VARSIITY WALLOPS AGGIES

FAST VARSITY ELEVEN TOO MUCH FOR AGGIES

FINAL SCORE 24-2 THOUGH WEATHER WAS SEVERE, A LARGE CROWD WITNESSED GAME

In the most spectacular game of the season, U. N. M.'s undefeated gridiron squad walloped the New Mexico Agricultural College team in their annual football classic on Thanksgiving Day by a score of 24 to 2.

Coach McGough's invincibles administered the white-wash in such a manner that elicited heartfelt sympathy from all those present, even

Varsity kicked. Aggies brought the ball back down the field and punted to Varsity's goal line. Varsity fumbled ball and was forced to make a touchback, the only score the Aggies made in the entire game. Varsity made downs twice in succession, punted, recovered the ball and took it down to Aggies 20 yard line

MARY SANDS WINS SECOND IN DECLAMATION

In one of the best inter-collegiate speaking contests ever heard in Albuquerque held Wednesday night, November 26th, George V. Gentry of the University won first place in the oratorical contest. Competing with him were two contestants from the State Normal, and Roswell Military Institute, the former winning second place and the latter third.

At the same time Mary Sands of the University won second place in the College Declamatory Contest, the State Normal winning first and the Normal University third.

Both contests were won by only narrow margins, and although the number of people present was small, yet the spirit was good and everyone felt a keen interest in the speeches. Mr. Gentry's subject was "True Democracy," which was ably handled by the speaker. He traced the growth of democracy from the earliest times to present-day periods, taking up the problems of today in the in-from the visiting teachers who braved the icy blasts of the storm to see the state football supremacy settled.

The weather was far from being ideal for football. The hard wind made passing the ball hazardous; the thermometer was hovering about the freezing point, but in spite of this a large number of football enthusiasts turned out to witness the Varsity clinch the title.

The Aggies put up a game fight but were out played on straight football. Out-weighting the Varsity team by twenty pounds per man, they did not tear thru the line as was predicted. At first it seemed that the Aggie team was going to sweep thru the Varsity and in the first five minutes of play, rushed the ball down to the Varsity goal and scored a touch back. In the second half the Silver and Red was on the aggressive most of the time and its scoring machinery was in working order.

VARSIITY Y. W. C. A.

Membership Campaign Successful. Much Enthusiasm Manifested.

The Y. W. C. A. at the University has been exhibiting a creditable activity this year. In former years no particular work has been accomplished by the Y. W. on the hill although there have been many enthusiastic workers. This year, however, the visit of Miss Hutchinson, a national college Y. W. worker, seemed to set the girls' energy on fire, and they at once launched a big membership campaign. The new girls had already learned something about the work at a Y. W. C. A. party given the week before, and all showed a great deal of enthusiasm during the campaign, for nearly every girl in school signed up for membership. This is a remarkable record, and both the old and new members are to be congratulated upon the success of the campaign.

This year's work for the Y. W. has been briefly outlined by the president, Frances Bear, and her cabinet. The first thing to take place will be a Christmas party given in Rodey hall just before vacation. The girls have secured the names of about fifty town children who will not have a Christmas, and it is planned to bring them upon the hill where a Christmas tree, Santa Claus, and all that goes with it will be awaiting them. Each girl will bring a small present to hang on the tree, which during the afternoon, will be given out to one of the children.

Besides small parties during the year, the real big affair of the Y. W. will be the May Fete, given May Day, the precedent of which was established last year. The May Fete is intended to become the annual custom of the Y. W. at this University. With these plans, a very prosperous year for the Y. W. is anticipated.

dustrial world and showing what a true democracy is and how it would solve the difficulties. The speech was well delivered, being spoken with a great amount of force and energy together with other splendid qualities. Gentry was one of the football squad to meet the Aggies, and deserves much credit for his work for the University.

Miss Sands' reading was entitled "Mrs. Casey at the Euchre Party" and the comic features of it were well brought out by the speaker, who is president of the U. N. M. Dramatic Club and foremost in many University's activities. The preliminaries for the University were held only a few days before the finals, and consequently little time had been given the winner to prepare herself. Never-the-less Miss Sands showed great ability and her speaking was a credit to herself as well as the University.

The contest was held in the Pres-

GOOD WORK.

Thanksgiving Day the people of Albuquerque had the opportunity of witnessing one of the best football games ever seen on the Varsity field. Had the students of these opposing institutions been given their choice of seeing either the game between their two schools or the Harvard-Yale game, they probably would have selected the former so deeply are they interested.

Both teams are to be congratulated on the showing made; truly it was a contest of wits and strength which reflected credit on both the University of New Mexico and the Agricultural College. While the University eleven displayed its superiority over the Aggie aggregation at treatment the visitors received while the "Aggies" put up here. They rave that no reservation was made for the men; that no one met the train; that no one showed them the field to play; and that they themselves had almost to hunt up the Varsity players to play with.

In answer to these hasty, erroneous remarks, Manager Caldwell of the Varsity team has this to say: "It was utterly impossible to make reservations of twenty rooms at any of each man's weakness and strength, and the part of each play he could best execute, and finally the splendid co-operation of the team as a whole. While several times individual men made star plays, yet not once was it at a sacrifice to the team as a whole. Such combined effort is to be highly commended, and the very successful season just ended is a proof of it.

But especially was the Turkey Day game marked by clean playing and good sportsmanship; each team upheld the high standards of clean athletics. Much praise must be handed the Aggies on this point. It isn't every team that can play a losing game "gamely," yet the Aggies showed grit and played a clean game from the first kick-off to the last down. Such a spirit as was displayed by the teams cannot be too highly praised, and it is one which does much to bring the schools closer together. The time has come when the advantages of friendly rivalries between schools are recognized, and the more frequently colleges can compete in such contests the better their relations will be. There is always a little bit of good in the worst kind of a person and though you may think he is all bad, you will probably find that there are certain likeable qualities present in him. So it is with school; no one school is all good and another all bad, and each can better the other by closer association. Not only will the schools profit by such association but the state as a whole will derive great benefit from each; and it is sincerely hoped that the University and the Agricultural College will continue their friendly relations for many years to come. We are proud of our football men, and Craces may well consider that her team put up a fight worthy of her on the Varsity gridiron field on Thanksgiving Day.

A MISTAKE.

Since writing the above editorial we have read the account of the Aggie game in the Rio Grande Republic, which in a lengthy article attempts to average the sound thrashing the Aggie football team received at the hands of a much smaller team of Varsity players. We do not believe the Aggies themselves are capable of such misrepresentation as are portrayed in the paper which "crabs loudly" at the rough treatment the visitors received while the "Aggies" put up here. They rave that no reservation was made for the men; that no one met the train; that no one showed them the field to play; and that they themselves had almost to hunt up the Varsity players to play with.

In answer to these hasty, erroneous remarks, Manager Caldwell of the Varsity team has this to say: "It was utterly impossible to make reservations of twenty rooms at any of each man's weakness and strength, and the part of each play he could best execute, and finally the splendid co-operation of the team as a whole. "The whole thing in a nutshell is, that the Aggies were beaten badly by a team of much less weight. It was another story of tact and brains versus mass. If the Aggies were real sports they would shout "Wait until next year" instead of trying to crab over their defeat. The guarantee with them was a flat guarantee of a certain sum and under its provisions they agreed to make and pay

ALPHA DELTA DANCE.

The Alpha Delta Thanksgiving dance, given in Rodey hall, was a brilliant affair. The hall was decorated in the fraternity color dark blue and gold, and over the balcony, hung the large fraternity shield. The dance was given in honor of the visiting football team, and to make the affair lively, all dances were tags for the Aggie men. During the evening delicious punch was served.

Professor and Mrs. Howard entertained the Alpha Chi Omega Chapter, with a delightful informal dance, at their home on East Gold Avenue, Friday night. Corn was popped, marshmallows were toasted, and in fact everything was done, to make the evening, one jolly time.

SIGMA CHI ENTERTAIN.

The Sigma Chi fraternity gave a most delightful dance, at the Masonic Temple, Friday night, in honor of their visiting alumni.

The hall was decorated in blue and gold, and in fact everything about the dance bore the Zeta Xi Chapter stamp. The programs were unique, a small leather vanity bag, with a Sigma Chi recognition pin on the cover, and inside, cards bearing the dance program. Enthusiasm did not waver until three o'clock and the wide door was kept open on the Phi Mu Fraternity. After a hearty welcome were extended to all as they came in leaving Mr. Cold Weather outside.

Phi Mu had a delightful little supper at their fraternity house Wednesday evening for the visiting Phi Mu girls: Allie Atkinson, Alice Atkinson, Alice Holt, Beatrice Hamilton, Gertude McGowan, and Mrs. Paul Becker. About thirty-five Phi Mu's were present with Misses Anne Cristy and Margaret Shumaker as hostesses.

IN HONOR OF ACTIVES.

Invitations are out to a smart dance, given by the pledges of the Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity, in honor of the active members, Saturday evening, at the home of George Arnot.

Three spacious rooms will be decorated in Christmas greens, mistletoe, and juniper berries. About forty couples will dance to Bleuer's orchestra, and during the evening punch will be served. A surprise is in store for everybody, but I can't tell you one wee bit about it.

B. B. B. ENTERTAINMENT.

The Burney Bungalow Bunch entertained their visiting friends and a number of Varsity students at another delightful informal party Friday evening. The guests gathered around the cheery fireplace and popped corn to the accompaniment of songs and stories, while others made fudge in the kitchen. Cards and dancing were other features of

PROF. AND MRS. HOWARD HOSTS.

Professor and Mrs. Howard entertained the Alpha Chi Omega Chapter, with a delightful informal dance, at their home on East Gold Avenue, Friday night. Corn was popped, marshmallows were toasted, and in fact everything was done, to make the evening, one jolly time.

A WORD FOR FRATERNITIES.

The fraternity question is a target for attacks by outsiders as long as there are snobs within the ranks or as long as ignorant critics enjoy repeating imaginary wrongs. But after all the anti-fraternity argument has died away, there is still one real test: "By their fruits ye shall know them."

These fruits are varied and manifold; some are gnarled and knotty, others are even rotten, but the majority are sound and ripe. The real business of a fraternity is friendship, true and enduring. This friendship stimulates the love of worthy ideals—the right of every Phi Mu to choose the best in life. University scholarships, purchase of Liberty Bonds, support of the Red Cross and other war organizations, and the general interest in all college activities, are obvious evidences of the right fraternity spirit.

1920 BASKETBALL.

Much enthusiasm is already being displayed in the coming basketball season. Coach McGough rounded-up the basketball candidates early this week in order to get an early start for another championship team.

Many of the former years basketball veterans have signified their intentions to star for the team this year. Those who are making a bid for a position on the quintet are: Foraker, Gerpheide, Moots, Greenleaf (last year's captain), Steed, Witten, M. Rogers, Shipley, S. Wells, C. Mann, G. Mann, McClure, Grant, Culppepper, Sganzzini, Miller and others.

their own bills under their own management.

"Thursday night after the game, a Varsity fraternity gave the visitors a splendid dance in Rodey hall at which all the fair damsels on the hill were present, also the visitors, and the student body. At its termination, every Aggie player present expressed his appreciation of their good trip here."

It is hoped that the Rio Grande has been misinformed, and that its feeling is not experienced by the students of the Agricultural College.

An optometrist is one who refracts or "tests" the eyes without the use of drugs or drops. He never treats diseases of the eye, specializing in the fitting of glasses.

Optometrists are the only specialists who are required by law, in any state, to qualify themselves for this work. My one and only specialty is the refracting of the eye, and the fitting of "Eyeglasses that Satisfy" for the relief of all abnormal strains which impair the vision, waste the vitality, and lower the sum of human efficiency.

Owing to lack of time, M. J. Doran has resigned as Student Council Representative from the Sophomore class.

Claire Bursum spent the week-end with her parents in Socorro.

Herbert Shelton, a former Varsity man, spent a day in Albuquerque last week, visiting friends and fraternity brothers. "Herb" was on his way home to Alamogordo, from whence he goes shortly to Tampico, Mexico, in the employ of a big oil company.

Harold Miller of Hagerman, spent Thanksgiving in Albuquerque, visiting his sister and brother and taking in the big game. Harold has been a consistent follower of the football team this year, having also witnessed the Institute and Texas Mines games.

Several members of the 1916 football squad were on hand to see us "Beat the Aggie" last Thursday. Two who came from quite a distance, but who comforted themselves as well as in their trouble, were Lee (Bull) Langston, who came from Lovington, and Clifford (Sarah) Bernhardt, who came from Cuervo.

James Waite, a former student, spent the holidays in the city visiting home folks and fraternity brothers.

Two prominent Gallup bankers and former students, namely John Emmons and Harold Blickenderfer, came over to see the "big game," and it is reported that "Johnnie" took back enough money to start another bank.

James Costin, 1917 student of the Varsity, spent Saturday afternoon in Albuquerque. "Jimmie" came all the way from Ohio State, where he is now attending school, to say hello to friends and fraternity brothers here.

Fritz Calkins, a former Varsity football captain, came in from his ranch on the other side of the Sandias to see the game.

Hugh Bryan came in from San Ysidro to spend Thanksgiving and attend the Sigma Chi reunion.

where G. Mann kicked a field goal. Score 3 to 2. Varsity kicked to cruce 20 yard line. Aggies punted back to Varsity's twenty yard line. G. Mann carried ball back 15 yards. Varsity loses ball on downs.

Second Quarter.

Aggies forced to punt. Varsity fumbled and the Aggies recovered the ball only to lose it on downs. Varsity punted after several costly fumbles. Aggies made their downs but lost the ball later. Varsity punted. Aggies were unable to make any gains around the Varsity line. Aggies punted. First half ended with the ball in the Varsity's hands in the center of the field. Score 3 to 2 in favor of the University.

Their Quarter.

Cruces kicked off and recovered the ball from a Varsity fumble. They kicked to Varsity's 20 yard line. After an exchange of punts the Varsity rushed the ball down the field for the first touchdown. Gerphiede took the pellet over the chalked line. Tubby kicked goal. M. Rogers kicked. Cruces made first down but was forced to punt. G. Mann grabbed the ball and made a sensational run of 60 yards to a touchdown only to be called back by the referee for stepping on the line. Varsity punted. Aggies attempted to punt on their twenty yard line but were blocked. Varsity failed to complete a forward pass. G. Mann attempted another a drop kick but it didn't go.

Fourth Quarter.

In this quarter McArthur added his name to the list of gridiron heroes of the Silver and Red by blocking a punt, catching it and running twenty yards to a touchdown before the bewildered Aggies knew what happened. Mann converted the score. Rogers kicked off to the Cruces 20 yard line. Aggies returned the ball. The Varsity waltzed the ball down the field for another touchdown. Gerphiede took it over. C. Mann kicked the goal. M. Rogers then made one of the prettiest kicks ever seen on the Varsity field, kicking the ball from the center of the field past the Aggie goal line. Ball was brought out to the 20 yard line. Aggies attempted a forward pass but failed. The game ended with the ball in the Varsity hands on the Aggie 20 yard line. Final score 24 to 2 in favor of the Varsity.

Letters have been received from J. E. Hoover, Frank Gouin, and Paul Menaul, asking that the Weekly be sent them. All three are in Oklahoma, and express a desire to keep up with affairs at the Varsity.

Several varsity students assisted the local chapter of the Red Cross in its drive for funds, last week.
