ORATORICAL TRYOUT TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Three Contestants to Try for Honor of Representing U. N. M. at Santa Fe During Teachers' Convention Week.

Tonight, in Rodey hall at 8 o'clock, the tryouts for the oratorical contest will be held. This tryout is for the purpose of selecting a representative for the final contest which will be held in Santa Fe during the week of the teachers' convention. There are three or four men entered in the tryout, and their subjects are of such a nature that an interesting program is assured for tonight.

The preliminary was won last year by Harry Lee, but he was forced to return to his home in North Carolina before the finals, and was therefore unable to be our representative. Carl Brorein, who won second place in the preliminary, was then chosen for the finals at Santa Fe, in which he won first place for the University. Mr. Lee is entered in the contest again this year. Mr. Booker, of Dewey, Okla., and Mr. Gallagher, of Clovis, are the other contestants.

The oratorical contest is one of the features of the big week in Santa Fe during the teachers' convention, and is always closely contested. One of the three young men mentioned above is going to represent us there, and is going to do his best to win for us. A few students will probably hear the final in Santa Fe, and for the others there is the opportunity of hearing the orations tonight. The entire student body should come. The place, Rodey hall; the time, eight bells.

BENEFIT CARD PARTY.

The benefit card party given by a number of the University girls at the Woman's Club Saturday afternoon was a decided success. About one hundred young ladies of the town and University attended the party. An excellent sum was realized, which will be used to buy wool for the Thursday knitting club. A great deal of credit is due to the Misses Betty Simms, Louise Bell, Hazel Hawkins and Angelia Howden, who planned and managed the affair.

Professor Charles Wakefield Cadman and Princess Tsianina will appear at the high school auditorium on the evening of November 26, under the auspices of the Fortnightly Club. Professor Cadman, having spent some time in Albuquerque several years ago, is well known in the city. For tickets see Professor Seder.

Dr. James, the noted author, who resides at the dormitory, is confined to the hospital on account of illness. It is hoped that he will soon be out again.

Steve Powell, Reid Garton and Lon Sheahan, who were among the first to offer their services to their country, are stationed at Fort Bliss, Tex. Their address is H. Q. Co., 13th Inft., Fort Bliss, Texas.

CONTINUE PRACTICE FOR CRUCES GAME

Football Men Are Training Hard for Saturday's Contest With "Aggies." Athletic Council Makes New Ruling.

Members of the football team, or such of them as have been able, are practicing hard for the game Thanksgiving with the Aggies. Several men have been unable to come out on account of injuries received in the practice game with the Indians and in the high school game. However, all of them will probably be in the lineup again by Turkey day.

Harris, who has been laid up with blood poison in his hand, is rapidly improving, and will be in the game Saturday. Chavez is losing his charley-horse, and will be on hand to spear forward passes. Mann, White, McClure, and Clark will be on hand as usual. Chess, whose finger was broken in the high school game, will be out for the rest of the season.

The Athletic Council, at its meeting Wednesday, passed a ruling regarding the awarding of letters. It reads that any man who plays three-quarters of the Aggie game on Thanksgiving day will be awarded a letter. This does not mean that those who have been playing all season, and who should not be able for some reason to play that much of the game will not be awarded a letter. It just assures a man his letter who perhaps has not been able to play all season, and who does play three-quarters of that game.

BASKET BALL

MANAGERS CHOSEN.

The Athletic Council chose two managers last Wednesday to manage the boys' and girls' teams, respectively. Hugh Cooper is to manage the boys' quintet and Ed King the girls' sextette. The girls have been practicing some time, and the boys will begin just as soon as football season ends. The prospects for winning teams are good. It is likely that the boys' team will play a game or two in the Rocky Mountain conference.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL ELECTS OFFICERS.

The members of El Circulo Espanol met last Thursday noon to reorganize and elect officers for this year. The meeting was called by last year's Vice President Garrett, who took charge until an election was held. The following were elected: Wayne Garrett President
Julie Hubbell Vice President
Anita Osuna Secretary
A committee was appointed to straighten out affairs, and plan this year's activities.

The object of the club is to promote the use of Spanish in conversation, to study Spanish history, and to discuss things of interest to Spanish classes. All conversation is carried on in Spanish. Any one who is taking Spanish or who speaks it is eligible for membership.

GROVER C. EMMONS ADDRESSES VESPERS

Former Varsity Student, Now Preparing for Army Y. M. C. A. Work, Delivers Wonderful Talk.

At the Vespers Sunday afternoon a wonderful talk was given by the Rev. Grover C. Emmons, a former student of this institution, now a Methodist minister. Rev. Emmons is preparing to enter the army Y. M. C. A. work under the direction of Bishop Lambuth, head of all army Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. Emmons chose as his subject, "I am not ashamed of the religion of Jesus Christ," and told why he was not ashamed of it. He compared the Christian religion to that of Mohammed and Confucius, pointing out the advantages which it possessed over those. He showed what the Christian religion could do and has done for people as a nation, and what it could do for people individually.

He closed his address with a statement of what Christianity can do for a soldier and what it will do for him.

It will be remembered by some older students that four Emmons have attended the University of New Mexico. Of these, three are now in different branches of the army and navy. Rev. Emmons will make the fourth and last one to enter the service of his country, when he engages in his new work next month.

The following program was rendered at the Vespers:

Piano Solo—Seder.
Hymn, "Abide With Me,"—Congregation.
Convocation.
Responsive reading.
Vocal solo—Mrs. N. W. Benning.
Address—Rev. Grover C. Emmons.
Song—Congregation.

ANNUAL UNIVERSITY SING FRIDAY NIGHT

Professor Seder's Program for the Varsity Sing Promises a Rare Treat. Short Dance Afterwards.

Following the annual custom of the Varsity, the University Sing will be held next Friday night in Rodey hall. Professor Seder, head of the department of music, has outlined an interesting program that should be a delight to all who attend. The feature of the program is that the larger part of the numbers are such that the entire audience will participate. Love for the familiar old songs, college spirit and patriotism will all come in for their share, several numbers of each being on the program. Quite a few numbers will be rendered by the University Choral Club and the University Opera Chorus. A short impromptu dance will be given by the student body after the sing. Everybody, including faculty, students, alumni, and down town people are cordially invited to attend. Following is a program of the sing, which starts promptly at 8 o'clock: University Songs:

PHI KAPPA PHI HOLDS FIRST MEETING

University's Honor Society Meets and Elects New Members. Make Plans for Initiation.

The Phi Kappa Phi fraternity met last Friday at noon for the purpose of electing new members and laying plans for the society for the year. From the faculty, Vice President Hodgins was elected to membership, and Dr. LeRoy S. Peters, a prominent specialist in tuberculosis at St. Joseph's sanatorium, was elected to honorary membership in the fraternity. Plans were laid for the initiation of the above mentioned gentlemen and a luncheon to be held the first Saturday after Christmas.

The Phi Kappa Phi fraternity is an honorary society, the local chapter of which was installed in the University last year. Membership is based on scholastic achievement, twenty per cent of each year's senior class being eligible, providing the required grades are attained. The average grade for the entire four years' college work is taken into consideration in determining eligibility to the society. From last year's senior class four members were chosen, these being Miss Fern Reeves, Miss Ethel Kieke, Miss Daphney Fortney and Mr. Pryor Timmons.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

The Dean of the University invites the presidents of all the fraternities of the University to assist him in promoting the welfare of both University and fraternities, by consulting with him on the record of students who are members of fraternities.

OUR BOYS IN THE ARMY.

How many U. N. M. boys do you know who are now in the army? Count them, and then think of how many you have written to. We all know how glad we are when we find a letter in the box over at the main building, and we know how disappointed we are when we find the box empty. Now let us think of our friends in khaki. Just stop and think of the pleasure that a letter might carry to him, and then get busy and write it. A letter may mean more to him at the right minute than anything else you could send, so get busy and write that letter or those letters, and not only that, send the address of any of the boys you know to the Weekly. We want to know where they are.

A LITTLE CARE.

Something was said a few weeks ago concerning a "general clean-up day" on the campus. It would not be necessary to have very many of these if students would refrain from throwing waste paper and all sorts of rubbish about. When you leave the Grotto, don't toss your tinfoil, boxes, etc., away. A number of students have been in the habit of leaving books in front of the administration building, and thus making the place look like a grammar school. This custom is not tolerated in the large universities, so why should we do it here? Before long we will have a mighty fine looking campus. Let us keep it as clean as possible.

TAKE THE WARNING.

"A warning to the wise may save public embarrassment. All lower classmen who now fail to live up to the campus rules will be marked prey for the vigilance committee. The frosh caps have arrived and all of the rules are to be enforced by the committee unless the students take it upon themselves to do what college custom and precedent ordains that they do.

"The campus rules work hardships on no one but add a great deal to college life by making the campus distinction between the new and the old men in the college. The best man in his senior year will be one who has lived through his underclass days according to the rules laid down by the authority of those higher up. He recognized law and order and is in a better condition to have charge of it for that reason.

"If you freshmen think a green cap unbecoming to your style of haircut or complexion, the vigilance committee suggests that it is far more becoming than a public demonstration with you as the center if ridicule for not doing your bit to add real color to college life.

The above was clipped from the Utah Chronicle, student paper at the University of Utah. Students of the freshman class should read this, see that the wearing of the green is an ancient custom, not only in our college, but in many others, and also observe the heading of this little article.

ALPHA GAMMA HOOVERITE.
Simple but patriotic in its appointments was the Hooverite given at the Woman's Club last Friday night by the Alpha Gamma sorority in honor of its pledges. Befitting a war dance there was plenty of powder, and just a little bit of war paint—I'm afraid, and in accordance with Mr. Hoover's requests, no refreshments were served—only a large punch bowl filled with sparkling ice water served to the happy dancers by a tiny boy and girl. However, the guests were consoled by gazing at the numerous slogans on food conservation of meatless, sweetless days, framed in American flags and bunting.

There were several feature dances, among which was a prize waltz. The prize, a tiny sack of flour, was presented to "the dearest, cutest little couple on the floor—Jimmie Hoover and Frances Bear."

The gaiety lasted until midnight, when the guests dispersed with a rousing cheer for the Alpha Gammas and the excellent time they had during the evening.

Besides the honor guests, the active and alumnae members of the fraternity, the following were present: Misses Annette Weinman, Julia Keleher, Irene Fee, Margaret Lee, Lorraine Long and Dorothy McMillen; Messrs. Rodney Keleher, White, Mangin, Sewell, McCanna, Barr, Bruce, Hopewell, Hoover, Clark, Herkenhoff, Woodson, Hunt, Slater, Buckley, Cooper, Costin, Wait, Boldt, Chess, Kellam, Bacon, Geo. White, Lee, Dick Bruce, Richardson, Chester Boldt, Givan, Hammond, Fred White, Landolfi, Ralph Keleher, Devine, Hall, Patton, Bowers and McClure. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cooper chaperoned.

RESULTS OF PROHIBITION.

(Forecast.)

Craig and Gerhardt will no longer disturb the dorm with their heated arguments.

Brother Garrett and Mr. Sharpe will no longer disturb the dorm in the early morning hours.

Rattlesnake bites will be common on the Campus.

Tommy Buckley will no longer appear at breakfast in an unsanitary condition.

Patton and Blanco will lose their reputations as short change artists. Hooverites will be all the style.

Peruna will come into its own. The Grotto will make a first rate Tiger.

If Hutch was here, he would commit suicide.

The team will depend entirely on Professor Worcester's kind of spirits. "Doggie" Hoffman will need a new cure for dandruff.

White and Perry will not lose their coats and hats again.

LOCO WEED

Not the "one that Booker likes." The one that likes him.

Somebody is wearing somebody's pin. Do you know who the somebody is that is wearing somebody's pin?

The larger they are, the harder they fall. Look out, you big men.

Oliver wishes to announce that he is getting tired of all this popularity, and that in the near future he is going to introduce himself to the school, at least to some of the gentle ones of the school. You may think he is a fake, but look out for him. He is going to show himself. There is a prize offered to the one who first discovers his identity.

I ain't got no body much and nobody cares for me, (Red Buckley).

Young Lady—"What is the matter with your finger, Mr. Olds? Did you hurt it?"

Swede—"Naw, I'm keeping it wrapped up so it won't get dirty."

Men and dates surely are in demand. Did you hear what one certain young lady did in order to get one? No, she was not a freshman.

"Popularity, thou art mine." Overroad.

If you don't know Oliver, you at least ought to know Betty. She is a close relative.

We are awfully glad the knives at the dining hall are not very sharp. We have some friends whose lives would be endangered each time they shovel in a load.

We are asked to announce that anyone who desires to reduce by the simple means of eating less, should arrange to be seated at Romero's table. He and Gallagher will see to it that you don't get much.

Don't miss Vespers next Sunday. Blanco will sing "B-I-Blessed Sunshine."

Did you ever ask a girl for a dinner date at Grimshaw's and have her tell you that she has a date for the Alvarado?

Towhead resembles a sheep. He has the disposition of a young one, and is now attempting to gain possession of a Lamb.
