U. N. M. STUDENTS TO ATTEND STATE FAIR

Three Holidays Are Granted, With Advice to Attend Classes During the Early Part of Week; Best Attractions Are Programmed for Final Days.

All classes will be dismissed Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week so the students may be able to take in all the sights and attractions of the State Fair.

A glance at the program will assure you that all the big events will come off on these days and that you will lose nothing by being forced to go to school the first three days of the week.

Cutting classes this week will be counted against the offender just the same as at any other time, so any who might be tempted had better think twice before doing anything rash. The Fair is going to continue the rest of the week and the best is always saved until the last, so don't spend all your money and time (which should be mostly on the hill, attending classes, etc.), by sneaking away from classes the first three days. "Verbum Sapientibus" (with permission of Dr. Kirk) is all that should be necessary.

PHI KAPPA PHI INSTALLATION OCT. 7

Academic Honor Fraternity Chapter to Be Installed in University Soon; National Officer of Organization Coming; Banquet at Alvarado Hotel Feature of Initiation Program.

The Phi Kappa Phi installation is to take place October 7th. There will be an address at 10 a. m. at Rodey Hall to which the general public is invited. Mr. E. M. Wentworth is a national officer of the fraternity. The subject of his address is "I, the Undergraduate." In the afternoon there is a reception to which the Juniors and Seniors are invited. That evening there will be a banquet at the Alvarado for the members.

The Phi Kappa Phi, as everyone knows, is an honorary fraternity of great merit. Every senior is anxiously awaiting the rules concerning membership in the organization, and suggestion as to how to attain the honor.

After the installation the plan will be outlined as to just what are the essentials required for admission to this fraternity.

It is a fraternity of national standing and the University is very fortunate in being able to secure a charter.

Miss Anita Thomas, former instructor of Spanish at the U. M., is now principal of Spanish in the New York High School of Commerce, New York City.

COLORADO COLLEGE GAME ALMOST CERTAIN

Another Big Contest Will Likely Be Booked by Coach Hutchinson; Freshmen Urged to Get Out and Learn Yells at Football Practice.

Coach Hutchinson has been in correspondence with the athletic director of Colorado College at Colorado Springs, Colorado, and it is quite likely that a game may be arranged with them for October 7th. This will mean another big game for the Varsity this year and another addition to the home schedule next year. However, it will mean that the Varsity will play earlier in the season than was expected and that our team must be in shape within ten days. This game will undoubtedly be one of the hardest of the season for the Varsity, but we feel that any disadvantage that we suffer through the fact that it will be our first will likewise be suffered by our adversaries and that we have no reason to feel discouraged at this time. On the other hand, there is every reason for encouragement and here are a few of them:

Our men have begun scrimmage practice and are gradually getting accustomed to the hard knocks. We have two teams of fairly evenly matched strength which should be able to give each other all the necessary practice for our big games. We have the advantage of having started practice earlier than most of our opponents. Our team is the heaviest that we have had in years, and in spite of the fact that it will hardly weigh up to the measure of most of our opponents, it should with the training Hutch will give it outclass all on-comers in speed and tactics.

Some of the men have been out of the game during most of the week owing to early season scratches and sores. Among these are Hoffman, Clark and Aydelotte. However, it is expected that all will be ready for hard work by the first of next week. Owing to the disability of the above mentioned men the game between the old and the new men was not played on Friday as scheduled.

The football men are being encouraged by the increased attendance at practice. There is nothing which will put pep into the practice as will well-filled bleachers and a few cheers now and then. With the hard season ahead this phase of football practice will not only help but will be a necessity to the season that we are anticipating and working for. No better time and place for yell practice could be found than four o'clock at the bleachers every afternoon. Here is the chance for the Freshmen to get in and learn some of the Varsity yells.

The Hokona parlors boast of an entire new set of furniture.

INTERESTING ADDRESS MADE BY PRITCHETT

Carnegie Foundation One of Most Instructing and Beneficent Organizations in Country Has High Standard.

The assembly called at 10 o'clock yesterday morning was one of the most interesting and intellectual that has ever been held in Rodey hall.

After a delightful piano duet by Miss Alene Bixler and Professor Stanley E. Seder, Dr. D. R. Boyd introduced Dr. Henry S. Pritchett, president of the Carnegie Foundation.

Dr. Pritchett commenced by complimenting the institution on the unique design of architecture which is portrayed by the buildings of the University, and also complimented us on the fact that our architectural designs are not imitative. "To walk into such a building as this, your auditorium, it gives me great pleasure to be able to look around and say that I have never seen anything to resemble it before in the line of college buildings and architecture. A building like this which can not be classed as a conventional building is indeed a very valuable asset to any institution."

"Every college student should feel in a sense under obligation to give back to the commonwealth, by that meaning the people of the state which has given him the opportunity of obtaining an education, as these state universities do, should feel under obligation to return the equivalent in some form of service, for that which he has received," said Dr. Pritchett.

The Carnegie Foundation stands for several things, chief among which are: (1) Maintenance of system of pensions for all college professors who on account of old age are unable to give the best that is in them to their students; (2) the Foundation looks into and finds out just what functions the universities in the United States and Canada stand for.

"The only one formula in the United States for a man to be able to make a living nowadays is 'Go to College.' In Germany, for example, there are means and methods available for men to be able to secure a foundation without going to college. As yet in the United States we have not come to realize the necessity of such an important factor and consequently we always revert to the aforesaid formula."

Most of the civilized world is on fire today. The question which was brought up before these nations about two years ago is going to be brought up before us in the next decade, and the college men and women who are in school now are going to be called on to settle the discussion. The question which now arises is whether or not the students will be able to decide such an important question with reason or whether they will be allowed to be swayed by the emotional side of the subject," continued the speaker.

Men are thinking now that the democracy form of government is not the last word in regard to government affairs.

STUDENT BODY IS INVITED TO BALL

Our Old Friend "Wick" Miller Promises Everybody a Rattling Good Time at the Dance to Happen on Paved Streets Wednesday Night of Fair Week.

A masked ball will be given on Wednesday night of Fair Week on the streets. J. W. Miller, a former University student, is in charge of the event and it promises to be a successful undertaking. Space will be roped off on Third street between Central and Gold avenues. Sounds rather uncertain, doesn't it? But it isn't. The Country Club and Thirty Club have been asked to send notices to their respective members, urging them to come and enjoy themselves as well as assuring a good crowd, so you may be sure that the best class of people will attend.

A masked ball will be an unusual entertainment and a good time is promised to all who attend. A special invitation has been issued to the president of the Student Body, Joe McCanna, requesting that all the students of the University make themselves conspicuous, not by their absence but by their presence.

The Student Body wishes to take this opportunity to express their thanks to the committee in charge of this affair, and to state that they will attend the ball with a great deal of pleasure.

LARGE RELIEF MAP SHOWS MINERAL WEALTH

Novel Idea Adopted to Show Fair Visitors at a Glance What New Mexico Offers to Capitalists, in Coal Copper and Precious Metals.

Dr. Charles T. Kirk, professor of geology, is in charge of the mineral display at the State Fair. An excellent plan has been adopted for this work so the people may have a better idea of the state's mineral deposits without having to spend a great deal of time at the display.

A large relief map of New Mexico (15 feet square) will be shown, on which the localities of the different minerals will be pointed out.

Coal and copper are New Mexico's chief sources of mineral wealth, the extent of the copper supply being known only in the last three or four years.

The exhibit promises to be an interesting as well as educational one and will undoubtedly prove surprising to many who have the idea that New Mexico has not enough mineral wealth to amount to anything.

Dr. Kirk has been asked to look after this display and the University feels proud that we have a member of the faculty capable to take care of such an important task.

LOYALTY.

The attendance at football practice the last week has been encouraging to the football men. The only hope is that such good hearted support will continue. Of course there are some of the old stand-byes upon whom we can depend at any and all times. But the idea is to get out the people who are not inclined this way at present, but who will be classed as the "loyalists" in a year or so, or even before the end of this season. It is a very easy proposition to stay up on the hill for an hour or so after the day's grind is over, and certainly the most encouraging thing imaginable to the men who are out on the field taking the hard knocks, now that scrimmage has started. The girls who live in the dormitory are and should be out on the bleachers every night, and it is to them that the task falls of inducing the girls from down town to stay up three or four nights a week, if not every week. All that will be necessary is that each girl make a special effort to keep one girl from down town to football practice every night. Don't pick on the same girl every time. After you have had her two or three nights she will be so enthused that some other fair damsel will become her victim and so on down the line. Let's try this for one week and look for the results about Thursday or Friday. If the girls are there the boys are bound to "stick around," so with such a scheme we will kill two birds at once.

44 AFTER 'EM, VARSITY!

The Koyote Klub is dead. No longer will their mournful howl be heard as they roam over the hill in search of prey. Their bones are bleaching in the sun and only a few lone survivors remain to lament the lost glories of the past. Perhaps it is best so but yet we believe that there are two sides to the question. If it was a pernicious organization, as some say it was, then it is best dead. On the other hand if it was simply a dormitory organization to secure a little harmless fun and carried on in such a manner that all were treated alike then a second thought might have been worth while before condemning it. The Koyote Klub was a dormitory tradition as the green caps will some day be a tradition of the campus. It may have been that it was a wrong tradition, then the proper action has been taken. As a member of this dishonored organization I say that it was not and that if it did nothing else it prevented secret hazing which is a bane to any school. Men who were handled by the Koyotes were always handled with consideration and nothing was ever permitted which might have been injurious to anyone. The Koyotes died under a cloud of suspicion and under circumstances unfair to the men. For this we are sorry. We hope that the disbanding of the Klub will not be followed by any evil results.

"JP"

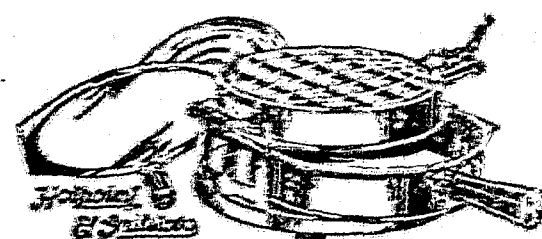

If you could cast away th pain,
The sorrows and the tears,
And let the joys alone remain
From all departed years;
If you could quite forget the sighs,
And recollect the songs,
What think you, would you be as wise,
As helpful, or as strong?

If you could lay the burden down
That bows your head at whiles,
Shun every thing that wears a frown
And live a life of smiles—
Be happy as a child again,
As free from thoughts of care—
Would you appear to other men
More noble or more fair?

Ah, no! a man should do his part
And carry all his load,
Rejoice to share with every heart
The roughness of the road.
Not given to thinking over much
Of pains and griefs behind,
But glad to be in fullest touch
With all his human kind.

—Charles Buxton Going.

At the close of the forenoon session of a ministerial conference in Philadelphia, in announcing the opening subject for the afternoon, the presiding officer said:
"Elder Jones will present a paper on 'The Devil.' Then he added earnestly, 'Please be prompt in attendance, for Brother Jones has a carefully prepared paper, and is full of his subject.'"

Substitute for Slang.

The intellectual bankruptcy of many of our college students is shown by their eternally using such words as "spoony," "nifty," "keen" and "spiffy." These terms as they are used are not in the dictionary. For example, I asked one of the girls the other day if she liked Mr. Brown.

"Yes, you bet, he sure is a swell guy," replied the young lady.

I beg to say that she is wrong. Mr. Brown is not swelled at all except may be his head. And as for being a guy, that is some kind of a rod.

"Yes," continued the girl, "and that sure is a classy little racer of his. He's a regular buck, rushes all the Janes, too. Me for the gink with a car, none of your rummies for mine."

What does all this mean? We soon learn from experience of course. Why it's an accomplishment to be up in the latest slang, and it takes no end of effort to keep abreast of the times.

Here is a new dictionary recently discovered. Startling invention! And so simple. In five minutes' practice you can express precisely, by the terms of this new dictionary, every sentiment or emotion of the human heart. One hundred is the superlative or par basis of every emotion, quantity, quality or sentiment. The rate below one hundred gives the precise positive or comparative value of the object rated, how hate or disgust, which are negative emotions, or rather passions, are expressed by the negative sign (-) before the percentage, while the positive passion of love is expressed by the plus sign (+) after the percentage.

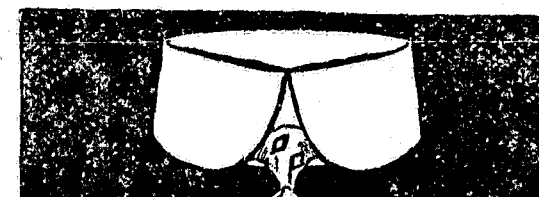

"How do you like Mr. Meyers?"
"-55." (She hates him.)
"Is Mr. Brown good looking?"
"+60."
"Dresses well?"
"+90."
"How do you like him?"
"+95." (Strong friendship.)
"Is Mr. Short clever?"
"-10." (He's a fearful bore.)
"Do you love me, darling?"
"+75." (Cool friendship.)
"How do you like Mr. Thompson, the football hero?"
"+105+." (Heavens! She's in love with him.)
"Do you like to dance?"
"+120+." (Adores it.)
"Do you think Bob is jealous of Dick?"
"+356%+."
"How much does Ruth care?"
"+000,000,000+."

Fraternity Rotary Dance.

The Fraternity Rotary which has recently come into being, is something in the nature of a Pan-hellenic. It is for the purpose of bringing the fraternities and sororities together, to work for the best interest of the college. The idea is for each fraternity and sorority to entertain the others at some time during the year.

On last Wednesday night the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity entertained with a dance at Rodey Hall. All fraternity men and sorority women were present. At about ten o'clock the dancers gathered around to listen to several appropriate speeches. Those who spoke were: Miss Erna Fergusson, on "The Fraternity and the Ideal;" Mr. Kirk Bryan, on "College Politics;" Mr. Lawrence Lee on "The Football History of U. N. M.;" and Allen Bruce on "This Year's Football Program." Dancing was continued after the speaking. Delicious punch was served and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Sigma Chi Smoker.

A Sigma Chi smoker was also given on Saturday night at the "Sig" house. The faculty were guests and a jolly time was reported.

Men and rules are necessary evils at a girls' dorm., the former being the more welcome from the girls' point of view. This year's rules are stricter than ever before but up to this time have been reasonably well kept. The girls appreciate the fact that they must be put under some restrictions and realize that it is for their own good or will be in the future. Miss Frances Lathrop, matron of the Girls' Dormitory, has submitted the following rules for the benefit of those who might have any dealings with the girls from the dorm.:

"No men are permitted to appear at the Girls' Dormitory before 9:30 in the morning," and "No dorm girls are allowed to stroll on the campus after supper, on any nights excepting Wednesday and week-ends."

These two rules seem very reasonable, and with everyone agreeing as we have in the past there is no reason for anything but the greatest of harmony.

How do you tackle your work each day?
Are you scared of the job you find?
Do you grapple the task that comes your way
With a confident, easy mind?
Do you stand right up to the work ahead
Or fearfully pause to view it?
Do you start to toil with a sense of dread
Or feel that you're going to do it?

You can do as much as you thing you can,
But you'll never accomplish more;
If you're afraid of yourself, young man,
There's little for you in store.
For failure comes from the inside first.
It's there if we only knew it,
And you can win, though you face the worst.

If you feel that you're going to do it.
Success! It's found in the soul of you,
And not in the realm of luck!
The world will furnish the work to do,
But you must provide the pluck.
You can do whatever you think you can
It's all in the way you view it;
It's all in the start that you make,
young man,
You must feel that you're going to do it.

How do you tackle your work each day?
With confidence clear, or dread?
What to yourself do you stop and say
When a new task lies ahead?
What is the thought that is in your mind?
Is fear ever running through it?
If, so, tackle the next you find
But thinking you're going to do it.
