MISS ANNE MARTIN SPEAKS ON SUFFRAGE

Vice-Chairman of the National Woman's Party Tells Why Women Should Have the Vote and What They are Doing to Secure It.

Miss Anne Martin, vice-chairman of the National Women's Party, addressed the students of the University Monday morning at eleven o'clock on the subject of woman suffrage. In her talk, Miss Martin showed that woman should have an active voice in the government, and told what the National Woman's Party is doing to have a national amendment to the constitution of the United States passed granting equal suffrage.

First, Miss Martin argued that suffrage was right and logical both from an economic standpoint and a moral or human side. She said that equal suffrage had been granted to the women when the revolutionist committee had organized the new government after the deposition of the czar. The same thing had occurred in Canada and England, according to Miss Martin. Premier David Lloyd George had not intended to give the women the power to vote until a committee of women, munition workers showed him that it was essential to the welfare of the nation. Their argument was that with so many of the best and youngest men of the nation gone, the franchise was left in the hands of a dishonest and inefficient few.

Miss Martin also laid stress upon the human side of the question. She says that the suffragists base their claims for national suffrage on the fact that they are human beings, that they are as capable and well educated as men, and that "people who submit to rule should have some voice in the government." She pointed out the inconsistency of fighting to make the world safe for democracy, when we did not practice democracy ourselves.

At the present time twelve states, the majority western states, have equal suffrage. According to Miss Martin it is impossible to amend the constitutions of twenty of the remaining states so that they can have woman suffrage. That is the reason that she is advocating a national amendment instead of securing the vote by states.

Miss Martin believes that if President Wilson thought he would gain more power by getting back of woman suffrage he would do so at once, and she closed her talk with an appeal to all the women present to write the president a personal letter urging him to put his personal and political power back of the national amendment. Once President Wilson uses his power for the amendment, it will be sure to pass, says Miss Martin.

Miss Martin is a graduate of Leland Stanford University. She was known as an all-around athlete while in college and was for two years a champion tennis player, carrying off several trophies. Miss Martin taught in the University of Nevada, but resigned to give all her time to campaigning for woman suffrage. She was president of the Nevada State Suffrage association and carried that state into the suffrage column in 1914.

U. N. M.'S PROMINENT PART AT CONVENTION

Several Professors Have Papers to Deliver. Opera Chorus Sings at Meetings. Professor Seder Gives Organ Recital.

Several members of the faculty have gone to Santa Fe to participate in various lines in the state educational convention, which met November 26 to 28 inclusive. Dr. Boyd, who is president of the executive council, went up on Friday. Most of the business of this council is transacted before the meet proper. This is where the real work of the convention takes place.

Dr. Clark, secretary of the department of science, has been there since Monday, actively engaged in the promotion of science.

Dr. Mitchell delivered a lecture on "Modern Languages After the War."

Professors Wand, Ray and Worcester also attended the convention.

In addition to the faculty members who went to Santa Fe, Professor Seder and his mixed grand opera chorus also made the trip. This chorus made a great hit during the convention. Their first appearance was Sunday night at the dedication of the new museum. They made numerous other appearances before the convention. The personnel of the chorus consists of: Misses Switzer, Stortz and Estelle Harris, sopranos; Misses Shields, Standley, McIntosh, altos; Messrs. Costin, Givan, Hezlett, tenors; Messrs. Cristy, Waite and Williams, basses.

Among the selections rendered were Inflammatus, from Stabat Mater; Hosanna, Grain; selection from Aida, Verdi; O, Italia, Italia Beloved, Donizetti; and the sextet from Lucia; also the following Albuquerque products: Edward D. Horgan's "Go On, My Boy, Your Country Needs You;" Seder's "To Arms" (finale to act one of "Go Ask Willie"); and J. D. Henderson's song, "Kaiser Bill Has Made His Will."

Sunday afternoon, Professor Seder gave an organ recital at 3:00 o'clock at the Scottish Rite cathedral. This organ, was opened by Mr. Seder in a recital some five years ago. The numbers were as follows: Overture, "Jubilee," Weber; Gavotte from Mignon, Thomas; Finlandia, Sibelius; Melodie in E flat, Tschalkowsky; Marche Slave, Tschalkowsky, and Fantasia on National Airs of Allies, Seder.

Tonight Harold Booker will deliver his oration, "New Mexico and the War," in the annual state oratorical contest. Entered against Booker are representatives from Las Cruces and the Military Institute of Roswell.

JIMMIE COSTIN LEAVES VARSITY.

Mr. and Mrs. Costin of Indianapolis, Ind., were in the city last week visiting their son Jimmie who for the past year and a half has been one of the Varsity's popular students. It is with regret that we learn that Jimmie is to return home with them and he will be greatly missed on the campus. Jimmie was associate editor on the WEEKLY.

Y. M. C. A. WAR WORK IS FULLY DESCRIBED

Mr. Heinzman, Who is Working to Raise an Army Y. M. C. A. Fund, Tells of His Experiences Among the Armies in Europe.

At eleven o'clock on Friday morning Mr. Harry L. Heinzman, one of the international secretaries of the Y. M. C. A., made one of the most interesting and forceful talks heard in Rodey Hall this year.

Mr. Heinzman has been assigned to the southern district, of which New Mexico is a part, to help raise the $2,000,000 student Y. M. C. A. fund for war work. As a result of this he has visited nearly every college and university in this section of the country. The results of his talks have been far in excess of those expected. While making this tour, Mr. Heinzman is also stopping at all the army contingents which he can visit and making speeches at these.

In his talk Mr. Heinzman told of the wonderful work being done in the hospitals and prison camps of Europe. He stated that men are being made blind by the thousands, and that men are being maimed by the hundred of thousands. He described a few personal incidents which impressed upon the audience the awfulness of the war.

The place where the Y. M. C. A. work is most needed is in the prison camps, stated the speaker. There are some 6,000,000 men in the prison camps of Europe, both allies and Germans. These men are living under indescribable conditions, with insufficient clothing and food. Moreover they have nothing to do. Give a man something to do and he will probably come through, but the idleness which is forced upon these men is causing many of them to go crazy. The percentage runs from 8 to 20 per cent. The Y. M. C. A. is doing what it can to relieve these conditions. Food and clothing, such as is obtainable, is distributed among the prisoners. The distribution of packages sent to soldiers is left in the hands of the Y. M. C. A. It is said that only one per cent of the packages go astray. The secretaries in the prison camps have in many cases organized bands and orchestras among the prisoners. The instruments used are in every case made by the players themselves.

The Y. M. C. A. secretaries also help care for the wounded. The Red Cross takes care of all wounded who are unable to walk, but the army Y. M. C. A. secretaries assist those wounded who are still able to walk. Many instances of heroism have been given by the Y. M. C. A. men. The death rate among them is twelve to fourteen per cent.

In closing, Mr. Heinzman challenged the students to show why they should be allowed to continue their way untouched by the war. He predicted that in a year there would be former students of the Varsity, back on the hill, maimed for life. A strong appeal was made to each student to sacrifice something in order to do his part toward helping the men over there. Pledge cards were handed to each person present, with the request that said person give to the limit toward such a worthy cause.

FOOTBALL TEAM GOES TO LAS CRUCES TODAY

Men Have Been Practicing Hard for the Big Game. Leave on the El Paso Train at 10:05 A. M.

This morning at 10:05 the football team, consisting of sixteen players, the manager and coach, leaves for Cruces to get the Aggies' scalp. The men have been practicing hard for this game, and are determined to get Cruces goat or know the reason why. According to all the dope obtainable the Aggies will outweigh us slightly, but probably not very much. The Varsity is expecting a hard fight, but is also expecting to come out ahead.

The full team is in the line-up now with the exception of Booker, who delivers his oration in Santa Fe tonight and will be unable to get back in time to make the trip. Foraker will probably start the game in Booker's place. In the last few practices Foraker has been showing up well and is considered almost as strong a player as Booker. Harris has been shifted from the line and used in the back field. Boldt has also been played a little in the back field.

Chavez has entirely recovered from the injury which kept him out of the game for a month or so, and has been out the last few nights. Patton is showing up well on the line. There is no use saying that White, Mann and McCure will play a stellar game. Phillips at quarter will make up in head work what he lacks in size. Greenleaf, Romero, and Clark, will do their share toward holding the line. Clark's punting will be a feature of the game.

TWO WEEKS' VACATION FOR CHRISTMAS.

At a faculty meeting last Thursday afternoon the faculty decided to give the students a two weeks' holiday at Christmas. The vacation will begin December 22, 1917, and end January 7, 1918. At the same time dates were set for the beginning and ending of the other three semesters. They are: Winter, January 7 to March 29; spring, April 1 to June 14; summer, June 17 to August 30. From this it will be seen that there are three days' vacation between the winter and spring quarters, three days between the spring and summer quarters, one month between the summer and fall quarters, and two weeks between the fall and winter quarters.

GIRLS WIN PRACTICE BASKET BALL GAME.

Starting the season by defeating the Business College team, the Varsity girls team in basketball showed that they are going to put out a good team this year. The score in Saturday's game was 20 to 6. Next Saturday at three o'clock the same teams will meet at the armory in the first scheduled game of the season. All students will be admitted free so a good crowd will be assured. The Varsity will line-up as follows: Forwards, Hoffman and Angle; running center, Keene; jumping center, Mitchell; guards, Heinrich and Gibbs. Mrs Hoffman is coaching the team.

COACH WOOD.

The football team leaves this morning for Cruces, where they will play the annual Thanksgiving game with the Aggies. This game will end a season, that from the standpoint of real football has not been a successful one for the U. N. M. We have played a very small number of games, the contest tomorrow being the only college game on the schedule. Whatever the score is tomorrow, we believe our boys will do their best and we hope that they will put up a stiff opposition to the Aggies who will outweigh them considerably.

No matter what the score tomorrow, no matter the results of previous games, we know one thing and that is this: No man has worked harder for us than has Coach Wood. Mr. Wood teaches mathematics as a profession but when Hutch did not come back and school had started he volunteered his efforts to coach the team and no man could have worked harder than he did. His was a hard job even for an old head at the coaching game. He had left over from last year's team a sub center and at the call for candidates not over a half dozen that had ever played the game were among the new men. Hutch never worked harder than did Coach Wood to make a team from such material and no one could have done much more.

For all his time and services Coach Wood received absolutely nothing. He volunteered his services free and has spent every afternoon of the season with them and would not accept one cent for his time. It is not necessary to say that we appreciate what he has done. It is men like Coach Wood that make the game what it is and it is men of his calibre that will keep the game where it now stands—at the head of college athletics.

TENNIS.

We realize that the University is carrying on improvements that will beautify greatly our campus and we know that a good deal of money is being spent in the project. We had to realize also that in obtaining these improvements we had to sacrifice all our tennis courts except one and it might as well have been torn up as to exist in its present condition. Now New Mexico climate is such that the game of tennis can be played the year around so we don't have to wait until spring before getting busy. What can we do? First, let's reorganize the tennis club and then see what can be done about getting some new courts. Let all who are interested in the game of tennis start talking it and when the club reorganizes be there and have something to say.

GIVING.

"We heard Mr. Heinzen's talk in assembly Friday morning and we learned more of the real work of the Y. M. C. A. is doing in the great war arena. We also were given some conception of the great amount of work that has to be done. To do this work, money is necessary and lots of it. Now, what have we the study body of the U. N. M. given to this cause? Individually we have done much good work and have contributed to a certain extent, but as a student body we have done little. There is no organization that is doing more good than the Y. M. C. A. and it is our duty to contribute to our utmost. If you have not signed a card yet, do it now and if the committee accidentally overlooks you don't think that that exempts you from giving. Let's give till it hurts and donate a sum to the Y. M. C. A. that we will be proud of.

CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS.

Improvements on the campus are progressing in fine shape under direction of Landscape Gardener Adams. The high cut along Central avenue has been crowned and sloped and sowed in grass, covered over with straw which is closely held in place by wire netting. An interesting feature of this sharp slope by the roadside will be the name "State University" set in a special stone to be brought from Colorado. The letters will be four or five feet in height and the words will cover a space about 125 feet in length. The letters in this sparkling Colorado stone will be closely set about in grass and should make a striking appearance.

VESPERS LAST SUNDAY.

Rev. Bedford, the new pastor of the Christian church, was the speaker at vespers last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Bedford used as the subject of his talk, "Self Sacrifice," and made a very interesting discourse, giving several examples of the beauty and reward of self sacrifice. Mrs. Faw played a selection on the piano and Mrs. Schwentker rendered a solo.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

At a beautiful tea on Saturday afternoon from four to six, Mrs. W. G. Hope announced the engagement of her daughter Myrl to Lieut. Arthur Sisk. The guests included all of the girlhood friends of Miss Hope. The residence was decorated in pink and the dining room table where Mrs. H. A. Cooper and Mrs. A. B. Stroup poured the tea, was a mass of lovely pink roses. The Misses Katherine Conway, Katherine Little, Lillian Spickard, Kathleen Long and Dorothy McMillen served.

Myrl is one of the University's most popular and charming girls. Lieut. Sisk, now of Leon Springs, Texas, is also well known and popular in Varsity circles.

SIGMA CHI ENTERTAINS.

The Sigma Chis gave one of their jolly informal dances at the fraternity house last Friday night to the members of the fraternity, a few invited guests, and their young ladies.

Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Sigma Chis were: Misses Dorothy Ohmart, Jimmie Standley, Julie Hubbell, Lina Ferguson, Ruth Tompkins, Hortense Switzer, Hazel Hawkins, Louise Dadey, Frances Bear, Catherine Angle, Clara Bursum, Grace Stortz, Ann Harris, Estelle Harris and Le Clair Cavanaugh. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Balcomb acted as chaperones.

Let Him Live.

A youth stood at the judgment bar; He'd killed a maiden fair; He's guilty, cried the jurymen, Our verdict is, "the chair."

The judge looked down upon the wretch, "Young man," he said, "give heed Before I send you to your death; What have you to plead?"

"Your honor, give me mercy, for For my crime was justified; I took her to a football game The day this maiden died."

"The score stood nothing-nothing, With a minute left to play; The fullback took the ball and rushed Some ninety yards away."

"Just then she took me by the arm And said, 'That horrid man— The coward wouldn't stay and fight, But took the ball and ran.'"

"Yes, Judge, I killed her, I admit, So lead me forth to die." Both judge and jury arose en masse "Not Guilty!" was the cry.

LOCO WEED

He is the nicest man in school; but do you know who called him a nasty — D. R.

Gruner says this room stacking business is like the dry weather here — it happens all the time.

Mr. Sacks also had something to say about the same subject.

If Prof. Seder had heard the coyote chorus led by el Sr. Sobrecalle some others might have got to go to Santa Fe.

Oliver also is in Santa Fe this week.

Lost—from Cottage U, something that is greatly missed. It was imported from France and can't be duplicated in this country. Que es?

Talk about your Scruggs and Costins, but who is more devoted than "Bruther?"

Our friend from Cruces, Overpath, continues his popularity with the ladies and "other" social activities.

Bob Hopewell left the campus rather suddenly last Wednesday night. He probably heard a coyote howl. Ernie Hammond also disappeared without delay.

Fetz also has entered the ranks with the other Hokona gallants.

Notice Ed King's happy smile the last few days?

An extremely interesting serenade was given last week by four young species of wolves. Led by the star tenor, Mr. Overstreet, and the orator, Mr. Papin, this quartet entertained the ladies of Hokona, Phi Mu and Harris Manor. Said star tenor received much and lengthy applause with his "schooling of sing days" and his famous "Bullfrog" song.

Herbert Shelton wrote from box 85, Tulsa, Okla., that he is surprised that so many students are not acquainted with his old friend Oliver. He threatens to make known the identity of this gentleman, so we fear that some of our young ladies may find out the whopess of Oliver before we introduce him.

Friend Sacks compares the fellows waiting at the dining room each evening to a bunch of gallants at the side entrance of a stage. If looks are not deceiving, he ought to know.

"MEN THAT DON'T FIT IN."

There's a race of men that don't fit in,
A race that can't stay still,
So they break the hearts of kith and kin,

And roam the world at will.
They range the field and they rove the flood,

And they climb the mountain crest;
There's the curse of the gypsy blood,
And they don't know how to rest.

If they just went straight they might go far;

They are strong and brave and true;
But they are always tired of the things that are,

And they want the strong and new.
They say: "Could I find my proper groove,

What a deep mark I would make!"
So they chop and change, and each fresh move
Is only a fresh mistake.

And each forgets, as he strips and runs

With a brilliant fitful pace,
It's the steady, quiet, plodding ones
Who win in the lifelong race.

And each forgets that his youth has fled,
Forgets that his prime is past,
Till he stands with one with a hope

that's dead
In the glare of the truth at last.

He has failed, he has failed;
He has missed his chance;
He has just done things by half;

Life's been a jolly good joke on him,
And now is the time to laugh.
Ha, Ha! He is one of the Legion Lost;

He was never meant to win;
He's a rolling stone, and it's bred in the bone;

He's a man who won't fit in!
—Ex.

The Colorado School of Mines has cancelled the Thanksgiving game which was to have been played at Roswell against the New Mexico Military Institute. One of the reasons given is that the team will make a shorter trip and get a better game by playing Creighton university, at Omaha. "Better game" is correct. That team never had a chance against the flying squadron of tanks commanded by Captain "Hop" Lee. — State Record.

It isn't surprising that the football eleven of Georgia Tech is called the "wonder team." Guyon, one of the star halfbacks, is a New Mexico boy.
