TEXAS DEBATERS WIN FROM U. N. M.

FOUR TO ONE DECISION IN FAVOR OF VISITORS WHO ARGUED FOR GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP AND OPERATION OF RAILROADS.

The visiting debaters from the University of Texas defeated New Mexico in Rodey hall last Thursday night on the question, "Resolved, That the United States Should Own and Operate the Railroads." The decision was 4 to 1 in favor of Texas. The hall was filled with an enthusiastic crowd, which listened to one of the best debates ever heard from that platform.

Henry Lee Taylor and R. C. Coffee, representing the Texas University, made speeches that could only be the result of natural ability, careful training and thorough preparation. Both are upper classmen in the law department, and have had several years of debating experience. They put up a forceful argument in favor of government ownership, showing that it was the only logical way out of the tangle that private ownership had brought about, and that practically all other countries had adopted this plan.

George Gentry and Clyde Morris, representing New Mexico, answered their arguments, asserting that the failure of the railroads of the country in time of crisis was not due to private ownership in itself, but to restrictions put upon them by unwise regulation. They argued that a mighty and dangerous new political element would be injected into the country, and that each administration would cater to the employees of the railroads. Both speeches were carefully worked out and well delivered, and the audience was in doubt until the report of the judges as to which team would come out victorious.

The meeting was presided over by Prof. Hodgkin, vice-president of the University. Timekeepers were Prof. Landers and Dr. Long, of the city. The judges were Judge Richard H. Hanna, of Santa Fe; Aldo Leopold, secretary of the Albuquerque Chamber of Commerce; Louis A. McCrea and Robert E. Putney, merchants of Albuquerque; and Lynn H. Fox, secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

Messrs. Taylor and Coffee expressed themselves as being well pleased with the apparent interest here along the line of debating, and predicted a bright future for the school in that respect. It is possible that a return debate will be held at Austin next year.

Joy Spruce has been quite ill, and on Saturday underwent an operation for appendicitis. Joy is improving steadily, though, much to the edification of her many friends.

ROSWELL WINS SCHMELTZER TROPHY IN TRACK MEET

ALBUQUERQUE WITHDRAWS FROM FINALS, LEAVING PECOS VALLEY SCHOOL ALMOST NO COMPETITION. NO NEW RECORDS MADE.

Roswell High School, with a total of 80 points, easily won the state interscholastic track meet, held Friday and Saturday at the University, and became the possessor of the Schmeltzer trophy cup for the period of one year. Clovis finished second with 16 points, Santa Fe third with 7 points, and Raton fourth with 5 points. Belen failed to score.

Albuquerque High School took part in the preliminaries, but withdrew from the finals because of dissatisfaction over the manner in which the decision as to the eligibility of Owen Smauling, their star athlete, had been made. During the week preceding the meet, the board of control of the New Mexico High School Athletic Association decided unanimously in favor of Smauling as being eligible to compete in the meet. Although Smauling was passed by the board, the Albuquerque High School authorities were dissatisfied because the board had not given them notice of the protest against Smauling before making their final decision, and for that reason withdrew from the meet.

Just why Albuquerque should take part in the preliminaries and then withdraw from the finals has not been made clear yet.

No state records were broken in the finals held Saturday. In several instances better records were made in the preliminaries than in the finals.

As a result of the preliminaries, Albuquerque had 10 men to place for the finals, Roswell 8, Clovis 3, Raton 2, Santa Fe 2, and Belen 1.

In the shot put, low hurdles, and 220-yard dash, better marks were set in the preliminaries than in the finals.

Roswell won ten firsts, six second places, and six third places, in addition to winning the relay. Clovis won no firsts, but got four seconds, and two thirds. Santa Fe won one second and two third places. Raton won one first place.

The summary of the finals:
100 yards—Hale, Roswell, won; Foreman, Clovis, second; Montgomery, Clovis, third. Time—:10 3-5.

ELECTION HELD IN RODEY HALL TUESDAY

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS, AND STAFF OF MIRAGE AND WEEKLY CHOSEN.

Donovan Richardson was elected president of the Student Body at the meeting held Tuesday at 10 a. m.; Frances Bear, vice-president, and George Gentry, secretary. There was no opposition to these candidates.

Rebecca Skipwith was elected editor of the 1920 Mirage, without opposition, and after a close race Frank Neher was declared elected manager, winning over Victor Miller by a vote of 45 to 41.

Allen Williams, present assistant editor of the Weekly, was elected editor for 1920, and John Scruggs, present manager, was re-elected. George Bryan ran against Williams for editor. The vote stood, Bryan, 21; Williams, 62.

When nominations were made for editor of the Weekly, a motion was introduced by Mr. Cristy that the editor and manager of the Weekly alone be elected, and that these officers be allowed to choose their assistants and staff, subject to ratification by the student body. A heated discussion followed, in which arguments for and against the plan were

ALBUQUERQUE WINS IN DECLAMATORY CONTEST WHILE ROSWELL REPRESENTATIVE TAKES ORATORICAL CONTEST.

At the state declamatory contest held Saturday morning in Rodey Hall, Miss Beatrice Hill, representing Albuquerque High School, won first place, Norma Rasmus, of Roswell, second, and Ernestine Grzelachowski, of Santa Rosa, won third place. A gold medal was given for first place.

Miss Hill's selection was "Jim Farnen," and was well delivered. The speakers had all won in preliminary high school contests and in district platform declaimers of the state. Other speakers were Miss Ten Eyck of Santa Fe, and Miss Carscallen of Las Vegas. The selection Miss Rasmus gave was "Connor," also an ably interpreted story. "The Soul of the Violin" was the declamation that won third place. "How the La Rue Stakes Were Lost" was told with feeling by Miss Ten Eyck, and "The Stepmother," by Miss Carscallen, was good, and held the audience.

In the oratorical contest held Saturday night in Rodey Hall, Roswell's representative, Paul Cullen, won the gold medal for first place with his oration, "The Martyr President."

Carl Tucker, of Raton, spoke on the "Organization of the World," and took second place. Third place was won by Raymond Eddy, of Albuquerque, whose oration was on "Wilson's Armistice Address." "Spartacus to the Gladiators" was the title of Fred Wagner's oration, which got fourth honor. Wagner represented Santa Fe.

WELL AND WATER.

Some mismanagement, or lack of management, will doubtless cause several hundred dollars, possibly more, to literally go up in the air. This will represent the grass, flowers, and gardens that were put in at so much expense last year. For such things cannot live without water, and water at the present time is a very scarce article on the hill.

As we understand the matter, the first motor put in the new deep well was not large enough. A larger motor was ordered, and received some time ago, through a special dispensation on account of the University's war garden. Very recently it was decided that this motor should be put on top of the ground instead of below, as the old one, and now a new oil balance shaft is in the process of being ordered. Until it arrives and is installed, the water supply will come from the city, which cannot furnish any ways near the amount needed. This means that the grass, if kept alive at all, will be fed with very expensive water and have to be given most careful attention. It means that the famous gardens will grow only a crop of tumbleweeds, having done its part to win the war already. It means that some more money will tumble into the well, never to return.

Spring and summer are as sure to follow winter as day is to follow night. It seems that in arranging for a water supply, those persons having authority over matters should have realized that summer is a mighty poor time to be without water if one expects to grow anything, and have gotten the well and pump fixed up in time to do business when needed. Doubtless the middle of summer will come and go, leaving the dinky little motor pumping from the city line and then not furnishing enough water to wet a good-sized acre, paying city rates for country water, and keeping a man or two busy handling a hose to keep the spark of life still burning.

We have heard much about the well, and it is undoubtedly a good one. But what people want is not water several hundreds of feet below them, at least not during the present life, but on good old terra firma. The well may be all right, but the means of getting its product never has been. Scarcely a day passes but what the hill is out of water. Sometimes it is off a day at a time, and one must live, drink, and shave in soda pop.

The only thing to do is to hope that we will have a pumping system in a year or two that will do the work. There is no use hoping for such a thing in the immediate future, but there's always hope for the distant future. We can dream of the day when it will be possible to revel in the swimming pool, gambol over the acres of beautiful campus, and saunter through the oasis of water-melons, and that will help some.

Deer Maw:

As I haven't got but 75c left in my pocket to last till schule is out, I take my pen in hand to rite you about how well your sun Reuben is getting along.

In my classes I am performing remarkably well. In fact, my profs say that if I go long enuff I'll learn something yet. I can tawk Mex like a native. By the way, maw, you ott to see our new Span. teachur. She is what you call "chie" in French. And the head of the Romantic Languages (I see now where it got the name) seems to get along with her pretty wel. As I was saying, my progress is considerable. My grades are not like Gentries or Sweeds yet, but I live in hopes.

But maw, the think that brakes my hart is my unsukesfulness with the ladies. I keep persevering, but it seams that I just can't get a date. They treat me respectabulful, but I don't have any luck, altho I am on the ninth lap already. Evry time I ask, An has a date, Marien has to study, and Ruth has promissed Pat. Honest, maw, I never saw the like of that kase. They seam verfectly devoted and are getting worse than the Skruggses.

Maw, I wish therey be a debate every too or three weeks, and I bet the barbers do to. It shure helps the looks of the cenary.

Well, maw, the Kyotes have a new pledge. He seams to be getting up quite a kase from all appeerances. Guess he does it like thay do in Boston. Good thing Jimmy isn't hear this kwarter.

Last weak, maw, some poor little high schule feloes up hear got vamped by our illoustrious vamp kweens. I think it is a shame myseif, to pick on them who don't want to fall in when I've been wateing all year for a chance. That's the ironing board of fate, as Miss Hicky says. But you no me maw, I'm no quitter and wil stik to the job till I win or bust. I think the new matren likes me. Maybe she wil help me out.

P. K. A. Fraternity to Student Body and High School Visitors.

On Saturday night, at Rodey hall, the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity entertained the visiting high schools and student body with a delightful dance. Lloyd Kellam was at the piano, and with traps and drums the music couldn't have been better. Several special numbers were given. Among them was a vocal solo by Estelle Harris, songs by Louie Hesselden and Joe McCanna, and a sailor's horn-pipe dance, in costume, given by Annette Jacobson, Flora Marshall and Elizabeth O'Hara. Everybody danced until "Home, Sweet Home," was sounded, and everybody had a lovely time. It was a pleasure for the students to have this chance to meet the different high school representatives.

SMILE.

Smile—The sky is blue enough without you adding to it.

Smile—What if the times are tough—you didn't do it.

Smile—Your face won't crack at all—go on and try it.

Smile—Your grin may be a stall, but just deny it.

Smile—It won't cost you a cent, so just go to it.

Smile—And then some other gent will also do it.

An impromptu dance, in Rodey hall, was greatly enjoyed by a few lucky ones Monday noon. Miss Bursum and Miss O'Hara kindly furnished the music.

Do you know the grinning couple?
Do you know the blue-eyed devil?
Do you know the loving Irish boy?

DR. BOYD TO DELIVER COMMENCEMENT ADDRESSES.

President David R. Boyd will deliver the high school commencement addresses in six of the principal towns of the state, during the next twenty days. Dr. Boyd will go to Magdalena on May 16, to Tucumcari on May 23, Portales, May 25; Deming, May 29, Raton, June 5 and Dawson, June 6. At Dawson he goes by special invitation to deliver an address on Americanism. There is a large foreign population at Dawson and the Americanization work of the Federal Bureau of Education is being vigorously carried on there by the local school authorities.

Dr. Boyd Monday accepted an invitation to deliver the commencement address at the El Paso School of Mines on May 31st.

DO YOU KNOW?

About the rumored engagement? That all romance and romantic happenings are not yet dead?

The clever Varsity girl who plays the piano, dances and draws well?

The girl who is as good to look at as she is sweet?

The girl who fell for all the red-haired men at the track meet?

The Roswell chap who proved that he was a REAL MAN, and how he did it?

Thé Varsity fellow whose devotion to his mother is beautiful?

About the kiss—that wasn't?

That there are cats—and cats—but that the cattiest person imaginable is a catty man?

That the University Victory bond team sold more bonds than any other team?

Who wore a brown suit Sunday afternoon?

That recently there have been several new applicants for membership in the P. K. O. club?

That some of the former members are either renewing or extending their membership?

LOCALS.

Thornton F. Bright, a former Varsity student and a graduate of Kansas Aggies, is visiting fraternity brothers at the dorm. Bright has just returned from France and is a Lieut. of engineers.

U. N. M. TEAM SCORES HIGH IN LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE.

With a total of $122,000 in subscriptions, the Victory Liberty Loan team of the University of New Mexico stands first in the 11th Reserve Officers Training Corps district, in which the University is included. There has been keen competition among the institutions in the district in securing Victory bond subscriptions, and while complete returns are not in, Capt. Purviance, in charge of the University R. O. T. C., said today that he was confident the local team would win.

The University team was captained by Mrs. W. H. Long and comprised a number of young ladies who are members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, who worked hard and faithfully from start to finish of the campaign. Their score was the highest on the team list, aside from that of the Rio Grande division of the Santa Fe railroad.

Especially notable was the work of Miss Estelle Harris and Miss Dorothy Ohmart, each of whom sold $40,000 worth of bonds. Other members of the team were, Frances Bear, Claire Bursum, Maurine Reagan, Joy Spruce, Margaret Lee, Anne Harris and Annette Jacobson.

To show the government's appreciation of the work of the team, Captain Purviance presented the members with a German blanket and German war maps as souvenirs. It is the plan of the R. O. T. C. to give a dance in their honor.

GRAYS WIN AGAINST VARSITY; A. I. S. LOSES

FRIDAY'S DOUBLE HEADER BASE-BALL GAME RESULTS IN EVEN BREAK FOR U. N. M.

On Friday afternoon, after the preliminary events of the track meet, the University played two games of fifty-fifty baseball, losing to the Albuquerque Grays with a score of 5-3, on account of running too much risk, and defeating the Albuquerque Indian School by a score of 6-4 on the University athletic field.

The University-Grays game started at 3:30, with the Grays at bat. The University nine scored the first point of the game when they came to the plate for the first time. Immediately following this score, the Grays made a point in their second batting, thus the score was tied, 1-1; but the tie was soon untied when the Varsity men again appeared at the bat and made two runs, changing the score to 3-1 in their favor. Returning to bat again, the Grays tied the score at 3-3. This was the first half of the third inning, and neither team was able to break the tie until in the first half of the fifth inning, when the Grays ran in two scores, making 5-3 against the Varsity nine. During the rest of the game the Varsity was never quite able to change the score.

The University-Albuquerque Indian School game began immediately after the U. N. M. vs. Grays. During the first inning the University scored three points to the Indians' one. This score stood only for one inning, when the Varsity and Indians made another score of one point each, and thus changed the score to 4-2 in favor of the Varsity. From this place in the game, the first half of the third inning, on until the first half of the sixth inning, the score 4-2 was never changed. But during the last inning of the game both teams raised their standing by two points, giving a final score of 6-4.
