SUMMER CONFERENCE AT ESTES PARK, COLO.

Florence M. Seder, University Delegate, Reports Inspiring Gathering of College Girls.

(By Florence M. Seder)

When three hundred college girls come together for ten days of fun, study and sight-seeing, a good time would seem inevitable. Place these girls, many of them, in a green hollow among massive mountains, in the very heart of the Rockies; fill them with the high enthusiasm and the depth of purpose which comes from such an organization as the Young Women's Christian Association, and you have a recipe for a good time that will last the whole year through.

The first impression of what the conference was to be like came on the train from Denver to Loveland. The cars were full of girls; high school girls, college girls, graduates, tall girls, short girls, talkative girls, quiet girls—all sizes, kinds and descriptions were there. Presently a delegation from Missouri paced thru the cars in lock-step, singing "And now we've met together, good friends we'll ever be; we'll cheer, cheer, cheer Estes Park."

We were to hear that chorus often before we left for home again. Simple as it was, it typified well the jolly spirit of camaraderie which everyone felt. Varied as were the types of the different people, it did not take long to become acquainted. We all seemed familiar thru the bond of one organization.

Every hour of every day was carefully arranged according to a systematic schedule. In the morning were held the Bible and Mission study classes, the hour of technical council, and the platform meeting; and each hour brought with it some message of information and inspiration. The study of Rural Problems, for instance, awoke many an indifferent city girl to a sense of her social responsibility to the community in which she lives.

The afternoons were given over to various forms of recreation. The biggest day in this respect was "stunt day". Here was a brave Indian maid from Haskell Institute, who, in blanket and beaded head-band, danced into the arena, gave her school yell, and danced out again, Indian fashion. There was an elaborate pageant of Kansas history from aboriginal Indians to suffragettes, presented by a group of Kansas schools. Oklahoma yelled lustily for New Mexico, as was appropriate, and New Mexico added her voice to the "rah-rah! Oklahoma, homa!"

College spirit was very much in evidence throughout the whole conference. Missouri's "Choo-shoo, rah rah! for old Missouri!" was a favorite with everyone. At intervals Kansas boomed out the familiar "Rock Kansas, jay hawk, K. U." and the other schools succeeded in making themselves heard, whether by song, yell or piquant resort to the boasting of some rival. An undercurrent of fun ran thru the ten days, and bubbled out on the slightest occasion.

The key-note of the conference, as also of the two Christian Associations, is service to others. This was made

UNIVERSITY'S TWENTY-SECOND YEAR OPENS MOST FAVORABLY THIS WEEK

LARGEST OUT-OF-TOWN ENROLLMENT IN THE HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTION FOR THE FIRST DAY. DORMITORIES BOTH FILLED, AND NEW ONES STILL COMING FROM IN AND OUT OF NEW MEX.

EIGHTEEN STATES ARE REPRESENTED THIS YEAR

Everybody Enthusiastic Over the Prospects of the Best Year Ever Had Since the University Was Started. Good Work of President During Summer Shown by Outside List

The university's twenty-second opening Monday, September 8th, was the most successful in the history of the institution as a university, both a point of numbers enrolled, and in different cities of New Mexico and states represented.

For the first time both dormitories are filled, and still more are coming and asking for rooms. The university is prepared to take care of all such however, and is seeing that they are comfortably and satisfactory located.

Eighteen different states in the Union, besides New Mexico are shown on the enrollment cards this year. Among these are such distant places as Louisiana, Pennsylvania, Mississippi, Kentucky and Ohio. All the states adjoining New Mexico, or close to her, have their representatives on the student body of the university this year.

President Does Good Work

Cities and towns in New Mexico which have never before sent students to the university are also included on the enrollment list; such places as Aztec, Dawson, Portales, Tucuman and Farmington, which had only one or two students in the university the last few years, are now represented by two or three times that number.

Great credit for this large outside enrollment must be given to President David R. Boyd, who personally visited these places during the summer seeing prospective students, addressing county institutes, and other organizations and bringing, in a most forcible manner, the merits of the University of New Mexico to the attention of the people in these places, over half of whom, previous to his visits, were unaware of the existence of a state university in New Mexico, and had, consequently, failed to consider its advantages in sending their children to institutions of higher learning.

Splendid New Faculty

All the new members of the faculty, with the exception of Professor Laube, who will be absent for a few days, due to illness, are now present, and are meeting with the hearty approval of students, townspeople and others interested in the university.

The new men are all persons who have already made successes of their respective lines in other large institutions, and the University of New Mexico has been peculiarly fortunate in securing them for herself.

Old Students Return

Practically every one of the students of last year has returned, and most of them have brought one or more new ones with him. This "missionary" work by the old students is one which the president and authorities of the university are very desirous of seeing among the students, as it is one of the greatest factors in increasing the enrollment and stimulating an interest in the institution.

Y. W. C. A. Busy

The Y. W. C. A. girls, under the direction of their president, have been especially useful this summer among the prospective women students of the university. Personal letters were sent to everyone of the girls expecting to attend the institution, urging them to call at all times upon the services of the Y. W. C. A. and make use of that organization in getting located, and acquainted at the university during their stay.

Y. M. C. A. Also On Deck

The Y. M. C. A., under the direction of Albert S. Hunt, has been hard at work, trying to provide positions for such students desiring to enter the university, who find it necessary to earn, wholly or partly, their expenses while attending the institution. Mr. Hunt, especially, has succeeded in finding places for all such persons so far, and deserves great credit for the work he has done.

All Are Enthusiastic

Everyone connected with the university is enthusiastic over the prospects for another splendid year, under the direction of President Boyd and each and everyone, student and faculty member, is determined to put forth his best efforts to keep up the enthusiasm so justly felt over the year begun under such auspicious circumstances.

Professor Leon B. Stephan, former professor of German at the University of New Mexico, has been elected to the head of the department of German at the Louisville High School, one of the largest secondary schools in the country.

Three grads. of St. Vincent's Academy, Barbara Harris, Marie Higginse, and Rosalie Espinosa, have just enrolled at the university this year. Miss Harris is taking Normal and the other two straight college work.

Anyone wanting a snap job can apply to Freddie Calkins and assist him in getting ads for the Weekly. Freddy says it is the softest graft he ever ran up against, but being of an unselfish nature, is willing to share with someone. Now, don't all come with a rush.

"THE UNIVERSITY NEWS" STARTS DURING SUMMER

Publication for the Purpose of Promoting Publicity for the Varsity Started in Vacation

"The University News," a publication devoted exclusively to the interests of the University of New Mexico, has been formally started, and will continue to be published throughout the school year, as well as during the summer months.

Editorial Staff.

The editorial staff consists, so far, of Professor C. E. Hodgins as editor-in-chief, with Professor L. B. Mitchell and W. J. Higgins as assistants.

Three numbers of The News have appeared so far, one each for June, July and August. Considerable favorable comment has been received on the publication by the editor. All who have written about it agree that it is a good move, and the best manner possible of promoting publicity for the University, for which purpose The News was inaugurated.

Subscription Free.

The News is mailed gratis to all friends of, or persons interested in the University. Anyone desiring to be placed on the mailing list of the publication will please send his name and address to The University News, Albuquerque, New Mexico, and he will forthwith be placed on the regular mailing list, and receive the paper from then on.

Times Published.

The News will be published about every six weeks during the school year, and once a month during the summer months. It is to be issued ten times a year, according to the present intentions of the management.

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR STRONG FOOTBALL TEAM

Most of Old Men Back, and Several Promising New Ones With Records, Show Up

So far, the prospects for a first-class football team at the university the coming year, are very good. Practically all the strong men from last year have returned to the Varsity, and several new ones, who have made good in other institutions, have enrolled and are out for practice.

The first real work will take place Thursday, by which time all the registration will have been completed, and the different persons assigned to their classes, and everything has started "going" on the Hill.

The team will be considerably heavier this year than last, and so far, everybody feels that we have a splendid chance this time of annexing the Southwestern championship in football.

Fred Calkins, the old football star, is captain, and under his and Coach Hutchinson's "espionage" the university ought to be able to make things interesting for their rivals on the gridiron.

Florence Seder has returned from attending the Y. W. C. A. conference at Estes Park. She has kindly written an article, describing her experiences and impressions, for the Weekly, which is printed elsewhere.

AIM OF THE WEEKLY.

It is the hope and intention of the management of The U. N. M. Weekly to make that paper as much as possible justify its title "The Official Publication of the Student Body of the University of New Mexico." For that purpose it is planned to have on the staff of The Weekly one or more representatives from each organization and department in the University.

All persons who have contributions to make will please hand them to the editor, and everyone is urged to do all in his power to make the paper a true representative of and worker for the best interests of the University of New Mexico.

Try to do your part, one and all, to help The Weekly, and if you have any "kicks" to make, write or tell them in person to the editor.

The editor alone will be responsible for all matter printed in the paper, and if you think he has failed to do his part, kindly let him know.

A TRUE PROPHECY

The statement, made last year, by the then editor of The Weekly, that at last the University had found "a real captain to guide the Varsity ship safe from shallow waters to the deep seas of prosperity and growth," or words, in effect the same, has, to a striking degree, been rendered true by the large increase in new students at the institution the present year.

On Dr. Boyd's taking charge the university was unknown to practically three-fourths of the state of New Mexico, and students, by the hundreds were leaving this state to attend institutions elsewhere. Now all this is changing. The citizens of New Mexico are beginning to realize that they have in their midst a university worthy the name, with a man at the helm eminently qualified by experience and education to conduct the institution, and the tide is beginning to turn in the right direction.

One needs only to look at the number of new faces on the campus to realize the truth of the above statement. Cities and towns, hitherto strangers to the university, are represented among the student body and the large number of states outside of New Mexico, about twenty in all, is another remarkable example of the splendid publicity the university has received the past year.

Let us all, then, get together and work in harmony with the president to make the university what it really deserves to be, New Mexico's greatest educational center, and before we realize it, we shall have an institution that will rank with any other in the country, and one to be pointed to with pride as "our Alma Mater."

UNIVERSITY REPRESENTATIVES AT PHI MU CONVENTION

Evelyn Everitt and Mary Cooper attend the Meeting Held at Niagara Falls This Summer

Miss Evelyn Everitt and Miss Mary Cooper, members of the local chapter of the Phi Mu Sorority, were delegates from New Mexico at the biennial convention of that organization, held in the International Hotel, at Niagara Falls, New York, from August 5th to 8th.

Both report a very interesting and instructive experience. Delegates from the seventeen different chapters of the sorority were present, and the four days were spent in talks, lectures, etc., devoted to the interests of the sorority and the institutions in which they were located.

U. N. M. Makes a Hit

Among the different institutions, New Mexico was spoken of, the lecture being illustrated with lantern slides of the buildings, campus, and other points of interest around the university. The scenes depicted made a general favorable impression on all who witnessed them, all the visiting delegates being struck with the uniqueness of the architecture, and the advantages of attending a university located among such splendid surroundings.

Visit Miss Ferguson

After the convention, Misses Everitt and Cooper spent two delightful weeks visiting Miss Erna Ferguson, daughter of New Mexico's representative in congress, at Washington. Miss Ferguson, is grand secretary of the Phi Mu Sorority, and showed her two sisters a royal time. Among the points of interest visited were Baltimore, Albany, Philadelphia and Annapolis. At Annapolis they saw Jay Allen, a former student of the university, who is now cadet in the Academy. He appears to be enjoying life there immensely, and was apparently no worse for his stay in the academy.

DONALD F. ALLOTT MEETS HIS DEATH.

Word was received this summer, at the University, of the sudden and unexpected death of Donald F. Allott, a former student of the University.

Mr. Allott, while in swimming in the bathing beach at his home in Alliance, Ohio, shattered his spinal column in diving too close to shore. He survived twenty-four hours after the accident, and passed away calmly and peacefully at his home, surrounded by members of the family and immediate friends.

Mr. Allott, while in the University, always took a prominent part in student activities, being a member of the football team, and men's glee club. His absence will be missed from both this year, where he was always first and foremost, cheering the others with his hard work and willingness to do his part.

His death is a sad blow to the many friends he had, both at the University and in Albuquerque, to whom he had given promise of becoming a splendid man and citizen.

HELP THE STAFF.

Again The Weekly reiterates the statement contained in the above: Try to do all in your power to help make the paper as newsy, interesting and representative of the University at possible.

If you have any contributions to make, and don't see the editor or staff, just place your "contributions" in an envelope, address The U. N. M. Weekly, drop it in the Library post-office, from which place it will be obtained and receive full and careful consideration. "Amen."

FIRST ASSEMBLY HELD IN RODEY HALL TUESDAY

Encouraging Attendance of Students and Faculty. Several Important Announcements Made

FORMAL OPENING MONDAY

The first assembly of the year was held in Rodey Hall Tuesday morning, the second day of the semester. President Boyd presided, and after several songs, made some important announcements.

The assembly this year will be held on Tuesdays and Thursdays, instead of every day, as last year. The other three days of the week, Monday, Wednesday and Friday, will be given to the department of music, under the direction of Miss Mary McFie.

Classes will be held in the forenoon on Saturdays hereafter. Just what these classes will be has not yet been decided, but it has become necessary for the university to inaugurate this movement to accommodate the additional number of courses added to the curriculum this year.

On Monday, Sept. 15, the formal opening exercises of the university will be held in Rodey Hall. The general public is cordially invited and urged to attend these exercises, which will take place at 10:00 a. m.

Bishop to Speak

Dr. Poyd also announced that some day this week, Bishop McDonnell, of the Methodist Episcopal church, who is attending the conference in Albuquerque, would address the student body and faculty. The exact time has not been definitely set, but all students and faculty members of the university are urged to be present, and hear the eminent speaker. Bishop McDonnell was formerly president of De Pauw University, where he achieved great success, but from which position, to the great regret of all connected with the institution, he resigned to take up his clerical duties.

Many New Ones Present

One striking feature about the attendance at the first assembly was the great number of new persons on hand. Over half those present were strangers to the "old guard" at the Varsity, and when it is considered that practically all the old ones have returned, it is remarkable how many additional ones have come to the U. N. M. this year.

UNIVERSITY WILL RUN BUS FOR TOWN STUDENTS

Hereafter, in response to requests from down town students and members of the faculty, the University will have a bus to take them up the hill. The bus will leave Matson's every morning at 8:30, and all who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity will have to be at Matson's a few minutes before that time.

The charge will be 5c a trip. All who wish to take advantage of this service will kindly give their name to President Boyd, and also state at what hour they wish to be at the University, so that arrangements may be made, if necessary, for two trips in the morning.

SOCIETY

William H. Gee, Former University Student a Benedict

A pleasant and interesting bit of news, the marriage of William Henry Gee, a former student of the University of New Mexico, to Miss Gladys Montgomery, was received by Mr. A. S. Hunt, this summer.

The marriage of Mr. Gee and Miss Montgomery was the culmination of a romance began at the University several years ago, when Miss Montgomery was visiting her sister, Mrs. J. A. Pynch, wife of the former professor of geology at the university. The acquaintance of Mr. Gee and Miss Montgomery soon assumed larger proportions, and the "wise ones" at the Varsity were not surprised when Mr. Pynch resigned his professorship and returned to the former home of his wife in Madison, Wisconsin, that Mr. Gee followed them.

After a pleasant honeymoon spent in Wisconsin and North Dakota, Mr. and Mrs. Gee have settled down at the old home of Mr. Gee, Fargo, North Dakota.

The many friends whom the two made during their stay in Albuquerque wish them every success in their matrimonial venture, begun under such pleasant circumstances.

New Student's Reception

The annual New Student's Reception, held, according to custom the first Friday after the opening of the school term will take place on the evening of Friday, September 12, in Rodey Hall.

A musical program, refreshments, and other forms of entertainment, have been arranged for the affair, and all new students are invited to attend, and become acquainted on this evening.

David R. Lane and Edith Walker Wed

David R. Lane, another former student of the university, and for several years past prominently identified with newspaper and moving picture work in New Mexico, was married this summer, to Miss Edith Walker, daughter of A. E. Walker, county clerk of Bernalillo county.

After a honeymoon spent at the Grand Canyon and Southern California the Lanes returned to Albuquerque and have made their home at 220 South High street.

Mr. Lane while a student of the university, was actively connected with all student enterprises, being a member of several dramatic events and editor of the U. N. M. Weekly.

Both are well known in Albuquerque where they have the best wishes of all their friends for a happy, successful life.

Engagement of Bertram Hunter and Margaret Cartwright Announced
The engagement of Bertram (Bert) Hunter and Miss Margaret Cartwright has been publicly announced. The wedding will take place November 1 at the home of Miss Cartwright, following which, after an extended honeymoon, the Hunters will make their residence at Mr. Hunter's home, Bakerfield, California.

Both are well known in Albuquerque, Mr. Hunter having been for the past two years, a student of the University and Miss Cartwright being the daughter of Dr. Cartwright, a well known physician of Albuquerque.

SUMMER CONFERENCE.

evident in every phase of the conference. Serious as the principle is, it came to everyone not as a lugubrious duty, but as a joyous responsibility to make other lives more significant and at the same time develop our own lives. Whether we go to foreign countries, to the crowded cities or the rural communities of our land, or whether we remain at school in the circle of our associates, the opportunity for service is there, and the call is there.

In attempting to analyze the spirit of this conference, the writer would attribute it in equal parts to four elements: The message of the sermons, lectures, and study classes, the inspiring influence of the strong personality of the leaders; the contact with interesting girls from other schools; and the grandeur of the mountain scenery.

Just what this trip into the mountains meant to the girls from the plains, some of whom had never seen a mountain before, would be hard even for them to define. It was something above the ordinary experiences of life. And yet we who came from the mountain country were inspired and thrilled, too, by the lofty atmosphere and sublime beauty of the mountains that rise about Estes Park.

The girls who left in the early morning will not soon forget that sunrise ride thru the canyon of the Big Thompson. Great craggy battlements of rock, over which the sun was struggling to shine, rose against the morning sky. Down in the shade sparkled the dim masses of purple and yellow blossoms against the green background. As the sun rose higher it shone on the clear waters of the Big Thompson, flowing thru a quiet hollow or dashing down the rocks.

The ride came to an end, and we had taken our last look at Estes Park. As the train sped along, we waved a good-bye to Long's Peak. But we knew that conference had not really ended, after all. "For now we've met together, good friends we'll ever be. We'll cheer, cheer, cheer Estes Park."

Helen James has returned from Las Cruces, bringing with her Fern Reeves, a new student for the Varsity. This is the kind of work that counts.

Earl Olds is again back at his post with his usual pleasant smile and verdant poetical ejaculations. Earl has made quite a record as a poet and we hope he will continue his good work.
