HENNING ADDRESSES ON COLLEGE SPIRIT

Editor of Evening Herald Explains Our Relation to Our University.

Last Tuesday, after a piano solo by Prof. Seder, Mr. Henning, editor of the Evening Herald, spoke to the students about college spirit. His talk was very interesting and good, for it seemed to embrace the full meaning of its subject, emphasizing spirit in both studies and outside activities. Unconsciously such a spirit has developed in the University, but such thoughts as Mr. Henning gave will add to the conscious growth.

College Spirit Never Adequately Defined.

College spirit like most things spiritual has a certain intangibility even those who have made its encouragement a life work have never stated definitely what it is. No adequate definition has ever been found for it, since it broadens and deepens as one seeks to limit it. It is like faith, and hope and love, things worth having but not measured with a foot-rule.

College Yells and Colors Manifestations of Spirit Underneath.

College yells, et cetera, are products which are impossible without the real thing back of them. When you find a college, large or small, in which organized, persistent, student noise is abundant, you can bet the genuine article in spirit is there. After those who complete college courses and become connected up with education by observation and contact it is observed that the graduates who made good most quickly, who go the furthest in life and who get the most out of life, are those who were most active in all forms of student activity in their college days. The most useful men and women generally are those who gave most volume to the college yell.

College Education Neither a Purchase or Gift; It Is a Trade.

A college cannot give its best except in exchange for the student's best. Before a college can give its best, the student must realize, that he is a part of it; that in one sense its relation is parental; in another sense the relation is a partnership; yet in another, a brotherhood; and if the student would have its best, he must fulfill to the letter all the obligations in these varied capacities of relationship. College spirit, if it can be defined, is nothing more nor less than the spirit of giving.

Conclusion: A Sketch of Our University.

Every student in Rody Hall thrilled as Mr. Henning talked of the growth and progress of the Varsity, of its millions in resources, and of its certain future. The spirit of true college men and women burned in his very audience, and all who heard, could not help but see the day

BIG CROWD SEES FOOTBALL EVENT AT STATE FAIR

Team Being Composed Almost Altogether of New Men Explains Defeat to Cherry and Silver.

Varsity, with her hand and rooters, met the Institute, with like cohorts, at football opening day at the Fair Grounds and went down to a 6-3 defeat.

It was a great game but the last part was the greater part. If the Cherry and Silver team had gotten together in the first quarter as they did in the last the victory would have been ours. But the cadets won according to the rules of football and we give them their due.

Game Lost to Roswell in First Quarter.

Varsity won the toss and the kick-off was received from the west, the wind against the opponents. Varsity made fast advances until within a few yards of the goal when Institute got busy and checked the onrush. The ball was lost to the cadets on downs and Mann, halfback, carried the pigskin around the Cherry and Silver end for a run that took the team off their feet. Several long end runs were taken through Varsity and when the team finally got together it was too late and Institute took the ball over the border with a series of line plunges for a touchdown.

Second Quarter One of Much Milling About.

The second quarter found the Cadets and Varsity men milling about trying to get on their feet and do something. Institute men broke through the hill-men's line and seemingly had nothing between them and a second touchdown a number of times, but inevitably were tackled from behind. Aydelotte made one such tackle and Crebbs another. Despite Institute's failure to show enough speed to score after she had broken through the Cherry and Silver line, she played the better game in the first half.

Varsity Shows Form in Second Half.

During the second rest period cadets and hill-men broke away from the grandstand and did the snake dance about the field. Headed by the band the Varsity boys marched around their team to the strains of "Hot Time" and there was a hot time in the period of play that followed for Cherry and Silver outclassed the cadets all through the second half. Thackeray replaced Balcomb in this canto and dropped the pigskin between the goal posts for a kick that made Varsity's three points.

Great Improvement in Execution of Forward Pass Shown by Varsity.

In the recent Menaul game Varsity

when, as he said, "we would find it singularly fine and satisfying to be able to say ten or twenty years from now that we were here and helped just at this period when the real growth of the University began."

did poor work with the forward pass but in the Institute event she showed the effect of practice and far excelled the cadets in the execution of this ground-gaining play. Most of the Varsity's gains were made around the end or through forward passes. Institute advances came in line plunges and end runs.

Lepraik played a wonderfully steady game. "Jack's" work was not spectacular but when he tackled he pinned his man. When he caught the ball there was no fumble. The rest of the men for the most part distinguished themselves in some stage of the game. Aside from the plays already mentioned, A. Feather and Nohl broke through and stopped behind the line a place kick that Institute was about to make.

Mann and Talbot, halves for the Institute, starred for their team.

Seven New Men and Four of the Old Squad on Team of This Season.

A great many of the men on the present Varsity lineup only came to really know football this year. Of course, all had some high school or other experience before they came out for Varsity football this fall but comparatively speaking they were all new at the real game. Of the old squad there were four on the Varsity-Institute lineup, and McGary was called in the last half. It is of the general opinion that with another practice game or two Varsity would have beaten the N. M. M. I.

Protest Against A. Higgins as a Professional Made by U. N. M.

The Varsity athletic council made a protest to Institute in an effort to rule out A. Higgins, who they offered to prove was a professional. Institute objected to his withdrawal and he was allowed to play.

It is interesting to note that both the University and the Institute were penalized thirty yards during the game. Complaints of much slugging coming from both sides prove that the game was no sparring contest. The penalties were for offside plays. Another interesting feature is that there are two brothers on each lineup, A. and W. Higgins, Institute; A. and C. Feather, University.

VARSITY DEFEATS M. S. AT FOOTBALL

Shut Visitors Out in True Goose Egg Fashion; First Practice Game.

Varsity held Menaul scoreless and ran up a total of 35 points for the Cherry and Silver in the first practice game of the season at Hokona Garden, Wednesday last.

In the first eight minutes of play the Varsity men forced Menaul down the field and "Red" Balcomb carried the pigskin over the border for a touchdown.

This same quarter witnessed the feature play of the game. Varsity tried a forward pass and a Menaul man catching the ball succeeded in circling the Cherry and Silver team and sped down the field for what looked like a certain touchdown. Then Adelott pulled the big surprise. Sprinting down the garden at a 11-second clip, he downed his man 20 yards from Menaul's goal. The visitors failed to make the remaining distance.

In the beginning of the second quarter the Menaul man who received Varsity's kick-off was tackled in his tracks.

Crebbs starred individually in tackling and breaking up the visitor's plays. "Young" Feather, Adelott, and McGary made several spectacular gains in their positions as backs. Quarter-back Lepraik played his usual steady game. Coach Hutchins ran in, at some part of the game, almost all the Varsity men who have been out for football.

Menaul worked the forward pass with quite a degree of accuracy while out men showed a lack of sufficient practice in that line of the offensive. In all other plays we easily surpassed them.

"REAL" BAND AT LAST

Matching their appearance with the excellent quality of their music, the band held a full dress rehearsal clothed in their new uniforms last Saturday afternoon on the football field, and at 8 o'clock Saturday evening they paraded Central avenue, playing at the corner of Central and Second street, and at Fourth street and Central avenue.

The new uniforms are dark blue in color, trimmed with cherry and silver. The Varsity is on the musical calendar at last, and on there for good and all. With a twenty-piece uniformed band directed by the most pre-eminent musical authority and musician in the state we may soon expect to take first rank among the several other schools in the state in this particular line of activity. Our band is scheduled to take a prominent part along with the visiting bands in the various parades this week, and can be counted on to hold its own with any and all others.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1915.

DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that the University of New Mexico, representing as it does the learned element of the state, has not one single literary society formed for the purpose of furnishing literary entertainment, promoting dramatic enterprises, or boosting oratory and debating? Can you realize that there is an absolute necessity for a society of this nature? Are you aware that oratory and debating must be run on a self supporting basis at this institution, and that at present there is no possible way to obtain the much needed funds for the support of these functions? If you realize the importance of these activities, you can readily see the distinct value of a literary society. We give the athletic activities of college our enthusiastic support. Why not give the intellectual activities a like enthusiastic support? Surely one is as important as the other. There is a movement on foot to get a debate with the University of Arizona this year and to continue to make such a debate an annual affair. This should mean a great deal to us. Not only because we would like to meet that institution and show them who's who; but because it would mean that we had at last entered the field of inter-state debating. It would mean that we were at last matching our wits and intelligence against a foe worthy of our steel. It would mean that we had taken a long stride up in the college rank. But we can do nothing. Our hands are tied. We have no funds with which to arrange and organize a debate with Arizona. Had we an excellent, large and well organized literary society this problem would be solved; and therefore the need of one. Why not organize now? Stare something that will whiz. The editor of this paper is willing to do all he can that will help to bring to pass such a club, literary society or association—call it what you will.

WEEKLY THOUGHTS.

It's an art to say the right thing at the right place—but far more difficult to still leave unsaid the wrong thing at the tempting moment.

"Go on, sonny, git all the learnin' you can. But you want to be careful about one thing—you doesn't want to git more knowledge than you has intelligence to manage."

Practical Math.

A negative quantity is a person who makes the world poorer when added to it and richer when subtracted from it. One's happiness is directly proportionate to the square of the effort expended to make others happy.

Some people ought to enclose their thoughts in parenthesis to hold them together long enough to arrive at a definite conclusion.

A dihedral angle has two faces. In this respect some people resemble it, but otherwise a dihedral angle is superior.

You will be greater than, equal to, or less than the average man according to the way in which you dispose of the opportunities that constantly present themselves to you.

When the time comes for you to solve the problems that arise in your struggle for existence, don't expect to find the answers all nicely arranged in the back of any book.

Don't be an unknown quantity. Let the solution of your personal equation be so simple that anyone can see that you have a definite value in the college.

Let your patience be like the invaluable quantity that may approach its limit but never quite reach it. We should make an analysis of ourselves once in a while to see if perchance there are not other things besides X and Y that might well be eliminated.

The larger a circle the greater its radius. Take heed lest in your endeavor to enlarge your circle of friends you cause them to become distant.

A variable quantity sometimes approaches a constant as a limit. You should be constant, for a variable man is himself "the limit."

Y. W. C. A. TEA.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. gave a tea Wednesday afternoon at the Hokona parlor in honor of Miss Winn, secretary of the Albuquerque Chapter of Y. W. C. A., who is to have charge of a Bible study course for the Varsity girls. Tea and cake were served.

FOOTBALL RULES CHANGE.

Penalties for Unsportsmanlike Play and Other Infractions Increased.

Here are the changes in the football rules which are effective this season:

Interferers will not be permitted to knock down the secondary defense after the whistle blows, nor will the defense be permitted to run into a man after the whistle blows.

The presence of a field judge has been made obligatory, and the judge, so as to make it possible for the linesmen to be more observant of all the matters coming within his province, like the above, and "beating" the starting signal.

No longer will throwing the ball out of bounds be substituted by teams for a kick, for a forward pass going out of bounds on the fly, whether it touches a man or not, is now ruled as an incomplete forward pass.

Stop Evil of Subs.

The flocking of substitutes in the last period has been stopped and no substitution will be allowed except at the beginning of a period.

The protection of the fullback has been somewhat altered. The rule has been divided into two parts—running into the fullback, and "roughing" the fullback. Running into the fullback is penalized fifteen yards, but "roughing" the fullback is penalized fifteen yards and disqualification as well.

More Penalties.

The penalty of unsportsmanlike conduct has been 5 to 15 yards, but the power has been placed in the hands of the official to disqualify for flagrant conduct.

In snapping the ball back the center may not hold it after he has made the motion; he must actually let the ball go. This prevents a play that has been practiced, consisting of the center holding the ball after he had apparently snapped it and someone coming round from behind him and taking the ball from his hands.

The peculiar method of blocking and interfering, which has been increasing, wherein men throw their legs up in the air, has been ruled out; for throwing the legs and striking with the lower leg above the knee will be penalized 15 yards. The rules already provide that striking a man in the same way below the knee is "tripping."

Another provision has been made that unless the captain requests a lesser distance the referee will always bring the ball out from the sideline 15 yards.

If a second eligible man touches a forward pass after it has been first touched by an eligible player, it is simply an incomplete forward pass with loss of a down.—Exchange.

Laura Colgan gave a card party to a number of her friends on Saturday, Oct. 2. The prize was won by Miss Evelyn Trotter. A delicious luncheon was served.

The hangings and furnishings are in red and white, the sorority colors. The room is being made as comfortable as possible.

After delicious refreshments were served the girls attended the football game.

UPPER CLASSMEN TO WEAR CAPS.

The contagious cap fever has spread to the upper classmen, as they have come to the conclusion that, what was an excellent method to distinguish the frosh would not be a bad idea to adopt themselves.

At a meeting of the upper classmen last Wednesday noon, the cap question was fully discussed, and it was decided that bull-dog style caps, cherry and silver in color, should be adopted. A committee of three was appointed to take care of the matter.

PEP!

We know that there's a reason,
For this bright and happy season,
And we're wise that things don't come to him who waits,
We are all a-gettin' hep
That it takes a lot of pep,
To bat a decent average with the Fates.

We are getting down to action,
And we're making a refraction,
And we've bit off nothing more than we can chew,
We are going to get a rep,
For an awful lot of pep,
And we'll take a-holt of things and pull 'em through.

We are through with common piffle,
And we're going to make the riffle,
For we've got to put the U down
on the map,
We know we've got the pep,
To make the proper step,
We have got to work, and leave off sucking sap.
