MUSICAL COMEDY TO BE SELECTED SOON

Dramatic Club to Undertake Pre-tentious Affair for Thanksgiving Night, to Help Aggies Forget Sting of Defeat on Gridiron That After-noon.

The Dramatic Club has been organized and as it has been stated before, there is no charge for membership to this club. Each member of the University automatically becomes a member of the Dramatic Club, and as such should take an active interest in everything that pertains to such functions.

A musical comedy will be staged on Thanksgiving night immediately after the big football game with the Aggies. As yet the name of the comedy has not been definitely decided upon, but Professor Stanley E. Seder has been looking into the matter for some time and if he is not able to select a vehicle that is desirable he will write one.

Now is the time for everyone to start thinking, and arranging his work so as to be able to partake in this activity. Usually the annual play has been given during Commencement Week, but it has been shown clearly that each and every student has too much on his mind just at that particular time to devote the attention which should be devoted to such an enterprise.

A chorus could be easily selected from the student body which should make people sit up and take notice, and consequently assure the success of the comedy. We have sufficient talent in the University to put on any kind of a show that would be chosen, and every student should keep his eyes on the Bulletin Board looking for announcements concerning any meetings of the Dramatic Club.

The hearty co-operation and support of the student body is needed in all such affairs as this, and there is no reason why we should not stage the best performance ever put on by amateurs in this part of the country.

CAMERON PRESENTS USEFUL PORTFOLIO

Mr. W. A. Cameron, traveling freight and passenger agent of the A., T. & S. F. railroad, with headquarters in Albuquerque, has donated to the University a copy of the National Parks Portfolio, for the benefit of the students. This copy is very useful to the institution. We wish to take this opportunity of thanking both Mr. Cameron and the A., T. & S. F. railroad for their gift, in behalf of the University and the student body.

It is very gratifying to see that the people of the state are supporting the Varsity as they have been in the past, and when such a feeling exists everything is in favor of the advancement and progress of the institution.

Varsity Eleven to Play Colorado School of Mines Here October 14

Indications Are That Varsity Will Have Most Important Football Schedule in Its Career; Home Games Are Feature of the Arrangement; Several Other Big Contests Scheduled so as to Allow Men Ample Room to Distinguish Themselves and Put U. N. M. on the Map in a Way That Will Help Some.

In order that the football men may not lose heart on account of lack of games and that the students of U. N. M. and people of Albuquerque may see plenty of football right here in our home town, a splendid home schedule is being arranged for this season. All indications are that the Varsity will be well prepared to take care of itself this fall and furthermore that it will be able to meet some newcomers in its football world.

To meet these growing demands for "big game," the management is scheduling games with the Colorado School of Mines, El Paso School of Mines, Socorro School of Mines, Silver City Normal, Las Cruces and possibly Arizona, and the New Mexico Military Institute. That ought to keep us busy. Yes, we believe it will; in fact, to get away with it we will need to get out in the bleachers every afternoon and encourage our warriors to put forth better than their best. Thus encouraged the football men will need to go through more than the usual grueling. The management must, with the co-operation of the students, see to it that every red-blooded person in Albuquerque is supplied with tickets to all of the games. O, yes, we must do a great deal: the team cannot do it all.

The game with the Colorado School of Mines will be played in Albuquerque on Saturday, October 14th, just three weeks from next Saturday. This team needs no introduction to the football world, but we are expecting it to introduce us into big "football-dom." When the Colorado School of Mines meets U. N. M. on October 14th the contest will be waged between seasoned veterans and the SPIRIT of men who will fight to the last minute for U. N. M. Hutch will not be a negligible factor in the contest. For us to predict the outcome of this game would seem the height of presumption on our part, but from the fighting attitude that most of our men have assumed since the announcement of the game, the writer feels that the fight has been fought with most of them and that the only thing that remains is to convince the world.

The game with the Socorro School of Mines will probably be played here on October 21st. October 28 is still an open date; however, we feel that there will be something doing on that date. The Varsity will play El Paso School of Mines at El Paso on November 14th, and Las Cruces will play here on November 30th. While these games are now assured, we feel certain that other games will be arranged and Albuquerque may now prepare to attend a football game every Saturday after November 14th.

Just a word in reference to our big Thanksgiving game. The Aggies were surprised last year and are not intending to let it happen again, and all "dope" indicates that the Thanksgiving game will be about the best Albuquerque has ever witnessed. With our present outlook we should win—let's don't say that we're going to win—that would be over-confidence—but that we are going in to win. How? By standing behind our team and supporting U. N. M. to the last.

EVERYBODY URGED TO HEAR PRITCHETT

Splendid Opportunity Offered to Students to Attend Lecture Next Monday by Head of Carnegie Foundation.

Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation, will speak to the student body in Rodey Hall on Monday morning, September 25th, at 10 o'clock. Dr. Pritchett has been introduced in the Weekly before and consequently needs no further mention as to his positions.

The Carnegie Foundation, established in 1905, has done a great deal toward the development and advancement of the profession of teaching, and is indeed an organization which has done itself justice in the past ten years, besides being of considerable advantage to many men and women.

Dr. Pritchett has the ability to express himself clearly, and the address to be delivered will undoubtedly be very interesting and instructing.

The students should avail themselves of this opportunity and lay their plans now so as to be able to attend the assembly period and hear Dr. Pritchett talk. We are indeed fortunate to have the opportunity to listen to such a man, and everyone who is not there will know just that much less; so let everyone make a special effort to be present.

SIXTY-THREE MEN SELF SUPPORTING

The number of men at the University this year who are self-supporting, wholly or in part, as compared with last year, shows an increase of 15.5 per cent. The women self-supporting, wholly or in part, show an increase of 5.7 per cent.

Men, self-supporting, 1915-16, 48; 1916-17, 63.5.

Women, self-supporting, 1915-16, 19; 1916-17, 24.7.

MISS HICKEY NOW THE TROUBLE FIXER

Popular Member of Faculty Given Position Which Will Call for Diplomacy and Cleverness in Straightening Out Difficulties for Students.

Miss Ethel A. Hickey has been appointed by Dr. D. R. Boyd as a committee of one to act as student advisor. From now on she will have the special task of aiding all students who are having trouble with their programs, or in some other way find themselves in difficulties. To be exact, Miss Hickey will hold the same position as "trouble woman" in a big department store.

All students who have had experience with Miss Hickey's "fatherly advice" need not be urged to come the second time, and new and inexperienced students will find it well worth their while to consult Miss Hickey in any and all of their difficulties. A definite plan will be outlined later.

This scheme has been adopted in a few of the larger institutions, and the University of New Mexico is right up to date in this respect. The scheme has produced wonderful effects in the universities in which it has been adopted, and under the careful supervision of Miss Hickey we are bound to have some good results here.

In order that there may be no misunderstanding regarding the new position, it might be suggested that Miss Hickey does not intend to conduct a "Laura Jean Libby" column in the Weekly; neither does she propose to advise freshmen as to whether they should study the "Bringing Up Father" cartoons in the Morning Journal each morning before breakfast.

EIGHTEEN STATES ARE REPRESENTED

That the University of New Mexico attracts students from many sections of the country is indicated by a compilation of the names and residence places of the members of the Junior and Sophomore classes. A list of the Seniors was published in the Weekly a short time ago. The Juniors and Sophomores represent a total of eighteen states of the Union. Their names and native states are as follow:

Junior Class: Emmons, Alabama; Pennington, Arkansas; Stateson, Arkansas; Gustafson, California; Upton, California; Cook, Iowa; Porterfield, Iowa; Johnson, E., Illinois; McDonough, Illinois; King, E., Kansas; Wolking, Kansas; Boldt, I., Nebraska; Fergusson, New Mexico; Hope, New Mexico; Lee, New Mexico; Loudon, R., New Mexico; Loudon, T., New Mexico; Von Wachenhusen, New Jersey; Long, K., Texas.

Athletic Support.

Whatever our opinions may have been in the past with reference to the athletic situation the fact remains that we have a football season before us, and every effort should be set forth to make this the most successful season ever. Every man who considers himself football material should feel duty bound to appear on the Varsity field every night from four to six, and try to absorb all the football knowledge which will be instilled into them by our worthy coach "Hutch." The only demand will be to devote all our energy and attention to the things that are said. It goes without saying that "Hutch" will put forth every effort possible to have a championship team and let's have it said at the end of the season that every one is satisfied, and leave no room for any argument.

We have now appropriated for athletic purposes a neat little sum to carry on such activities, and with such able management as we now have, there is no chance for a deficit as far as financial duties are concerned. The schedule this year is larger than ever before, and consequently the student body must push even stronger than it has before.

Among the many demands which university loyalty makes upon its men and women, there is none more serious than the need of giving whole hearted and thorough-going support to all athletic activities.

Some time ago the Weekly published an article requesting contributions from all who might wish to have items of news, jokes or hints about the most fastidious manner of using invisible hairpins, to the accompaniment of a generous proportion of talcum powder. Little did the writer of the article in question believe that it would meet with a response in the form of a blackhand letter to the Editor. But, read it yourself. We have handed the original to a Pinkerton detective and give warning that no expense will be spared to discover the identity of the author. The letter follows:

"What do you think of adding to the Weekly a department entitled 'Interesting People at the U. N. M.', composed of short character sketches of people at the University?"
"Can you imagine how eagerly it would be received? I am sure you never would be at a loss for write-ups, for think of the material there is in it—Ray McCanna, Dr. Hill, Mrs. Pärch, Miss Hope, and, oh, so many others!"

NEAR POETRY.
Green caps again on the hill are seen,
Green caps on Freshies, still more green,
From early morn till late at night
These green caps always are in sight.

HODGIN INSPIRES CLASSICAL EFFORT

The editorial staff of the Weekly is not ignorant of the name of the author who perpetrated the following poem. Nevertheless we have no apologies to offer and believe that it is a classic. We hope we will not be sued for libel, mainly because we are not liable for any poetry manufactured in the fall. We will undertake to be responsible for spring poetry. But time enough to think of that when the baseball days come again. We submit the poem now in question, with due deference, trusting that readers will discover in it true merit and the artistic sense of proportion and cube root; not to mention feet and alliteration and alleviation:

No matter who the person is,
Or where his lot is cast,
No matter if he ever was,
Or has been in the past;

No matter if he counts wealth
In figures that appal.
No matter whom, or what or where,
Prof. Hodgkin knows them all.

No matter where the country is,
Far north or "way down south."
No matter if it's desert, steep,
Or orator's fiery mouth.

No matter where the place is,
If man's been there at all,
Just ask Prof. Hodgkin, "There?"
Sure, "I was there last fall."

Methinks that when Prof. Hodgkin stands
Before the pearly gate,
He'll stop and take a second look
At Peter's saintly pate.

He'll let his gaze traverse the length
Of heaven's vast, shining shore,
And, puzzled, turn to Mrs. H.,
"Ain't we been here before?"
Poetess — Jestress.

COYOTE CLUB NO MORE.

The Coyotes have been shot and are now dead and buried. They got the rabies and were hydrophobic. They got to biting rockless-like and mad. U. N. M. authorities that look out for livestock got out the old gun and loaded it with giant powder and ten-penny nails. Bang! The pestiferous Coyotes were blown to hunks of hide and howl. 'Twas a blamed good shot. Good Coyotes are all right to keep down the skunks and prairie dogs, but when they get hydrophobia and lose their sense, they have to go.

Fred Sabin has been pledged Sigma Chi.

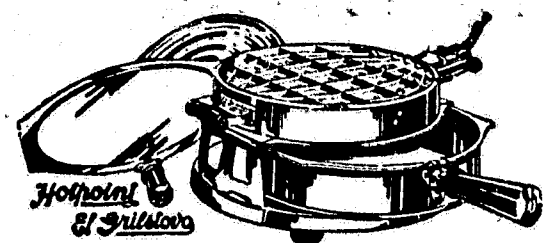

Thompson is a pledge of Alpha Delta.

Al Hunt, superintendent of the University ground, was seen digging on the campus, in front of the girls dorm. It is suggested that Al be severely reprimanded for such action. (By order of Langston, superintendent of the gymnasium.)

A Sad Story.

In a recent examination in Latin, one question read: (a) Give the indicative of "sum;" (b) ditto of "vi-deo."

The second part of the question was answered thus:
Ditto, dittos, dittett, dittemus, dittefts, dittent.

For the students who want to do a little cooking in their own rooms Hotpoint Electric El Grillstovo can't be beat. It operates from any lamp socket; boils, broils, fries and toasts, either above or below the glowing coils; performs any two operations at same time at current cost of one, and if used with Hotpoint Ovenette it bakes and roasts. In fact, it is a small range. Let us show you.

FINE PROGRAM AT THE ANNUAL "SING"

Open Air Musical Event Attended by Entire Student Body and Large Crowd From Town; Seder Praised for Successful Direction.

On Friday night, September 15th, the University gave its annual "sing" on the campus. The "sing" was a distinct success and many townspeople thoroughly enjoyed the event.

The success of the "sing" may be attributed to the hearty co-operation of the student body and the direction of Prof. E. Stanley Seder. The success of the event indicates a little more clearly than ever the fact that the students can make a success of anything they put their hands to, provided they work with intelligence and enthusiasm.

The center of attraction was around the class memorial of 1905. The campus was lighted with electric lamps, strung from tree to tree. A piano was placed directly under one tree and the groups gathered around this for their respective numbers.

Mrs. J. D. Clark's presentation of "At Dawning" was splendidly done, with remarkably fine expression, and called for repeated encores.

A selection by the U. N. M. quartet and a vocal duet by Misses Alberta Hawthorne and Hortense Switzer were especially well rendered.

The program was as follows: Overture, "Sunburst," band; Alma Mater; selection, University male quartet; song, Alpha Delta Fraternity; "The Silver and Red," duet, Miss Alberta Hawthorne and Miss Hortense Switzer; song, Phi Mu Fraternity; violin solo, Mrs. J. D. Clark; Bridal Chorus (Cowan), University Chorus; song, Sigma Chi Fraternity; "Our Director," march, band; song, Alpha Gamma Fraternity; "Os-kee-wow-wow" and Cheer New Mexico.

Members of Alpha Delta Fraternity entertained the students afterward in Rodey Hall with a very delightful dance.

Y. W. C. A. PARTY ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The Get-Together party for the girls of U. N. M., given by the Y. W. C. A., was a great success. A clever, short program was given. Miss Hermione Hoge, who has been in Russia studying Russian dancing, performed several beautiful dances. Everyone was delighted with them. Miss Martha Henderson gave a reading; Misses Daphne and Thelma Fortney danced the minuet in colonial costume; Miss Bixler gave a fine piano solo. "Her Suitors," a clever little stunt that kept the audience roaring, was performed by Adelaide Shields, Martha Henderson, Lillian Gustafson, Mildred Cady and Helen Thacker.

After a few announcements by the president of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Lillian Gustafson, Miss Lathrop gave a short, right-to-the-point talk on "What the Y. W. stands for and why we should all be interested."

After the program was a general social time and refreshments. Everybody had a good time.

VOICE CONSERVATION.

It has been very noticeable for some time past that when announcements are made in assembly the majority of students are not able to hear or understand them. Heretofore it has been supposed that it was due to some defect in the hearing of the different students but at last we have decided that it is up to the faculty to speak more clearly and distinctly when making such announcements. One member of the faculty believes not only in the cultivation of the voice—but also in the conservation of the voice. On account of the high cost of living, said professor has decided that for economy's sake he will not talk as loud as he thinks he should. Respectfully, then, we would suggest that in the future all announcements should be made so the entire student body will be able to understand them, and act accordingly. Some of the members of the faculty have very high flown, oratorical voices, and announcements as set forth by them are always appreciated; but we are sorry to say that others have very weak and peculiar voices, and also would like to suggest that the department of English offers a course in "Forms of Public Address," which surely would prove beneficial. The voice is one of the principal qualifications for a college professor, and while we are happy to say that the University has some adequate talkers we are forced to say that there are two or three whom we are not able to understand sufficiently.

Prof. Hill: "Who signed the Declaration of Independence?"
Masten, (aided by F. Lee): "Edison."

A Tale for Knockers.

There was a fool. He came to college. For some months he lived comfortably. Then, little by little the news came to him from all quarters that he was a brainless fellow.

The fool was very much confused by this and was anxious to put an end to such disagreeable news. At last, a sudden idea brightened his poor head, and without much ado he put it into practice. An acquaintance met him on the campus and began to praise a well liked professor.

"Mercy," exclaimed the fool. "That professor is no good whatever. He uses the most out-of-date methods. Don't you know that? I did not expect that from you. You are behind the times."

The acquaintance was confused and hastened to agree with the fool.

"What a splendid book that is," another acquaintance said to the fool, talking of a new book.

"Gracious," exclaimed the fool, "that book is good for nothing, there is not a novel idea in it. Everybody knows that, don't you know it? Oh, you are behind the times."

And this acquaintance was also confused, and he, too, agreed with the fool.

"What a fine and noble man my friend N. N. is," said another person to the fool.

"Oh, dear me," exclaimed the fool, "he is a well known rascal and cheat. Who does not know that? You are behind the times."

And this person believed in the fool and forsook his friend. And the same sort of remarks the fool made whenever they praised anybody or anything in his presence.

And it came about that people began to talk of the fool thus: "What an angry critic he is! But then what a clear head!" "And what a sharp tongue!" "Ah, he is a genius!"

The fool who has denounced all authorities has now become an authority himself, and all revere and fear him. They cannot help it, for did they not revere him, the fool would class them among those behind the times.

"How happy fools are among cowards."

(Apologies to Ivan Fourganoff.)

Some men who pretend to understand woman nature, and the workings of the feminine mind and who presume to criticize the motives of the common sense woman, should be told that all the women in the world are not like the particular wise jilt who no doubt embittered him against woman kind.

Alpha Delta Dance.

After the "sing" Friday evening, the student body adjourned to Rodey hall, where the Alpha Delta fraternity were hosts at a dance. Every body roused to a high pitch by the singing, and yells, was in the best of spirits and all went in for a jolly good time. And they had it. To add to the general excitement, stags were so numerous that it was impossible to dance more than six steps with one person. Pink punch was served. The dancers were in no way ready to stop
