DR. WINSHIP SPEAKS TO OUR STUDENTS

Noted Writer From Boston Delivers Interesting and Inspiring Address to Faculty and Students.

The students and faculty members of the University had the pleasure last Wednesday morning of listening to what was probably the most interesting lecture of the year. Dr. Winship, noted writer and speaker of Boston, Mass., who was one of the chief speakers at the teachers' convention at Santa Fe, was the talker and with "The University After the War" as his main theme he held the attention of all those who were fortunate enough to hear him. Dr. Winship is a most entertaining talker and is gifted with an abundance of wit and humor which together with his smooth style of speech keeps the attention of all who hear him.

In his talk Tuesday morning, Dr. Winship emphasized the difference between education and scholarship and illustrated his point by saying that any one with an education can write the plural of "tooth" or "cow," but to know why the plural is what it is, that is scholarship. He said: "Not one in a hundred know why the plural of cow is not cove but cows." A contrast was also given between brains and scholarship which was clearly illustrated by the story of the man who might have been janitor.

Dr. Winship was very emphatic on the point that this is and shall be even more so, a day of specialization and that this is the time when a man ought to be trained as he is best fitted and should not be forced to study certain subjects when there are others that he could use to a better advantage. In closing the speaker referred to the war and to its effect on places of learning stating that there will be great changes and that the entire world's history will be rewritten when this great war is over.

The University is fortunate indeed to be able to hear such men as Dr. Winship and appreciate very highly the message that he brought with him.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE TRIP.

The boys who went say:
That they didn't beat anybody but the news butch.
That Coach Wood is an authority on El Paso shows.
That "Mose" Harris brought back more money than he took.
That Romero had to go back and start from the depot before he could find his hotel.
That Sindeband is rapidly becoming "civilized."
That Mr. Garrett is a good sport.
That White's new "Safety Pin Rag" is quite a hit.
That "Fat" became so attached to the White Star-Cafeteria that it required a crowbar to pry him loose.
That George "broke away" from a "clinch" on the car steps at Cruces.
That "Tommy" Buckley had a "big time" with his Roswell friends.
That Senor Blanco's opera chorus rendered some of his original compositions with "stunning" effect coming out of "Paso" Saturday night.

Varsity Walked On By State Farmers

Thanksgiving Game at Cruces Proves Disastrous to U. N. M. Team—Score 110 to 3 in Favor of the Aggies.

In speaking of the Aggie-Institute game, the Round-Up stated that it had a sad, sad duty to perform, a sad, sad story to tell. If the Round-Up's story was a sad one, what is ours?

As most of you know, the Varsity was defeated 110 to 3, Thanksgiving day on the Las Cruces field. It was an awful trouncing, but we have one word to say in our boys' defense. It seems that the time keeper did not understand his watch or that said watch was broken, as a result of which the first quarter lasted 55 minutes, and the actual playing time was at least 35 minutes. Otherwise the score would not have been quite so large.

The score at the end of the first half was 81 to 0. It was during the third quarter that the Varsity picked up or the Aggies let up, or both. At any rate Cruces made only one touchdown that quarter, and Clark kicked a drop kick over the goal for us from the 35-yard line. Clark's kicking throughout the game was a feature.

We hate to dwell longer on this subject, but will say before passing on that Cruces has some team this year, despite what is said to the contrary, and that the Institute must rank in eastern class.

HEAD OF RHODES SCHOLARSHIP TRUST VISITS THE VARSITY

Dr. George R. Parkin, the secretary of the Rhodes scholarship trust, visited the University while in the city last week. Dr. Parkin has been traveling all over the United States, visiting the various state universities in the interest of the Rhodes scholarship. These scholarships are at the University of Oxford, in England.

At the present time very few are availing themselves of the opportunity of trying for this scholarship, and as a result, they are very badly disarranged. Dr. Parkin believes however that after the war the scholarships would regain their former value. He stated that there are now only about 300 students at Oxford. Many of the buildings are now being used as hospitals.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO BE ORGANIZED

A call has been issued by Miss Lena Fergusson, president of the Dramatic club, for a meeting to be held today at 12:30 in Rodey Hall. The purpose of this meeting is to elect officers and to decide just what the future status and work of the club will be. It will be remembered that last year the club gave the musical comedy "Go Ask Willie," written by Miss Hickey and Professor Seder. It is understood that plans are under way for something similar this year. Every student is a member of the dramatic club and should be at this meeting.

Varsity Makes Hit At Teachers' Meet

Booker Wins Oratorical Contest and Professor Seder and Chorus Acquit Themselves with Honor and Glory.

One of the most important events for us at the Teachers' convention in Santa Fe was the state oratorical contest, which was held Wednesday night. Harold Booker, with his oration on "New Mexico and the World War," took first place for the University. In commenting on Booker's speech, the Evening Herald said:

"The speaker won distinction for the University and for himself, with an oration masterful in thought, English and delivery."

Edmund Spencer of the N. M. M. I., was awarded second place with his oration, "Babushka." Frank Wimberly was third with an oration "America and the War."

The program for the contest was:
1. "America and the War," by Frank Wimberly.

2. "Babushka," Edmund Spencer.
3. "New Mexico and the World War," Harold Booker.

Music.
Decision of the judges.

Professor Seder and his grand opera chorus returned Wednesday night after three strenuous days spent in entertaining the teachers. Every number, from "You'll Somehow or Other Get Used to it," to the Sextette from Lucia, made a decided hit. Tuesday night they enlivened the guests at the banquet given that night, with University songs and popular songs, such as "Kaiser Bill Has Made His Will," and the like. They certainly let the teachers know that there was a State University.

RIFLE CLUB ORGANIZED.

The members of the U. N. M. Rifle Club met Monday noon and elected officers for the year. In addition to electing officers, the club laid plans for a shoot to take place Saturday on the Duke City Rifle range north of the University. The officers elected were: Professor A. W. Wand, president. Rex Craig, secretary. John Scruggs, treasurer. James E. Hoover, captain.

The admission fee is small, and every male student should avail himself of the opportunity to become thoroughly acquainted with the workings of an army rifle. A member will receive from 100 to 150 rounds to be used in practice. A little ability with an army rifle might be of use to some of us in the near future.

Peg Claiborne, former track star of the U. N. M., captured second place in a five-mile run held under the auspices of the Kansas City Athletic club, Kanass City, Mo. It will be remembered that Peg won the mile and two mile at the University of Arizona meet year before last, equaling the Rocky Mountain Conference record in the two mile, establishing a new record for the mile. Peg is now a sergeant at Camp Funston.

U. N. M. GIRLS WIN FROM A B C TEAM

First Scheduled Basketball Game of Season Results in Victory for 'Varsity—Katherine Angle Is Captain This Year.

Saturday afternoon the girls' basketball team opened its 1918 season by defeating the Business college, 10 to 7. The 'Varsity had the better of the game all the time, and at no time was the Business college ahead, although at times they came very close. The slipperiness of the floor slowed up the playing, and neither team was able to do its best.

Mrs. Hoffman as forward starred for the 'Varsity with three field goals and one foul throw. Katherine Angle was a close second in the scoring. Mitchell and Keene played well at center, and Dorothy Gibbs and Heinrich did their share at guards.

Helen Darrow started the second half at running center, but was forced to retire when she collided with another player and sustained a bruised eye.

Last week the team held an election and elected Katherine Angle captain. Katherine has had previous experience in basketball and will make good as captain; her playing Saturday showed that.

The University team lined up as follows:

Forwards: Angle and Hoffman; running center, Keene; jumping center, Mitchell; guards, Gibbs and Heinrich; substitute, Darrow for Keene.

The 'Varsity has another game scheduled with the Business college in the near future. No other games have been definitely scheduled, but it is likely that the girls will play an outside game or two this year.

DR. JAMES DELIVERS FIRST OF LECTURE SERIES

Noted Author and Lecturer Says New Mexico is a Land of Romance; is the "Land of the Delight Makers."

Monday night Dr. George Wharton James, noted author, lecturer and explorer, who is staying at the University, gave the first of a series of seven lectures which he is to give under the auspices of the University Women's club, and other organizations. The lecture was on New Mexico and its ancient peoples, as well as the Indians which inhabit it at the present time.

Dr. Boyd introduced the speaker. The speaker touched upon the history, custom and legends of the Indian tribes of this state, and illustrated his lecture with 100 stereopticon pictures. He described the cliff dwellers, the Indian art, the old missions of this state. In his speech Dr. James praised the University style of architecture.

The second lecture of the series was given Tuesday night and was entitled "The Founding of the Franciscan Mission."

Several 'Varsity students attended the convention at Santa Fe, among whom were Misses Ann Harris and Dorothy Ohmart.

THAT ANNUAL PLAY.

The call for a meeting of the Dramatic club, recalls to mind the fact that the University has been in the habit of giving an annual play. Last year the greatest success of all was scored with the musical comedy "Go Ask Willie," written by two members of the University faculty, Miss Ethel Hickey and Professor Seder, and staged by New Mexico students. It was entirely a University product.

It is understood that Miss Hickey is now working on a new play, also a musical comedy, to be given by the students. As yet Professor Seder has not been able to collaborate with her on the musical comedy, but it is expected that by the time the Dramatic club is organized and ready to stage a play, he will have done so.

If it is possible, let's put on another all-New Mexico show. We have with us now more talent for such a show than at any previous time. In fact it will be hard to choose a leading lady from the six singers of the grand opera chorus. All are good. We also have more material for a successful chorus than ever before. The male parts can be filled to satisfaction.

All that is necessary is the play. We know that we can get no better one than one from the pens of Miss Hickey and Professor Seder.

Our little football team journeyed to Las Cruces last Wednesday. The boys were beaten, badly beaten, but they took their beating like men. Overmatched, outweighed, and outclassed, with no hope of victory, it took real spirit to keep on fighting. Should those of us then who were not there, those of us who did not help in any way, should we throw it into "the men who bore the brunt? Shall we blame the team for doing their best when we did nothing? Should we not rather take the matter to heart and realize our share in the defeat, remembering the practices we did not attend and the encouragement we did not give. We had a little scrimmage with the Indians one day, for example, and the bleachers were filled—with high school students. This defeat was the fault of the entire school from the board of regents down to the smallest prep. We cannot win back this game, but there is going to be another game next year, and right now is the time to prepare to win that game, and not only that one but the next one and the next, until the memory of this defeat shall be wiped out by successive victories. It is possible to make a larger score than the one we were beaten by, and it should be our aim to realize on that possibility. There are two or three things which can be done right now to start the good work.

First, we can make the winning of next year's game our supreme aim, resolving now not to let any other activity, social, fraternal, or personal, interfere with the consummation of this purpose. What Prof. Worcester said about the team winning which wanted most to win is largely true. Let's start right now wanting to win. We can begin now an agitation for a physical director to take Hutch's place. If we are to have athletics we must have a paid coach, and the sooner we get him the better. The Aggies are already trying to make arrangements for a basketball game. If this man can be secured this year he will be able to get acquainted with conditions and men here, so that things may start with a snap next year.

And more important even than the securing of a coach is the securing of men. Again, let us begin now by doing everything possible to get more men to come to the Varsity. We can give the names of high school friends to the registrar and the News will be sent to them every month. We can talk U. N. M. in our home towns and spread the news around that it is the "Greatest Little School in the Southwest."

These are some of the things we can do toward beating the Aggies and at the same time we will be helping to build a greater University. Shall we do them? Let's do.

OFFICERS ARE HONOR GUESTS AT ASSEMBLY

Tuesday an assembly was held at 11 o'clock in Rodey Hall, at which time the Albuquerque boys who were commissioned at Leon Springs, were the guests of honor. Several of them were called upon to give some of their experiences.

The list of officers includes:
Glen L. Emmons, first lieutenant, infantry.

Desmond J. Farrel, second lieutenant, field artillery.

Joseph E. Goodell, second lieutenant, infantry.

Clark O. Noble, second lieutenant, aviation.

Frank M. Tierney, first lieutenant, infantry.

Louis G. Hesselden, second lieutenant, field artillery.

Frank H. Shuffelbarger, first lieutenant, coast artillery.

The main speaker was State Superintendent Jonathan H. Wagner, who is here to look over the University. Dr. Boyd was in charge.

The program was held too late to permit a detailed account, but this will be given next week.

Social Events

FOR U. N. M. OPERA CHORUS.

Dr. and Mrs. Boyd entertained in honor of the University Opera Chorus last Saturday evening. The affair was in the nature of a delightful dinner dance at the Country Club.

During the intermissions between dances musical games were played for which prizes were awarded to the winners. The lucky ones who received prizes were Miss Grace Stortz and Miss Florence Seder.

The guests of the occasion were: Misses Jimmie Standley, Grace Stortz, Estelle Harris, Hortense Switzer, Dorothy Macintosh, Adelaide Shields, Florence Seder and Miss Boyd; Messrs. Jimmie Wait, Jimmie Costin, Edward Christy, Guy Heslett, Williams, George Givan, Pryor Timmons, Prof. Seder.

PHI MU REUNION.

Over thirty Xi Chapter members of Phi Mu assembled at the fraternity house for the annual chapter reunion during the Thanksgiving holidays. The out of town girls who were the guests of the active chapter came down from Santa Fe for Thanksgiving day and the week end festivities.

Several social affairs were given in honor of the visiting fraternity girls. Mrs. Kenneth Balcomb gave a reunion tea at her home on University Heights on Thursday afternoon. Miss Louise Lowber entertained the visiting girls at a luncheon at her home Friday. This was followed by a tea given by Mrs. Edmund Ross and Mrs. Frank C. Pooler at the home of the latter.

Initiation was held at the fraternity house Friday night when Allie Atkinson, Dorothy Gibbs, Irene Davis, Helen Mayo and Maude Rodney were initiated.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. John F. Simms entertained in honor of the visiting Phi Mu at a tea dance at the Country Club.

The guests of the chapter during the reunion were: Annie Laurie Armstrong, Artesia; Mary Bright, Gallup; Ruth McKowen, Loving; Bernice Hamilton, Alice Holt, Tucumcari; and Lois Stearns, Santa Rosa.

IN HONOR OF MISS FLOURNOY.

Miss Margaret Flounoy, a former University student, now a faculty member of the Magdalena high school, was the house guest of Miss Hazel Hawkins and Miss Louise Bell during the holidays. Miss Flounoy was the honor guest at several affairs during her visit here.

Miss Hazel Hawkins gave a delightful afternoon party for the intimate friends of her house guest. On Friday Miss Katherine Little gave a knitting party. Sunday afternoon Miss Louise Bell was at home from three to six to the friends of Miss Flounoy.

Davis says that the fellows in the dorm came and stole "all" he had to eat, and then came back and took the rest of it.

Jewel Moore also had a box to disappear. Dawgs sure can eat a lot, anyway.

Even the Phi Mus had the misfortune to "lose" some eats. Bad neighbors sure are bad.

We sure were glad to have some of the old students back on the campus last week, especially the ladies. There is not as much class here as there might have been.

Oliver says times are not like the good old days. There were only two Varsity fellows at Honky Tonk last Saturday night.

(Speaking of Chestah): "He has the most beautiful mouth. It is adorable, the most kissable mouth I have ever seen." She does not live at Kokona. She is fairly good looking. She likes to be popular. She does not live down town. Who said it, Chest? Fickle; fickle; how fickle ye women be.

It is stated that the Allies' left is trying to move around Germany's right, but the German's right is also moving around the Allies' left. Now if the left of the German's right moves around the right of the Allies' left, then what is left of the German's right must be right where the Allies' left is, but if the German's right's left is right, where the Allies' left's right was right before the Allies' left, then the left is left right where the right was right, before the left's right left the right's left.—Ex.

An Irish soldier had lost an eye in battle, but was allowed to continue in the service on consenting to have a glass eye in its place, says an English paper. One day, however, he appeared on parade without his artificial eye.

"Nolan," said the officer, "you are not properly dressed. Why is your artificial eye not in its place?"

"Sure, sir," replied Nolan, "I left it in me box to keep an eye on me kit while I'm on parade."

DR. BOYD MAKES INSPIRING ADDRESS.

At Exercises Held Thanksgiving Day at the Catholic School, President Gives Wonderful Talk on Present Conflict.

At the Immaculate Conception school on Thursday, Dr. David R. Boyd delivered a talk on the conflict between hostile governmental ideas which is taking place at the present time. The main theme of Dr. Boyd's address was that this world cannot exist with two antagonistic systems of government. Either republics must perish or the idea of divine rule must be wiped out.

In his talk Dr. Boyd stated that we could not realize the best things in life until we had the experience of being deprived of them. He stated that the United States was the only country where a girl or boy was the right to life, liberty and happiness to them.

Dr. Boyd compared this country to a human body in one respect, that it must have healing forces from within to survive. He said that the main healing force within our government was that we were more permeable to ideas than any other people. He urged us to retain and increase this permeability.

Dr. Boyd then dwelled upon the fact that the present conflict in Europe is a conflict of two great opposite ideas of government—autocracy, or the imposing authority from above and without the individual, and democracy, where the origin and expression of power comes up from the people themselves. Dr. Boyd stated that just as the United States could not stand, a house divided against itself, in the civil war, so the world, connected as it is by the telegraph, etc., cannot exist with two antagonistic and hostile ideas of government.

In closing Dr. Boyd used the words of Major General Leonard Wood concerning the war: "We are not thinking about this war—we are not thinking right about this army; the army is only the edge, you have got to organize the whole nation if you go to war;" and stated that that is exactly what our government is now doing.

Miss Greenlee was in charge of the girls' dormitory during the absence of Miss Lathrop, who attended the teachers' convention at Santa Fe.

Lieutenant Glenn Emmons, U. S. R., has been a visitor on the hill several times this week.
