STUDENTS LISTEN TO POLITICAL SPEECHES

Distinguished Candidates for United States Senate, Judge Woodmansee, of Ohio, and Mr. Jones, of New Mexico, Speak on Important National Issues.

All history and social science classes were dismissed Monday afternoon, September 25th, so the students might hear the political speeches at the Fair grounds.

Hughes was represented by Mr. Woodmansee, whom Judge Craig introduced. "We are prosperous now, not on account of the Underwood law, but in spite of it," was an important development of the address.

A. A. Jones, introduced by Neill B. Field, spoke in behalf of Wilson. All of the plans of the Democratic party as well as those of President Wilson were set forth.

The wise students "took notes" as an aid to the reports which are now due on the speeches.

FELLOWS BE SURE TO READ ALL THIS

Four Hundred and Fifty Girls Were at Estes Park Last Summer and We Didn't Know It; Hereafter Show Your Interest in the Y. W. C. A. Doings and Keep Up to Date.

The Y. W. C. A. girls met Monday afternoon, October 2nd, at 4 o'clock, in Rodey Hall. Adelaide Shields was the leader, while Lillian Gustafson and Helen Thacker spoke. Miss Gustafson told of the many recreations at beautiful Estes Park, where she attended the Y. W. C. A. conference this summer. There were hikes to mountain lakes, as well as plenty of marshmallow toasts and sings. Imagine the fun the 450 girls from the west and southwest could have at such a gathering as this.

Helen Thacker's topic was "The New Room at Hokona." The room will be fitted up as a rest room and Miss Lathrop's idea is that it will be especially for the non-sorority girls. All Y. W. C. A. meetings will be held there hereafter, as well as all socials.

All University girls are urged to come to the Y. W. meetings held every other Monday (beginning October 2nd), and to join the Y. W. C. A.

A special vesper service conducted by the girls was held in Rodey Hall October 1st. Girls can conduct meetings, after all!

Last Tuesday afternoon the girls were fortunate enough to have Mr. Gale Seaman deliver a few words of cheer and encouragement to them. Mr. Seaman has that peculiar ability to make you feel and realize that if you live a good clean moral life you are bound to succeed, no matter what branch of life you are thrown into.

Varsity Eleven Will Clash With Colorado College in Opening Game

Team Will Leave for Colorado Springs Determined to Win; Hard Practice Has Been the Rule and the Men Have Worked Faithfully to Get Into Best Possible Shape for First Contest of the Season; Everybody Turn Out to the Santa Fe Station to Give the Fellows a Big Send-off Thursday Evening at 7:50; This Means You, Too, Girls.

The University of New Mexico football squad, personnel to be announced within the next two days, will play Colorado College on Saturday afternoon.

This is the first game of the U. N. M. schedule for this season and the backers of the team are naturally anxiously awaiting the outcome. Colorado College has quite a fast team this year, but Coach Hutchinson and his men are ready to give battle from the kick-off to the last minute of play.

The team will be given a big send-off at the Santa Fe station on the night of their departure, Thursday at 7:50 p. m.

The party will consist of fourteen players, Coach Hutchinson and Manager Bruce.

Reports from the Colorado College show that they have a very fast and fairly heavy team and are of course confident of winning. However, with the determination our men have shown out on the field the last week there is no reason why the University of New Mexico should not be made known in the football world.

The team should know that the entire student body is behind them strong and that if moral support counts for anything it may be well said that our team will come out victorious. We are all with you, MEN, so do the best you can, and be able to say in the future that you were on the team or in the squad that defeated Colorado College.

FEW FOOTLIGHTS ON GRIDIRON PASTIME

Now Is the Time for Everybody to Embrace the Opportunity to Manifest an Interest Extraordinary in the Pernicious Football Squad and Prepare for Preparedness With Enthusiasm, According to Hashimura Togo.

You would think that Fair week, with its golden chances to capture joyous jitney (our grandmothers knew it as a nickel) would have noticeably dissipated the numbers (we do not mean the members) of the second team at least, if not the first. But, no! It must have been the growing enthusiasm of the student body's support, or "Hutch's" mild suggestions, or the splendid spirit of the men themselves—SOMETHING kept them out there toiling on the field every night of practice last week.

Every night a scrimmage is pulled off that is as hotly contested and as interesting to watch as any regular game. Take a look at the practice line up and see if it isn't worth going out to watch every day:

OLD MEN: Wigley, center; Sinesio and Fullerton, guards; Lee and Langston, tackles; Nohl and Brorein, ends; Thackery, quarterback; Steed, fullback; Upton and Aydelotte, halfbacks.

NEW MEN: Clark, center; Williams and Craig, guards; Dunlap and Hoover, tackles; Hopewell and Bernhardt, ends; Powell, quarterback; Shields, fullback; Wilfley and Hoffman, halfbacks.

Doesn't that look good to you? And doesn't it strengthen your conviction that if these men—all of them with as much work and carrying as many hours as you do, can devote most of their afternoons building up a machine that is going to make U. N. M. famous—you have no right to be any place but on the bleachers, pulling for the fellows who are doing the work.

And say, do you know that the first big game comes off next Saturday? No, not the week after, but next Saturday! We know you intend to come out some time in the next week or two, but if you don't hurry, the team will be gone to Colorado and the chance for you to show your loyalty will also have gone. If they win you will want to feel proud and celebrate with the rest of us, but what moral right will you have if you haven't done your share?

A Freshman lassie was heard to remark that football was perfectly brutal. It broke necks, and fractured other valuable bones, and besides got the men all dirty. We do not know about the first two, but the last terrible indictment is all too true. So we are going to see what can be done about it. We know that football needs to be reformed so that naturally tidy souls may watch even practice scrimmages without having their sense of propriety outraged.

How about it, Hutch? Can't you fix it up some way so that the fellows can come to an amicable agreement without rolling in the dirt in that boisterous fashion? The Fresh-lady says she can not see any reason why they should knock each other down; they don't in lawn tennis or baseball, and she likes those games. And if they just wouldn't "tackle each other by the feet." That is another thing that she dislikes. This of course can be easily remedied. (Continued on page 2.)

VARSIITY GIRLS ARE MAIDS OF HONOR

Suspicion That U. N. M. Co-eds Are Pretty Is Confirmed When Two Charming Young Ladies From Hill Are Chosen to Participate in State Fair Event.

Two University girls, Miss Myrl Hope and Miss Betty Simms, were maids of honor to the Queen of the New Mexico State Fair this year. This year's queen was Miss Marie Foster from Magdalena. The girls rode in the queen's float in the parade Thursday morning, and were special guests of honor at the Quien Sabe ball as well as attending the queen at other social events. Being chosen for this position is quite an honor, and we are glad the maids were picked from the U. N. M.

Pretty girls are always in demand when it comes to attending the Queen of the State Fair, and the decision of the girls to be chosen is wholly unbiased and free from impartiality. Therefore, the logical conclusion is that the two prettiest girls were chosen.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR SHOP DEPARTMENT

Three Speed Lathes and Electrically Driven Drill Press to Be Installed; Large Engine Lathe Will Soon Be Purchased, Adding Greatly to Efficiency of the Machinery Section.

The shop department with its new quarters in the Science Hall is gradually coming to be one of the most popular departments in the institution. Professor Arno K. Leoupol has delivered an ultimatum stating that "upon the arrival of the three speed lathes, shipped from Fay & Eagan Company, Cincinnati, Ohio, and the large electrically-driven drill press, shipped from the Champion Blower & Forge Company, Lancaster, Pa., the University will be as well equipped in this department to serve the needs for the courses offered as any other institution in the United States." This may sound like a fairly good-sized boast, but it is the facts that count.

Professor Leoupol has negotiations under way for the purchase of a large engine lathe, and this will further add to the efficiency of the now efficient shop department.

It is with a great deal of interest that we sit silently by and watch the growth of the different departments of the institution. We cannot but feel that the credit must fall to some particular person or group of persons. Professor Leoupol, known during his college days at the Varsity as "Dutch," is the man to whom most of this praise and credit should fall upon.

Don't carry your wishbone where your backbone ought to be.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1916.

On October 14th the Colorado School of Mines will play football here with the Varsity. This is certain. We need PEP for this game and now is the time to get it. The men trying for the team are working the best they know how. Some, to whom even the chances of playing are very slim, are taking their hard knocks every night and saying nothing. But the combined efforts of everybody is needed to make this game a success, for it must be a financial success. Unless this game pays expenses U. N. M. will have no game with Colorado next year, so let's make it a financial success as well as otherwise.

The bleachers have been fairly well filled up for the last week. Keep up the good work! Encouragement will give the men confidence, both in themselves and in the loyalty of the school.

There are two things we can do; stay up on the hill for football practice and sell tickets for this game. This will be the first game at home, so everybody get behind the management and assure it that nothing will be left unturned to accomplish our end.

SACRIFICE.

The supreme test of our devotion to any person or any cause is the test of sacrifice. What are we willing to give up? What are we willing to suffer for another or for the cause that we have espoused? The demands of our time, the demands of our lifework may not be to lay down our lives, but the devotion of friend to friend, of parent to child, of soldier to country, of any man to a great cause, often is such that he freely lays down his life in behalf of the object of his devotion. The practical lesson is not in the application of the spirit of the Master with his attitude toward one's own life as related to other lives, the willingness to make even the greatest sacrifice if the cause demands it.—Rolf Cobleigh.

Unless we make ourselves useful to others, and die leaving the world "one whit better" for our having lived in it, we have lived in vain, and do not deserve an ordinary death notice in a newspaper.—A. S. Speed.

The value of an idea is the promptitude of its application.

MINERAL MAP OF STATE IS DISPLAYED

The Mineral Map of New Mexico was one of the most interesting exhibits at the State Fair. Dr. Kirk was in charge of this work. A large relief map, in four quadrants, was shown, with the several mineral resources of New Mexico, the different kinds of minerals, the railroad lines and river systems marked upon it. The map was portioned off into counties so that everyone could find his own home town.

It was exhibited in the county tent and aroused a great deal of enthusiasm and interest in our own home state. Dr. Kirk is certainly to be congratulated upon the success of the display.

A VERSE FABLE IN SLANG.

A woodpecker lit on a Freshie's "nut,"

And settled down to drill,
He bored away for half a day,
And finally broke his bill.
—Borrowed.

"If at first you don't succeed,
Try over and over again."
The searching bird liked this advice
With all his might and main,

So off he flew to a Senior's "dome,"
And how easily made a hole.
But when, expectant, he looked within,

He found "nobody home."
—By An Impartial Freshie.

Any woman can keep a secret if you will permit her to let a dozen other women help her to keep it.

Some of the loudest talkers when they are down town, are the married men who are nothing but good listeners when they are at home.

The supply of well-turned compliments is never equal to the demand.

There is entirely too much remedy in this country that is not applied.

"If we any here offended,
Think but this and all is mended."
Oft we but jested here
In lines that serious do appear.

FEW FOOTLIGHTS ON THE GRIDIRON PASTIME

died. Hutch can doubtless influence the men to sew little straps or bands around their waists, so they can grasp each other more readily. When these essential reforms are put through, we can attend to the other matters, such as the wearing of ties, shining of shoes and brushing of teeth and hair.

So, come on out, girls—and until we have the game civilized there is a genuine Rugby game put on by two little shavers from down town every evening. They go through each other's lines and tackle each other gently, always—around the neck, never the feet—so it is not brutal.

Come on out, men! Come on out, girls! Bring your tatting, or Browning, if you will. Just be there on the bleachers. We will guarantee that after three nights you'll come out empty-handed and open-mouthed to shout for our team, and help capture the championship.

STATE FAIR NOW

THING OF PAST

Everybody Back on the Job, Even Those Who Spent Ten Cents in Submitting to the Psychological Test: "Have You Seen Billie?"

After three long days away from the halls of learning, we find ourselves cheerfully back at the old grind. Not even one lost by the way-side. Many and varied are the tales which come from the returned students. First come the stories of glorious good times. The fair, the fireworks, the parade and the dances were all enjoyed. U. N. M. had a good representation in all the activities of the week. We even have the distinction of claiming in our number the two maids of honor of the "Queen of the Fair."

Some of us look with envy at those lucky persons who spent the whole week in the midst of excitement, and got paid for it. These people claim that they worked, and they did—but they had a lot of fun along with it.

Besides the regular fair entertainments many little informal parties made the past week one which will be well remembered.

FRESHMEN GET START UPON COLLEGE LIFE

I wish to be simple, honest, natural, frank, clean in mind and clean in body, unaffected—ready to say, "I do not know," if so it be—to meet all men on an absolute equality—to face any obstacle and meet every difficulty unafraid and unabashed. I wish to live without hate, whim, jealousy, envy or fear. I wish others to live their lives, too—up to their highest, fullest and best.

HELEN KELLER'S SYMPHONY

Sometimes, it is true, a sense of isolation enfolds me like a cold mist as I sit alone and wait at life's shut gate. Beyond there is light and music and sweet companionship; but I may not enter. Fate, sile, pitiless, bars the way. Pain would I question his imperious decree; for my heart is still undisciplined; but my tongue will not utter the bitter, futile words that rise to my lips, and they fall back into my soul like unwashed tears. Silence sits immense upon my soul. Then comes Hope with a smile and whispers, "There is joy in self-forgetfulness." So I try to make the light in others' eyes my sun, the music in others' ears my symphony, the smile on others' lips my happiness.

As the morning sun brushes the darkness from the world, grant us today the opportunity to brush aside the shadows from some unhappy heart.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

HERE AND THERE.

Dorm Girl: Miss Lathrop, we'd save an awful lot of time if you'd just have us learn the things we can do, instead of the things we can't.

Prof. Clark: What does rum smell like?

Ernie Hammond: 'Err—I don't believe I know.

About the hardest thing a fellow can do is to "fuss" two girls at the same time and preserve a good average.

HOKONA DARES THE KWATAKA VOCAL SQUAD

After dinner, Tuesday evening, eight or ten of Hokona's butterflies, assembled on, around and under the old oaken swing, and sang as sweetly as butterflies can sing. Sweetly enough, however, to elicit tremendous applause and shouts of approbation from Kwataka's inmates. However mistaken the "eagle-men" may have been, they finally concluded they were being serenaded.

Hokona invites or challenges Kwataka to return the favor, though with the reservation that it be from the safe distance of their eagle nest, and not in accordance with old coyote methods.

TO MY SON.

Do you know that your soul is of my soul a part
That you seem to be fiber and core of my heart?
One other can pain me as you, dear, can do;
None other can please me or praise me as you.

Remember the world will be quick with its blame,
If shadow or stain ever darken your name.
"Like mother, like son," is a saying so true,
The world will judge large of mother by you.

Be yours, then, the task, if task it should be,
To force the proud world to do homage to me.
Be sure it will say when its verdict you've won,
She reaped as she sowed, Lo! This is her son.
—Margaret Johnstone Graftin.

A DAILY MOTTO.

It's curious what a sight o' good a little thing will do;
How ye kin stop the fiercest storm when it begins to brew,
An' take the sting from what commenced to rank when 'twas spoke,
By keepin' still and treatin' it as if it was a joke;
Ye'll nd that ye kin fill a place with smiles instead o' tears,
An' keep the sunshine gleamin' through the years,
By jes' laughin'.

Folks sometimes fails ter note the possibilities that lie
In the way yer mouth is curvin' an' the twinkle in yer eye;
It ain't so much what's said that hurts ez what ye think lies hid.
It ain't so much the doin' ez the way a thing is did.

An' many a home's kep' happy an' contented, day by day,
An' like ez not a kingdom hez been rescued from decay,
By jes' laughin'.

A Murderous Race.

A Frenchman was waiting at a railroad station in Ireland when a couple of natives sat down beside him. Said one.

"Sure, Pat, it's down to Kilmary I've been and I'm on my way back now to Kilpatrick."

"Ye don't say," said the other. "It's meself that's just after being down to Kilkenny and I stop here a bit before I go to Kilmoor."

"What assassins!" exclaimed the shocked Frenchman. "Would that I were safely back in France!"—Boston Transcript.
