SPECTACULAR POPULARITY AND BEAUTY CONTEST TO BEGIN IN SEVERAL WEEKS

Mirage Staff Gives Out Details of Contest Which Will Surpass All Previous Attempts Along This Line.

Three weeks more and then—the Beauty and Popularity Contest. The management of the Mirage has set aside the week of December 1 to December 3 for the staging of this most frenzied of off-the-gridiron contests, and elaborate preparations and carefully designed plans have been made in order that the contest may be the biggest in the history of University annuals.

For the benefit of the uninitiated, it should be explained that the Beauty and Popularity Contest is an affair of the first magnitude, prompted and managed by the staff of The Mirage each year for the purpose of raising money and for advertising. The result, determined by the number of votes cast, is the election of the most beautiful girl and the most popular girl in the University. During the present year the contest must be a bigger and more successful one than ever before, because it is planned to put out a bigger and better Mirage than has hitherto been published, and a financially successful Beauty Contest is an indispensable component of those plans.

This year's Beauty and Popularity Contest will differ radically from the contests of previous years. In the first place, it is coming a great deal earlier, and, secondly, the votes are going to be sold. Here is the plan: On Wednesday, November 29th, the day before Thanksgiving, there will be nominated the names of the various candidates for the superlative honors which give the Contest its name. This may be done by placing in a specially prepared ballot box the name of the nominee or nominees, and after two or three days all but the four leading contestants will be eliminated.

Any number of contestants may be entered, but no one candidate may compete for both honors.

On Friday, December 1st, the Contest will begin in earnest. A booth or table will be placed in some prominent position, to be presided over each day of the contest by an enticing and impartial non-combatant. Votes will be sold for five cents apiece; that is, for ten cents one may have the privilege of casting one vote for his choice of the most beautiful University girl and one vote for the girl who, to him, is the most popular girl on the campus. Everybody can buy as many votes as possible, and anybody in the United States with a dime may buy a vote. Each night at four o'clock the names of the three or four leading contestants will be posted.

Considerable interest in the contest has been raised downtown, and the result is that various prizes have been offered to the winners in the two contests. For instance, Butts, Inc., are giving a big box of chocolates to the winners, and Rosenwald's are giving a prize, and the Emcee Studio and the local papers will give an entire page in their Sunday edition of December 2nd, to a write-up and pictures of the candidates. On Friday, the 8th, the last day of the Contest, the management of the Mirage plans to secure one of the downtown theaters for the evening, at which time the two winners will be announced from the stage.

This, in brief, is the Beauty and Popularity Contest as outlined, and it must go over big. A whole lot depends on this Contest. It is going to be "straight" from the beginning; the candidates receiving the most votes will be elected and that is all there is to it. For every vote sold the manager of the Mirage must account for a dime received to the Auditing Committee; neither the Editor or the Manager will have any hand in the outcome, a fact which has not been true in previous years. The Manager, Roy Hickman, and the Editor, Walter Brown, are giving everything they have for the success of this year's Mirage, but in the main that success depends upon and lies with the students of the University. Begin playing the game by talking up and backing up the Beauty Contest; George Martin and Walter Berger are the men who are going to have the Contest directly in charge. Co-operate, advertise, boost—all the time!

OUTLOOK FOR U. N. M. BASKETBALL TEAM IS EXCELLENT

Inter-Organization Play Will Probably Start Early in December with 5 Teams.

With the football season drawing to a close, a great deal of interest in basketball is beginning to be manifested on the hill. The University boasts far more basketball talent this year than it has ever had for some little time at least and if it will be in anyway possible to have a Varsity basketball season this year, the chances for the Lobo basketball team to make a killing this year are very bright indeed. With practically the entire team which played Arizona in the only two games of the season last year back in school and with the addition of a wealth of new material U. N. M. should be able to put a very creditable aggregation in the field. It will be remembered that Arizona which boasted one of the best teams in the Southwest, was forced to the limit in the second game of the series in order to beat the Lobos.

Some men have already begun practicing in prospect of an inter-organization series before the regular Varsity season begins. It is probable that a cup for the winning team will be offered as was done last year. The following organizations have announced their intention of entering teams in the race, with many promising players filling the various positions.

Coyote Club: Center, Cunningham; Forwards, Brown, C. and Stephens; Guards, Aitkenhead, McDonald, Broder, and Grenko.

Alpha Delta: Center, Venable; Forwards, Bryan, Wilkinson, and Huffine; Guards, Brown, A. Doty, and Greenleaf.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Center, Bunn; Forwards, Jones and Hammond; Guards, Dow, Scarborough and Wilfley.

Downtown Men: Center, Hyder, Forwards, L. Hernandez, Horgan and Carter; Guards, W. Hernandez, Eldred Harrington and Edwin Harrington.

Sigma Chi: Centers, Benjamin and Betts, Forwards, Cantelou, Miller, and Wilkinson; Guards, Stowell, Wagner, Boan, Hopkins, Thompson and Berger.

In all probability, active work on basketball will begin soon after the close of the regular football season and the famous performance, the annual Yannigan-Hooligan game.

VARSITY TO HAVE A NEW WOMEN'S RESI- DENTIAL HALL

Dr. Hill Makes Announcement of Decision of Board of Regents

By an announcement made early this week by President Hill, another addition to the buildings of the State University will soon be made. This means one more step toward the realization of the larger Varsity campaign.

Erection of a new residential hall for women on the campus will begin at once, according to the announcement. So great has been the growth of the University this fall that it was impossible to house all the non-resident women students in the present dormitory, even with the new addition, with the result that many of the upper classwomen have been compelled to find residence in authorized public homes.

Confronted by this problem of furnishing additional housing accommodations, the Board of Regents met last Friday, and voted to erect the new building, which will be paid for without special appropriation and will make no deficit in the funds of the institution. The approval of Governor Mechem was given Monday, and bids for construction will be asked for in a few days.

The building, which will probably be placed adjoining the present dormitory, will conform to the present Pueblo style of architecture in which the other buildings on the campus are built, and will be large enough to accommodate the needs of the University for some time.

Dean and Mrs. Mitchell will be at home to the Seniors of the College of Arts and Sciences, Sunday afternoon, from three to six.

LOBOS POINTING FOR GAMES WITH WILDCATS AND AGGIES

Coach Johnson Putting His Gridsters Through Hardest Practice of This Season.

With the two most coveted victories of the year at stake, the Lobos are preparing in deadly earnest for the coming game with Arizona and the New Mexico Aggies, on November 18, and 30, respectively.

Realizing that the Wildcat strength, which made them formidable opponents last year, even for the vaunted Centre College gridsters, is still present this year, and that the Aggies, who held the Wildcats, 7 to 7 the first half, then lost, 21 to 7, largely by having the breaks go against them, are more powerful than ever this year, Coach Johnson is putting the Lobos through a course of intensive training that makes anything they have done so far this season appear tame in comparison. Blocking and tackling, and falling on the ball are taking up a good bit of the practice periods, and in scrimmage, the second string backs are using some of Arizona's favorite plays, in order that the Lobo defense against them may be perfected.

From present indications, the Lobos will enter the Wildcat game without Pearce and Greenleaf, who have not recovered from injuries received in the Texas Miner game. Barring further injury to his weak knee, Captain John Popejoy will face the Wildcat in his first game of the season, a fact that goes a long way toward compensating for the loss of Pearce and Greenleaf from the line. The Lobo backfield is in good condition, and should all Lobo backs survive the next week of more than strenuous training, without injury, the Lobo scoring machine should be in good working order against the Wildcats.

RESUME OF THE WEEK'S RESULTS IN FOOTBALL WORLD

Though football in the past week was considerably overshadowed by election activities, there was considerable interest in the results. The leading features of the week's play were probably the defeat of Nebraska by Sprague, and Washington and Jefferson's triumph over Lafayette. Both were quite decided upsets of the dope. Nebraska, perhaps too confident was favored for an easy win over Syracuse which had already lost this season, but the Easterners swept through the Cornhuskers in the last period of the game for a touchdown and victory—9 to 6. At New York, Lafayette, rated as one of the strongest teams in the East, after leading W. and J. at the end of the first half, 13 to 0, bowed before the Presidents' assault and lost, 14 to 13. It was a wonderful game. In other games in the East, Navy, coming back from their disastrous defeat by University of Pennsylvania, defeated Penn State for the first

LOBOS SCORE ANOTHER CLEAN- CUT VICTORY, OUTPLAYING WEST TEXAS BUFFALOS

In Spite of Wet and Slippery Field, Varsity Displays Best Football of Season; Jones and Hernandez Show Up Well.

Playing the best football they have displayed all season, in spite of a heavy field, covered with snow, with slippery mud beneath, the Lobos triumphed over the West Texas Normal Buffaloes last Saturday, to the tune of 12 to 0.

The Buffaloes lived up to expectations, and played clean, hard football throughout the game, especially defensively, holding the faster Lobos from scoring several times when a Lobo touchdown seemed inevitable, and once in a while uncorking an offensive that promised to make things interesting, but at no time seriously endangering the Lobo goal. The Lobos took the offensive the greater part of the time, and, but for the heavy condition of the field, would probably have scored a great deal more than they did. Lobo touchdowns came, one in the first quarter, and one in the last quarter, the first made by Jones on a fifteen yard run around right end, following a thirty yard dash around the left wing, with almost perfect interference, and the second coming late in the last quarter, when Walter Hernandez carried the ball over on a line buck, after a series of short-end runs and line plunges had placed the ball but a yard from the Buffalo goal. Twice in the last quarter, preceding the final touchdown, the Lobos had the ball almost over the Buffalo goal line, but lacked the final punch to put it across, and the Buffaloes put out of immediate danger, only to have the Lobos bring the ball right back within striking distance.

Only once did the Buffaloes make a noise like a touchdown, when Golden skirted right end for twenty-five yards, then tried the other wing for ten more, in the third quarter, followed by a ten yard penalty against the Lobos for roughing, and after unsuccessful attempts to gain through the line, a forward pass was completed on the Lobo fifteen yard line, but the Buffaloes lost the ball on downs.

Features of the game were, the work of Jones in skirting the ends, the line plunges of Popejoy and Hernandez, and the splendid interference given the man with the ball, as well as the stonewall defense put up by the Lobo forward wall, which the Buffalo backs found it almost impossible to penetrate. The expected Buffalo aerial attack did not materialize into anything very formidable, the Lobos gaining far more yardage by the overhead route than did the visitors although a lateral pass, followed by a long forward pass early in the second quarter, would have netted the Buffaloes a fifty yard gain, but for the fact that the passer was not five yards back of the line of scrimmage. Golden, left half and Henry, left end, were the outstanding performers for the Buffaloes.

The game was an exceptionally clean one throughout, with but one penalty in the entire game, and the Buffaloes, in their first visit to Albuquerque, established a reputation as clean, hard playing sportsmen, and worthy opponents for the Lobos.

Summary of the Game

First Quarter

Jones kicked off for the Lobos to the Buffalo 30-yard line, and tackled Graves almost in his tracks. A Buffalo back hit the line for no gain, another made four yards through right tackle, and a fumble gave the ball to the Lobos.

Jones made two yards around right end, and Popejoy failed to gain around left end. Jones hit left tackle for two yards and took time out to recover wind knocked out of him. Popejoy failed to gain around left end, and the ball went to the Buffaloes.

Golden was thrown for a two-yard loss, and Graves kicked on the next down to Hartman on the Lobo 15-yard line, who was thrown almost in his tracks. Hernandez failed to gain through the line, and Jones skirted right end for eight yards. Hartman bucked the center of the line, but failed to gain. Hernandez battered left tackle for two yards, then failed to a try at the center of the line. Jones made two yards off right tackle for five yards then kicked to the Buffalo 35-yard line, where the receiver was downed in his tracks.

Durson failed to gain through the line, and Stewart was stopped by Louis Hernandez on an attempt around right end. Graves punted to Hartman on the Lobo 40-yard line, and he ran it back twenty-five yards. Jones skirted left end with almost perfect interference for thirty yards. Hartman hit the center of the line twice for a yard or two, then Jones sped around right end for fifteen yards and a touchdown, at the end of ten and a half minutes of play, but failed to kick goal.

Graves kicked to Walter Hernandez who ran the ball back ten yards from the Lobo 30-yard line. Varsity took time out for Greuter, who was badly battered, but stayed in. Jones made two yards through left tackle, and a pass, Jones to Walter Hernandez, was good for 15 yards, but was not allowed, because the referee ruled that Jones was tackled before he threw the pass. Jones was thrown for a three-yard loss on a wing shift, then kicked out of bounds on the Buffalo 40-yard line just as the whistle blew for the quarter. The quarter ended with the ball in Canyon's possession on their 40-yard line, and the score 6 to 0 in favor of the Lobos.

Second Quarter

Burson hit left tackle for no gain, and Golden tried the same place to be thrown for a loss. The Buffaloes then tried a lateral pass, followed by a forward pass, which would have been good for yards, but for the fact that the passer was not five yards back of the line of scrimmage. Graves punted 20 yards.

Hernandez failed to gain through the line, and Popejoy went off right tackle for six yards, then Jones skirted right end for 12 more. Popejoy ran out of bounds in an attempt over right tackle, and Jones was thrown for a two-yard loss around left end. A Lobo pass was incomplete, and Jones punted out of bounds on the Buffalo 30-yard line.

Stewart lost two yards on an attempt through left tackle, Burson failed to gain through the line, and a forward pass was incomplete, forcing Graves to punt to Hartman on his 30-yard line.

Popejoy made two yards through left tackle, and Hernandez hit right tackle for two more. Hartman sneaked through center for two yards, and Jones added six more around right end. Hernandez bucked the line for five yards, and Jones started around left end, then cut back around right end for an eight-yard gain. Hernandez made three yards off left guard, and the Buffaloes took time out for Sanders. Jones squeezed through the line for two yards. Stinnett was taken out at right guard for the Lobos, Ferguson shifting to guard from tackle, and Greenleaf going in at right tackle. Jones made three more yards through left tackle, and Canyon took time out for Sanders who was taken out, and Thompson sent in to replace him. Jones was pulled down behind the line of scrimmage in an attempt

LOCALS

Miss Helene Jackson, who has been a student of the University was forced to leave school on account of illness and departed Tuesday evening for her home. Miss Jackson, who is a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority and president of the Dramatic Club was very popular and will be sincerely missed by her many friends. It is very probable, however, that if her health permits, she will return next semester.

Yale Raymond, who enrolled in the University this year was forced to drop out recently on account of ill health. He is still in the city with his parents. Raymond was a pledge to the Sigma Chi Fraternity.

The many friends of Gordon Kinney will be grieved to know that his younger sister, Margaret, passed away Tuesday, November 6. Miss Kinney was a charming young lady and her death is a distinct shock to all who knew her.

Doctor Clark has been incapacitated recently by a severe cold during the past week.

The heavy snowfall of last Friday night played a great deal of havoc with the trees on the campus, because of its wet, clinging nature, breaking off many branches, and giving the caretakers a good sized job of pruning to do.

Tommie Thompson, the college aviator, while returning from a trip to Gallup last Friday, ran into a storm about ten miles west of Grants and encountered such a stiff wind that he was neither able to make headway against it nor to land in the face of it, and was forced to turn tail to the wind before he could land. Upon landing, he anchored his plane to a fence with a great deal of difficulty, and became a humble pedestrian for the ten miles or so that separated him from Grants. Returning to his ship Saturday morning, he found that Friday night's frigid norther had frozen his engine solid, in spite of the fact that the radiator contained a gallon of the choicest alcohol. When Tommie wishes to see the city now, he charts a taxi.

In line with the policy of the University in rendering the greatest possible service, is the announcement that a number of extension courses will be commenced next week, and will continue, one lecture a week, for ten weeks. These courses are open to all adults upon payment of the registration fee of two dollars and a half, and consist of the following: Home Economics for Housewives, Mrs. Walter Simpson, Platonian Influence in Literature and Thought, George Hubbell, M. A., Ph. D.; Educational Hygiene, Katherine McCromick, B. S., M. A.; Child Psychology, Benjamin F. Haight, M. A., Ph. D.; Radio Communication, Charles E. Carey, B. S., E. E.; Journalism, Marion L. Fox, A. B., LL. B.; Salesmanship, Charles M. Barber, Ph. B.

Last Tuesday the Senior class held a short meeting to discuss various matters relating to class affairs. The principal item of business was to arrange for the taking of the Senior pictures for this year's Mirage. It is hoped to have completed that part of the work by the end of the week.

CO-ED REFLECTIONS

We understand that some one took offense last week from an innocent remark—Isn't it funny how people get insulted if a random shot strikes home.

A man (even an athlete) cheerfully break a girl's heart and then is surprised and even insulted when she refuses to take the pieces back.

It seems a pledge was inspired to bestow a public kiss during a dance at the Country Club—wonder who inspiration the actives will offer.

It isn't necessary to add a course in vamping to the curriculum—there seem to be several, both male and female, who are adepts at that gentle art.

A girl has only to pucker her lips and make a queer kind of noise and both dogs and men come rushing to her.

From rumors of the election last Tuesday, there must be several immature politicians on the campus—political bosses in the making.

We suggest that someone institute a search for Varsity Spirit.

It isn't strange that we've won the last two foot ball games—the mere thought of 260 pounds compressing you to the smallest possible space is enough to strike fear and trembling into anyone's heart.

Wonder why so many of the prods have lost track of time this week. One of them tried to tell his class that Wednesday was Friday, and another wasn't quite certain whether it was Tuesday or Saturday.

Some of these supposedly engaged fellows on the campus seem unable to resist other feminine wiles.

Correct this sentence, "No, said the Co-ed flapper, "I never wear rolled stockings—it is too immodest."

The only searchers that we have in this school aren't searchers for academic learning—and they're pretty assiduous about it, too.

GRID DOPE

One of the girls remarked that Rayzor, left guard on the Buffalo eleven, was a keen lineman. Last year the Buffaloes boasted an end, named Lemmons. Wonder what the girls would have to say about him.

The Lobo intercession last Saturday was a thing of joy, and by far the best that has been displayed all season.

Pearce and Greenleaf will be missed from the Lobo lineup which confronts the Wildcats, a week from tomorrow.

The presence of Captain John Popejoy on the field is putting more pep in practice. Barring further injury to his knee, Popejoy will play in the Arizona game, his first game of the season.

The Canyon Buffaloes lived up to their reputation as clean, hard fighters. The Lobos want to meet them again.

A remarkable feature of Saturday's game was the fact that only one penalty was called during the whole game.

"Wildcats Meet Lobos." If names mean anything the atmosphere around Tucson should be filled with blood and hair next Saturday.

ADVICE TO FRESHMAN.

One of life's most piquant pleasures is flirting but it must be done with great discretion and finesse. A young lady who is considering this eternal pastime seriously is at once confronted by several difficult problems.

First—Are earrings and a lipstick more effective and efficient with the average victim than curls and dotted swiss? (Of course after a short time the beginner will find that various cases require especial care and treatment but the fundamental principle is the same throughout.)

Second—Is coldness or encouragement the better plan?

Third—Which sort of male is more worth the trouble?

Having once settled these momentous questions it is only necessary to segregate the subject and elude all watchful competitors. If things move too swiftly for the amateur—that is, if the victim responds too readily—it is sufficient for the first type to look haughty and smile and the second to be shocked and weep. As for further information you are referred to the famous teacher—Experience.

HA! HA! HA!

"Alas," wails the penniless freshman, "What is college but a delusion and a snare?—If you don't get flunked, you get shifted."

It has been our experience that it is better to have loved and lost than never to have loved at all.

Visitor, last Friday—"I thought that the Insane Asylum was in Las Vegas."

Prof. Hubbell—"That's a studious young lady. She wrote notes all through the lecture."

Walter—"Yes, I got one of them myself."

time in three years by a score of 13 to 0, while University of Pennsylvania was beaten by the University of Alabama, an inferior team, Harvard won easily over the U. of Florida, while Yale swept over Brown.

In the Middle West, Wisconsin upset her old rival, Minnesota, 14 to 0, and pretty definitely eliminated the latter from the race for the Big Ten Conference title. Northwestern yielded to Illinois at Champaign, 6 to 3. Most of the other Big Ten teams played outside games. In the Missouri Valley, Drake took the lead though Nebraska and Kansas Aggies still are in the race for first place.

In the Rocky Mountain district, the University of Colorado team decidedly upset the dope by defeating the Colorado Aggies, rated as one of the probable championship contenders, by a score of seven to nothing, on a run from kick off in the first minute of play. Thereafter neither team scored at all. University of Utah took Colorado College into camp, while Deaver University was forced to the limit to beat Wyoming struggling to get away from last place in the Conference.

On the Coast, the University of California went a step nearer to the championship by running away from the much-touted Washington State eleven by a score of 61 to 0. Arizona came back this week to beat the New Mexico Aggies after losing two games to Coast teams. The Aggies held the Wildcats to a 7 to 7 tie at the end of the first half but in the second period, the Arizona team walked through the New Mexico team for two more touchdowns, making the score 21 to 0.

Organized football in the Middle West has been considerably upset
