VARSIITY SMOTHERS TEXAS MINERS

VARSIITY WINS WELL FOUGHT GAME BY SCORE OF 57 TO 13

Last Saturday the varsity eleven sprung the grid-iron sensation of the season in El Paso by smothering the Texas School of Mines by the top heavy score of 57 to 13.

Had the ore-diggers been able to see through some of the intricate plays of the Cherry and Silver team the score would have probably evened up some.

The large crowd of yelling fans thronging the El Paso high school stadium saw one of the greatest football fights ever staged in these parts. They saw exciting situations from the beginning of the game too—no, not the end because, the end was played in the dark. Long runs by the Mann brothers, two touchdowns through a scattered field. Beautiful forward passes by Aydelotte, the kind which set the miners mental machinery to slipping. Gerphiede's hole-pickig is yet an unsolved mystery to them.

It was the first battle in the athletic history of the schools and several pounds per man, they couldn't seem to hold onto the pig-skin. The varsity's victory was decisive and their superiority was evident at all times.

Bennett of the miners, falling on the ball in the end zone after varsity kicks from the five yard line were blocked, was responsible for both of their scores.

Game by Quarters.

The varsity won the toss and M. Rogers kicked to the miners. A few minutes later C. Mann made the first touchdown after a run around the miner's end. Grant Mann punted but the ball was fozzled after the kick-off, C. Mann recovering the ball from the miners who fumbled it on the twenty-five yard ine. A fake pass play and Mann went over for another touchdown. Claude failed to kick goal. Toward the end of the first quarter Grant Mann went over for the third touchdown and the goal was kicked.

Second Quarter.

In the second quarter, Gerphiede broke up a forward pass of the miners, Greenleaf caught the ball before it touched the ground and made a ten yard gain. Later the varsity booted to the center of the field. The miners team kicked back, the ball going out on the five yard line. Tubby's kick was blocked by the ore-diggers and Bennett fell on it causing their first touchdown. They failed to convert. After a series of line plunges and end runs the varsity lost the ball on the three yard line. Later Sganzzini made twenty yard gain with the pellet. Aydelotte shot a 25-yard pass to M. Rogers who

JUNIORS ELECT

OFFICERS' FRIDAY

At a meeting of the Junior class held Friday at 12:30, Rex Craig was elected president, Katherine Shotwell vice president, Frank Steed secretary-treasurer, and Mayme Hart Student Council representative. This is the last class election to be held this quarter, as the Freshman do not choose their officers until January.

Nineteen members of the class were present, and with such a large class it was decided to give a "Junior Prom" this year.

GENTRY WINNER IN

ORATORICAL TRY-OUT

In the oratorical try-out which was held in Rodey hall last Wednesday afternoon, the judges after deliberating for thirty-five minutes on the merits of the respective speakers, awarded George V. Gentry first place, with Clyde Morris and Thomas Calkins close seconds.

The subject of Mr. Gentry's oration was "Democracy," and showed much thought and care in construction. One of the judges spoke of it as almost a masterpiece.

The judges on delivery were: Professors Hodgins, Landers, and Hiskey; on thought, Professors Hill, Sherwin, and Oakley.

As a result of winning in the try-out, Mr. Gentry will represent the university in the inter-collegiate oratorical contest Thanksgiving week. This contest will be held in the Presbyterian church on November 26 at eight p. m. The colleges contesting will probably be varsity, Roswell, and Cruces; and the battle of expressive words, careful construction and masterly thought promises to be interesting indeed. Beyond a doubt Mr. Gentry will represent the university ably and creditably, and he deserves the hearty support of every student of the U. N. M. in the contest.

WOMEN'S BASKET BALL

Prospects for a State Championship Team Are Bright.

U. N. M. is going to have a championship girls' basket ball team this year!

At the first practice of the season a large number of feminine basket ball enthusiasts turned out, and prospects for a strong team are bright.

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Wittenmeyer the girls will soon be rounded into a good representative

VARSIITY TO DEBATE THIS YEAR

Public Spaking Society Organized Last Thursday.

Last Thursday at a meeting of the prospective debators and speakers of the university, it was unanimously agreed to organize a public speaking society and start things to moving at once.

With the university reorganizing along all lines this year, and meeting with great success in all its endeavors, it was agreed that the time was ripe for a public speaking society of some form or other, and with many of the old men back in school to serve as a nucleus, the new society promises to be a success. Many Freshmen showed themselves true supporters of the university by being present at the meeting and declaring their utmost co-operation, and as many of them have had experience in high school, interesting contests will no doubt be held.

The new society plans to have programs every week or two, which, while not being masterpieces, will be interesting and of a helpful nature to the participants. Several teams within the university will be organized to engage in battles of words, and in the spring after the inter-collegiate debates are over, speaking contests of all kinds and descriptions will be held, suitable prizes being offered to the best speakers.

While it is not planned to make debating the sole form of speaking in the society, yet it must necessarily be the chief sport for many weeks owing to debates in the near future with other schools. The chances for

GRACIAS.

We wish to thank the people of the university who are favoring the Weekly with contributions and items of various kinds. They are showing themselves to be true friends of our school paper. One professor especially deserves our thanks—we recognize the fact that we must not become too personal in our remarks, but this professor without any ado about is one of the mainstays of the university.

That he reads the Weekly and that he is willing to help it along is shown by the fact that when he finds anything in his department which he thinks would be "newsy," he very kindly makes a note of it and puts it in the Weekly's box.

We wonder if some of the other professors would be kind enough to favor the Weekly with some of their choice bits.

DISJOINTED CON-NECTED FOOTBALL

We went, we saw, we conquered.
That seems to be what the varsity did when it went to El Paso last Saturday to play the Texas miners. The varsity put up a strong game, and showed the result of hard work and thorough training. And this brings us to the point in question: What have we as individual students done to help the team along?

We do not even have a cheer leader, but rely on the initiative of one or two men to do everything. There seems to be a spirit of, "Oh yes, that's a fine idea, and should be carried thru by all means, but let the other fellow do it." But did you ever see a school with such a spirit do anything great? The most urgent need of this university at the present time in all its activities is cooperation and willingness on the part of everyone to do all he can to help the school.

What will be your part?

On Thanksgiving afternoon the U.
N. M. will play its old rival, the Aggies, and there is every prospect of the game being one of the hardest fought ever played on the varsity field. The football team is going to do its full share, but what about the student body?

The success of our team lies with the varsity as truly as with the football men themselves. They must have support from the bleachers.

HOW ABOUT IT?

This is the eighth week of school, and grade time is here again. Owing to some inside information, which editors always have, we predict some "wailing and gnashing of teeth" when the reports are out. Whose fault is it that you—if it be you—are on the verge of failure? Yours, and yours alone. The lessons have been assigned and the work required, made plain, and you have failed to "deliver the goods." Little niceties to the teacher, rushing up to him after the lesson for private chats, etc., etc., won't work with these teachers; they see thru your bluff just the same. Nothing will satisfy them but the honest-to-goodness work. The teacher who can be hoodwinked into giving good grades undeservedly isn't worthy of his position, and you know it. The only thing to do is to go to work, learn how to think if you don't know how, concentrate your mind on the lesson and let the outside things go for us more people still will have humble editor and see if you don't have a clearer conscience next month as well as a better report to hand to your parents. How about it?

PUSH.

Did you ever try to roll a big stone uphill? And isn't it hard work if there are only a few men to push?
And isn't it discouraging if some one pushes down while you try to push up? And wouldn't it be easier if the wellwishers who stand idly on the side would lend a hand and not leave the job to "the other fellow"?

This is about the situation that the proposed literary society finds itself in; that there are workers and well-wishers of the movement cannot be denied, but they are too few.
We recognize the fact that we are badly handicapped by not having a department of public speaking in the university, but we can make our requests for this department stronger if we will back them up by a live literary society. We have a contract for a yearly debate with Cruces, and Cruces is ever willing and ready to fulfill her part of the agreement; but what about the U. N. M.? Cruces has a department of public speaking, with a strong man at its head to push it along, and ye editor can vouch for the "pep" in this department at Cruces by the spirit that was displayed in our last annual debate.

With no organization here, and no coach, what would be our chance against Cruces this year? You wouldn't expect the football team to win without practice and without a coach, and debating is as much a battle as is football; both different, yet similar.

Give the new literary society your aid. PUSH UP!

Please do not think the editor is on a grouch this week. He has just had some "tips."

men departed most dutifully, and the young ladies proceeded to enjoy a "slumberless party."

Those present were Misses Rogers, Fallis, Parker, Miller, MacArthur, strong teams this year are excellent.

Among the old standbys of the university we find Booker who won the State Oratorical Contest in 1917, and was selected on the team against Arizona in the spring of 1918; Gallagher, who was also on the team against Arizona in 1918; Gentry, who was a member of two teams last year, one against Cruces, the other against Texas; Richardson, who was on the team against Cruces in 1916; and Morris, who has been a member of three varsity teams, one against Cruces in 1917, one against Cruces last year, and one against Texas also held last year. With such men as these and the new material available, the university teams if properly coached should be able to hold their own with those of any other institution.

team. Mrs. Wittenmyer coached the champion New Trier basket ball team who for three years were undefeated.
A schedule is being arranged to include games with Las Cruces, Normal School at Silver City, Normal at Las Vegas and probably a game with the University of Arizona.

A few of last years veterans have reported for practice: Dorothy Stephenson, Flora Chess, Katherine Angle all of last year's team will perhaps form the nucleus of the team this season. Blanche Gouley promises to be an excellent jumping center. Helen Nelson, B. Breeden, and Mary Von Nyvneheim are strong players of previous experience.

Girls signed up for practice are:
D. Stephenson, H. Nelson, F. Branson, B. Gouley, B. Breeden, F. O'- Hara, P. Frasier, H. Melvaine, N.
Smith, K. Angle, M. Von Nyvneheim, M. Brooks, N. Rasmus, L. Sherwood, D. Cameron, A. Embry, F. Chess, E.
Latamore, and Miss Grigsby.

Everyone will remember what Coach McGough told the student body just before the Colorado game, and each of us recognized the truth of his statements. We had not been organized into cheering sections, knew practically no yells, and were totally unprepared. Under the circumstances we did the best we could, but we want to do better in the game Thanksgiving Day. How can we do this?

Some of the pressing needs for the game are:

Three live yell leaders, a number of new yells, and general practice on them; individual advertising of the game, both on the hill and in town; backing up the team whole-heartedly with your encouragement and interest now, an dat the game by your presence and lots of enthusiasm.

Coach McKale of Arizona University at Tuscon was on the side-lines picking out the all-star southwestern football team.

According to rumors several of the U. N. M. football stars are picked for the all-southwestern. Here's hopes.

The University team gained in all 652 yards to the miner's 52 yards.

El Paso High School rooting section and soldiers from nearby camps rooted for the U. N. M. football team Saturday.

The El Paso Miner's team outweighed the Varsity team twenty pounds per man.

There will be a new set of eligibility rules adopted for the football teams for next year. A change is needed.

A number of Aggie players were in the bleachers trying to get a line on the Varsity team.

Ten days more until the big game of the season. Every one should be preparing for it right now.

ran 25 yards and a touchdown. C. Mann kicked goal. The first half ended with the ball in the middle of the field.

Third Quarter.

The miners kicked off to Aydelotte who carried the ball back to the 20-yard line. The miners recovered a fumble and kicked. Soon afterwards Grant Mann made the most sensational play of the day when he broke thru the right tackle and ran for 60 yards and a touchdown. The run was possible only by the spectacular interference given by Claude and Gerpheide, who copped off two of the speediest men of the Texas team. Claude kicked the goal. Later in the quarter Gerpheide went over for another touchdown breaking through the miner's center. Tubby failed to convert. The miners kicked and the varsity was held near their own goal. Tubby's kick was blocked and Bennett of the miners fell on the ball for a touchdown. The score was converted.

Fourth Quarter.

The last quarter was played in the dark and the players were unable for the greater part of the time to follow the ball. Gerpheide made two touchdowns after two spectacular runs. The game was called before the time was up on account of darkness.

The final scores was 57 to 13 in favor of the varsity. Taking all in all the game was well fought, the

LOCALS.

The Kwataka Kiyote Klub staged another initiation Saturday night, and several "whelps" received a thorough "examination," the vocal and oratorical tests furnishing entertainment for most of the residents on the hill. After the emamination, those found eligible were initiated.

The following men were observed carrying pillows Sunday morning: Gratham, McIntosh, Zweifel, Davenport, Pearce, Cartwright, Ward, Whittier, Hayes and Wilfley.

Clair Fetzer, a former varsity man who has been working since returning from France, registered last week for work in engineering, and is living at Kwataka.

There were not quite three and one-half columns of fine "boost dope" in the Sunday edition of the El Paso Morning Times devoted to the Varsity-Miners game. The Sunday edition of the Albuquerque Morning Journal devoted at least two inches of its valuable space to the University's big victory. "There's a Reason,"—but what is it?

Among the varsity supporters who had the pleasure of witnessing the massacre of the Texas Miners, Saturday, were Bruno Dieckmann, Chet Boldt, Jackson Harris, Lloyd Kellam, Elmore Reynolds, Clarence Grunsfeld, George Henson, Bob and Willard Hopewell.

John Fernstrom, who has been out of school for a couple of weeks on account of illness is still in the hospital, and likely will not be able to get back in school before next quarter.

miners fighting hard and the varsity showing the efforts of Coach McGough who is to be congratulated on the success of his team.
