty met yesterday afternoon for the purpose of deciding whether or not to send the men farmers home, giving them full credit, so they will be able to assist in putting out this coming crop. Several members of the faculty expressed their willingness to consent to this plan, and although their action is not known now, in all probability, they will vote unanimously for it.

This is undoubtedly an event worth consideration and will of course cause considerable lack of men at varsity. However, if action is affirmatively taken, large numbers of our students will return home.

GRADUATED INCOME TAX URGED TO BE SUPPORTED

Telegram from University of Texas to Dr. D. R. Boyd Shows Interest and Enthusiasm Taken by all Educational Institutions.

The following telegram received from the faculty and student body of the University of Texas seems to hit the nail on the head, and should receive the immediate attention of our governing heads at this institution. The Weekly is heartily in favor of such a plan.

Dr. D. R. Boyd,
Albuquerque, N. M.

We are telegraphing our congressman and sixty American Universities to wire their congressmen, urging them to support heavily the graduated income tax for financing war. If we conscript both life and income of some, let us conscript war profits and luxuries of those who cannot fight. We urge your institution to do likewise.

(Signed) Faculty and Student Body, University of Texas.

San Marcial Shop Team Succumbs to U. N. M.

Cherry and Silver Aggregation Defeated Visitors by Score of 19 to 6, in Second Game of Double Header at Hopewell Field; Bernhardt Pitched Best Game of Season, Allowing Only Few Hits; Varsity Squad Exhibited First Class Baseball; in First Game of Afternoon A. B. C. Team Suffered Defeat at Hands of San Marcialites.

The fast U. N. M. baseball aggregation took the San Marcial A. T. & S. F. team to a good drubbing last Saturday afternoon at Hopewell field, to the tune of 19 to 6. The game only lasted eight innings. Perhaps if there had been one more, the tune might have changed to "There'll be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight." The game started at four o'clock, and for the first two or three innings seemed to be an even bet, but the Varsity men got their eye on the ball and big Chief Guterrez was forced to resign in favor of Lonzo Sears who had pitched the first game against the Albuquerque Business College. Sears, however, was all tired out and proved no better against the heavy hitting Varsity nine. Each man in his turn clouted the ball for a safe hit or or two and circled the bases.

The game, although hopelessly one-sided, was exciting and interesting to at least a majority of the spectators who proved to be Varsity rooters. Comparatively few errors were made by the San Marcial men, although the Varsity booted a few both infield and out. Four or five errors may be attributed though to two men on the Varsity squad and with these out, the box score would be very respectable. On the other hand, the hitting of the entire Varsity crew more than made up for any errors that might have been made.

At the end of the seventh inning the Varsity men, thinking that the game was only to be seven innings, decided to leave the field, but upon objection from San Marcial, returned and in the eighth inning piled up nine runs. The score at the end of the seventh inning stood 10 to 6, and the San Marcial men thought they had a chance. However, at the end of the eighth inning they were willing to acknowledge the defeat and "threw up the sponge." The San Marcial men were playing at a disadvantage, having played the A. B. C. team before taking on the U. N. M.

The San Marcial men completely outclassed the Albuquerque Business College team in the initial game of the afternoon by the score of 14 to 2. Bearnny in the box for the Business College did not prove effective and the shop boys hit the pill with ease. However, had Bearnny been given any kind of support the outcome of the game would not have been so decidedly disastrous. Error after error may be chalked up against several of the stenographers. Professor J. E. Goodell is undoubtedly a much better short-hand teacher than a baseball coach or manager.

Lonzo Sears and Warner, the battery for San Marcial, proved very effective and had the A. B. C. men at their mercy at all times. Several hits were made, but the Business College men were unable to talley more than two runs.

The Business College rooters were out full force but could not embarrass the experienced visitors. Saturday night the Stenogs were hosts and hostess to the visiting team as well as the University team, at a very informal dance given at the Business College.

FUNNY STUFF??

Gee, but these army recruiting officers are particular about the "shape of a soldier." I asked a recruiting officer if he thought I would "get by" and after giving me the "once over" he advised that I was too big around the equator, that my feet weren't mates, that I had seen too many frosty summers and sunny winters, already yet—that my "figger" was "some figger," but it had sat in a comfortable office chair too long. Said recruiting officer never would be able to tell whether he had a stomachache or a backache, that's all I've got to say for his "figger."

Learn This:

The Star-Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

On the shore dimly seen through the mist of the deep,
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream:
'Tis the star-spangled banner! oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore,
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight or the gloom of the grave:
And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved homes and wild war's desolation;
Blest with victory and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
Praise the Power that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

IS THERE A REASON?

Some time ago a petition was presented to the faculty asking that they take action on a certain question then in dispute. We say, it was presented to the faculty, when in reality it was never brought before that body, but killed by a committee, without the faculty having any discussion on the matter. Some of the students seem to be wondering whether such action should be allowed, or whether all petitions, intended to come before the faculty, should not do so? No matter of how much weight or consequence the faculty should receive all communications, petitions, etc., and at least take them under advisement. The committee system is undoubtedly the best to adopt for all matters, but it does not seem that the faculty should permit any bills so to speak to be killed before they are presented.

ONE OF THEM.

You remember the goats with the beards on their throats,
How you laughed and joked and you made fun of them,
You had better at least have petted each beast,
For if you are in the Guard you are one of them.

You remember the day when the Guard went away.
They were cheering, each glad mother's son of them,
Now you sneer when they swear, but you ought to be there,
You, Civilian, ought to be one of them.

There are hikes by the scores, and some blisters and sores;
And they hate it, each son-of-a-gun of them,
But they're bucking the heat and the thought army meat,
And they're men, by the gods, every one of them.

They have added some weight with the rations they ate,
Every ounce, every pound, every ton of them,
Is devoted to toil, to our flag they're loyal,
They are giving their all, every one of them.

They get homesick at times, and they gamble their times,
While the fellows at home make a pun of them,
But they're "hitting the ball," for "they answered the call,"
And I'm glad, I'm proud, to be one of them.—J. Jackson Cone.

When the donkey saw the zebra
He began to switch his tail;
"Well, I never!" was his comment,
"There's a mule that's been in jail."

WAR DEPARTMENT.

March 27, 1917.

Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington,
Subject—Training in aviation.

The following is furnished for the information of universities and other institutions contemplating training in aviation not under government supervision:

1. Matters pertaining to equipment, instructors, types of machines, aviation fields, periods of training, and number of students are for the decision of authorities at the respective institutions. The federal government, by reason of existing laws, cannot share the expenses connected therewith.

2. Due to present depleted strength, it is not possible to lend the services of officers or enlisted men in the aviation section, signal corps, regular army, for duty at these institutions. The aviation section, signal corps, is willing and ready to act in an advisory capacity, if requested by institutions.

3. As to system of training of students at such institutions and their subsequent incorporation in the signal officers' reserve corps, the following advice is given:

(a) Students who intend to try for a commission in the signal officers' reserve corps should submit themselves to physical examination and qualify according to requirements for entry into reserve before they begin flying. Facilities for conducting these physical examinations by the federal government are available at all regular army stations.

(b) Students having received instruction at these institutions not under government supervision may, on presentation of affidavit to effect that they have had a minimum of twenty hours of flying, eight of which have been alone, take the reserve military aviators' test, under supervision of a government representative. Prior to taking this test, candidates must sign statement signifying willingness to accept a commission as reserve officer. They will not be permitted to take this test for commission unless they are at the time at least 21 years of age and have the necessary moral, physical and professional qualifications for a commission. On successfully passing the R. M. A. test, they may be commissioned in the reserve.

4. After being commissioned, if the reserve officer desires active duty, he will, at the option of the government, be placed with a regular squadron for advanced training; otherwise, he will revert to civil life as a member of the signal officers' reserve corps, subject to active duty fifteen days each year and for longer period by his consent should the government so desire and funds are available. His pay and allowance while on active duty are the same as for similar grade in the regular army (base pay.) While not on active duty, he receives no compensation.

5. Approximate cost of equipment: JN-4 or similar training machines, each, $8,000; spare, OX-2, motors, $2,750; maintenance, six months, each machine, $3,000; flying instructors, one for each eight students (if obtainable) each per month, $400; mechanics, per month each, $125; cost of proper repair shop equipment is not included.

EXTRACT OF POEM TAKEN
FROM 1917 MIRAGE

Following Ditty Composed by U. N. M. Student Failed to Pass Censorship of Annual Publication, but Will Appear Finally in Conspicuous Position.

The following extraction from one poem to be printed in the Mirage should be evidence enough that there is to be some real exciting poems and jokes, put into print when the 1917 edition of the Mirage comes out. By way of explanation, it is to be sincerely hoped and trusted that those not interested in this side of the book will not judge for themselves and decide that there is nothing else in the publication. On the contrary, the book this year is to be the best ever published at the University, from every standpoint.

Make up your mind now to purchase a Mirage, and when the opportunity presents itself, hand Mr. Pryor B. Timmons, manager, the price asked.

Form of Military Preparedness Adopted By Student Body Has Been Well Attended; Seventy-five Men Out Every Night to Learn Methods as Taught by Regular Army.

The men of the University of New Mexico are following suit of the men of the various other colleges of the nation, and are now spending a good part of every afternoon in drilling. These preliminary exercises are the most monotonous ones of the program but every afternoon finds the men out on the field ready to march until the lines are dismissed.

For the first few days Coach Hutchinson drilled the men, but beginning Monday night, April 16, Captain Carter took charge. Captain Carter is a West Point graduate, and has seen service in the Philippines, and has lately been with the men on the border. Regular army drill will proceed from now on, and even if the men are never able to Junior Prom.

The junior prom given by the junior class in honor of the senior class on Tuesday night was especially enjoyed after the season of no dances. It was given at Columbo hall, which added a great deal to the novelty and formality of the dance. Decoration were in lavender and gold; the junior colors, and the lavender and white, the senior colors. At one end of the hall there was a huge '17 in the senior colors and at the other end an '18 in purple and gold. The programs were white and gold made up into little booklets and tied with long white cords. The grand march led by Pryor Timmons and Myrl Hope begun a little before 11. After that programs were distributed and the dancing was begun. The refreshments were especially delightful, as was also the punch which was lavishly served during the dance.

Music by the Snyder orchestra helped to make the dance one of the most enjoyable of the year.

Those present were Myrl Hope, Kathleen Long, Ethel Kieke, Helen Latamore, Eleanor McDonough, Lena Ferguson, Irene Boldt, Margaret Cook, Shirley von Wachenhusen, Kathren Little, Margaret Flournoy, Lois Davis, Helen Wilson, Lorna Lester, Helen Darrow, Evalyne Long, Alberta Hawthorne, Caroline Michaels, Sillian Speckard, Martha Henderson, Julie Hubbel, Beatrice Selsor, Lillian Gustafson, Sylvia Rosenberg, Fortney, Pryor Timmons, Glen Emmons, Carl Brorein, Allen Bruce, Milan Doering, Ray McCanna, Steve Powell, "Doggie" Hoffman, James Hoover, Leslie Boldt, Dick Upton, Louis Nohl, Bill Grimmer, Mr. Scruggs, Herbert Shelton, Forest Fielder, Hugh Cooper, George Butler, Lyman Thackrey, Edward King, Don Richardson, Floyd Lee, Lon Sheean, Charlmers Bowers.

The Alpha Delta fraternity proved splendid hosts at their dance to the Pan Hellenic Association at the Woman's Club on Friday night. Decorations were gold and blue, the fraternity colors and cherry and silver. TENNIS TOURNAMENT NOW IN FULL SWAY

Committee in Charge Has Everything Outlined for Contests to be Played This Week; Referees, Balls, etc., May Be Had by Application to Butler or Daus.

The spring tennis tournament has begun and the four courts may be seen filled at all hours of the day. The first round matches are to be played off not later than April 20. This means that every one who signed up and is listed according to the bulletin board in Rodey Hall shall play his match before Friday of this week, unless of course he drew a bye. All second round matches must be played off not later than April 27. Third round matches not later than May 4, and final matches will be played by May 10. This gives every one ample opportunity and time in which to display his or her ability in the net and racket game.

Last year the tournament proved very exciting, as far as it went, but on account of several unalterable circumstances there were not as many people registered for the course as there should have been and naturally the interest taken was not the most enthusiastic. However, the committee in charge this year has everything outlined and the list is posted on the bulletin board for ready reference. For judges, balls, etc., see either Geo. Butler or Professor Daus.

Get behind this tournament and add interest to all the contests. We have several men and women who are able to play tennis exceptionally well, from last year's training and experience and several more who seem to be becoming experts.
