ARIZONA TAKES SOUTH- WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP FROM LOBOS IN LAST FRAME OF GAME

Spectacular Work of Mann Features Game.

Victors.

With the score of 7 to 0 in favor of the University of New Mexico until the third quarter, the Arizona Wildcats scored four touchdowns in the last twenty minutes of play, winning the Southwestern championship for 1920. The game was hard fought throughout and only the hardest of playing brought Arizona the scores which made possible their victory. The game was featured by spectacular runs by Captain Mann and the work of the Arizona star, Manzo. Louis Gerpheide, at full back, received a wrenched shoulder during the first quarter and refused to allow a substitute to take his place. Gerpheide weakened in the defense by his shoulder was a ground gainer and could run away from the fast Arizona backs.

The feature of the game was the way in which the New Mexico team outplayed the Arizona aggregation for the first three quarters of the game and how, after the injury of Witten, and how the left side of the line which had been battered throughout the game by the Arizona offensive crumbled and allowed the score gaining runs.

The Lobos put up the best fight even till the last quarter which has ever been seen on the Arizona gridiron, according to many spectators. The enthusiastic crowd, while entirely interested in seeing the home team win, were very generous in their cheers for the injured New Mexico men. A dance in honor of the visitors completed the entertainment.

The following account of the game by plays is taken from the Arizona Citizen.

First Quarter.

The game started with McMillan kicking-off to the New Mexico 10 yard line. Mann ran the kick back ten yards before he was stopped. Gerpheide through the line for five yards. Mann through the line for four yards. Calkins lost one yard trying to go through right tackle. Mann kicked to Hobbs. Varsity ball on their own 30 yard line.

Slonaker made twenty yards around right end. Hobbs tried center for no gain. Slonaker lost four yards around left end. On this play McMillan was forced to go out and Broderick was substituted. A pass from Slonaker to Manzo failed. Slonaker kicked to Mann who was stopped in his tracks on the New Mexico 35 yard line by McClellan.

Mann made one yard through center. Hernandez made one yard through left tackle. Pass from Mann to Ben Gerpheide failed. Mann punts to 30 yard line and Slonaker returns to punt to the New Mexico 37 yard line. Calkins made one yard through left tackle. Louis Gerpheide made one yard through right tackle. Mann made twenty-five yards around right end. Mann through center for two yards. Hernandez, no gain at center. Gerpheide made seven yards around left end. Mann through center for one and a half yards. Mann through center for five yards. Mann through center for two yards on a trick play. Louis Gerpheide around left end for fifteen yards on a delayed pass.

Mann went two yards through center for a touchdown. Gerpheide converted. New Mexico 7, Varsity 0. Marlar kicked-off to New Mexico's 30 yard line. Mann no gain through center. Calkins three yards through left tackle. Mann punts to the Varsity three yard line. Slonaker returns to punt to the New Mexico 37 yard line. New Mexico penalized 15 yards for holding. Mann three yards through center. Broderick intercepted forward on 45 yard line.

Varsity falls to gain and Slonaker kicks to the 15 yard line. Mann returns the kick and the half ended with the ball in the Varsity's possession on the New Mexico 35 yard line.

Second Quarter.

Varsity fails to make their yards by inches and the ball goes over to New Mexico. New Mexico fails to make yards and Mann punts to Slonaker on the 30 yard line. In this play Witten, the New Mexico center, was hurt, but continued to play. Slonaker went around right for ten yards and then the Varsity was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Slonaker kicked to the 40 yard line and Mann ran the ball back to the center of the field.

The tackling of Wafford prevented any New Mexican gains on the next two plays and Mann kicked to Slonaker on the 30 yard line. After no gain on three plays, Manzo punted to the New Mexican 44 yard line. New Mexico made first downs once (Continued on page 3)

STUDENT COUNCIL DIS- CUSSES CLASS FIGHT

Will Meet Hereafter Wednesday from 4 to 6 p. m.

The regular weekly meeting of the Student Council was held in the Seminar room the evening of November 30 and many subjects were brought up and discussed. The chief topic of conversation was the Soph vs. Frosh fight which is to be staged on the football field Saturday afternoon, the fourth of December, at 2:30. The plans as arranged by the Council include a tie-up fight between sixty picked men from the Freshman and Sophomore classes and a tug of war between the girls of the two classes. The afternoon will be under the direction of the coach and he will superintend all contests pulled.

The Washington Birthday celebration which has been talked of on the campus was discussed and while

Dr. Clark Makes Address on Denver Meet.

The feature of last week's assembly was the talk of Dr. Clark upon his visit in Denver, where he attended the Mine Congress. Miss Vernie Powers, a former student, gave a vocal solo to open the program, which was very pleasing. The assembly closed with interesting accounts of the Arizona and Aggie games by some of the students who saw the games and who participated in them.

Doctor Clark covered in his talk the most important phases of the Congress. The feature of the Congress was the speech on Labor and Capital and their differences. This, according to the treatment which it received from the press was the only thing of importance that occurred

NEW MEXICO AGGIES WIN STATE CHAM- PIONSHIP BY SCORE FOURTEEN-SEVEN

First Quarter Loses Game for Varsity.

Late Rally Fails to Score on Heavy Farmer Team.

Unable to stop the fierce attack of the Aggies in the first quarter of the game the New Mexico Lobos lost their annual Thanksgiving Day game at Las Cruces by a score of 14 to 7. The Aggies took the ball on the kick-off and in the first few minutes of play rushed the New Mexico team off their feet, carrying the ball over the goal for two touchdowns. In this period of the game McGary, Aggie quarterback, gained through the Lobo line.

The Varsity had not had a hard practice since their game with Arizona, and with a crippled team faced the heavier Aggie team. The lack of practice was shown in the first quarter. The Lobo defense seemed to have been bewildered and it was in this period of the game that the Aggies won. The game was a fight from then on, the ball remaining on the middle of the field all during the first half. At the beginning of the second half the Varsity opened up and had the ball in Aggie territory until the final whistle.

Soon after the beginning of the third quarter Captain Mann received a broken collar bone, and Miller took his place. From that time on the Aggies made but one first down to New Mexico's seven. It looked like a Varsity victory, but the Aggies would hold their own territory and it was only after a fake pass was worked that the Lobos scored their only touchdown.

MacArthur, Miller, L. Gerpheide and McClure starred for the Varsity, while McGary was the whole Aggie team. Time after time MacArthur would go into the air to grab a pass that seemed to be uncatchable. Miller showed great head work while he played quarter and the accuracy of his passing was a feature. McClure played the old star game at tackle he is capable of playing.

First Quarter.

'Varsity kicked to the Aggies, who recovered on the fifty yard line. Greenleaf's kick was low and Aggie's center stopped it and fell on it. Aggies were held for downs and kicked to Mann. Mann fumbled and an Aggie end had the ball on Varsity ten yard line. McGary smashed across for a touchdown in four plays through the Lobo line. McGary kicked goal. Score: Aggie 7, Varsity 0.

Aggies kicked and Mann returned the ball to the fifty yard line by a brilliant run up the side line. Varsity failed to gain and Mann kicked to McGary, who was nailed in his tracks on the twenty yard line. McGary made thirty yards through Lobo line, but on next four plays Aggies were forced to punt. Mann again made a brilliant return, carrying the ball to middle of field. A fumble by Lobos gave the ball to the Aggies. McGary made twenty around end. He made fifteen more through line. Aggie's pass failed to work, and in the shadow of the Varsity goal the Aggies pulled a triple pass and when the remaining fifteen yards for a touchdown. Score: Aggies 14, Varsity 0.

'Varsity received but was forced to punt. Aggies made a first down by line smashes and punted to Mann. Varsity carried the ball for thirty yards but were held for downs, and Mann's try for a drop failed. Aggies were held and punted, and half ended with ball in mid-field.

Third Quarter.

Lobos received and returned to thirty yard line. Gerpheide made five through tackle. Mann made it first down around end. Calkins and Hernandez each added four through the line. Mann made twenty yards around end. Varsity was held for downs and punted. Aggies made a return punt. Mann received a broken shoulder, but played until Varsity was held and punted. Miller took Mann's place. Miller made eight yards through tackle. Calkins made first downs. Hernandez went through right tackle for six. Gerpheide made thirty yards through the line. It was the Varsity's ball on the Aggie ten yard line. Miller made two. Calkins failed to gain. Gerpheide added two more, but on the next two plays Aggies held and ball went over. Aggies were held and punted. Again Varsity carried ball down the field by straight football but were held. A forward pass Miller to B. Gerpheide was incomplete and it was Aggie's ball. Quarter ends. Score: Aggies 14, Varsity 0.

Fourth Quarter.

Mr. Caldwell moved that the President be authorized to have student body stationery printed. The motion was seconded and passed. The heading for the stationery received brief discussion. An office for the Mirage and Weekly was brought up by the president, Mr. Scruggs, and the Council decided to take the matter under advisement until it could find rooms suitable and not in use. The Council voted to change the time of meeting from Tuesday evening at eight o'clock to Wednesday afternoon from four to six. This change will enable the council to get through its routine work without interfering with the evenings of its members. The meeting was adjourned to meet again Wednesday at four.

H. E. Van Surdam, El Paso Times football critic, has picked the two above eleven as the best composite teams in the Southwest Conference. The University of New Mexico is represented by three men on the first phantom squad and one on the second eleven. Arizona placed four men, Texas School of Mines, two; State College, one, and the New Mexico Military Institute, one.

Captain Mann of the Varsity was placed on the first team because of his ability in carrying the ball either through the line or around the ends. He was said to be the mainstay of the University team.

Greenleaf, our heaviest man was given the position of right guard because of his ability to plug holes in the line and to stop all comers.

during the whole series of meetings at the Mile High City. At the educational congress it was agreed that the average graduate of our engineering schools was sadly in need of more education in English. This was the unanimous opinion of consulting engineers, editors of engineering publications, and deans of technical schools. Doctor Clark also mentioned the speech by a representative of Governor Allen of Kansas. The speech gave the history, purpose, and the results of the industrial court bill and the Court of Industrial Relations, which was established in Kansas last winter as the result of a serious coal strike. The subject of oil shale was also an important one at the Congress.

The remainder of the assembly hour was devoted to some little talks by students telling of the two out-of-town games that had just been played. George Bryan, Rex Craig, Dwight McClure, Harold Booker, George Sampson and Stewart MacArthur all gave short speeches. They all told of the plucky and clean fight that the Lobo warriors displayed during their "hard-luck sojourn."

Francis Bear and Floryda Sain left Thursday morning for their homes in Roswell. We are sorry to see them go.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1920.

We are glad and ready to congratulate the freshmen who come to us wearing the decorations that they have won thru service extraordinary in high school, yet it pains us very much to see these men of own ability assume a state of hibernation and decide that they will rest on their past laurels. The high school contests were simply preliminary preparing them for the main events. When the student crosses that mysterious divide that separates high school from college, he at once encounters new fields to conquer. Our Alma Mater expects every man to do his duty. His duty cannot be less than entering that field of endeavor to which he is best suited and doing his utmost. If he has debating ability he should at once volunteer to that field; if he can play basketball he should report immediately to that squad. We are all here to do our level best to put the University in the front line, hence any student who has ability in any line and who hides his light under a bushel is nothing less than a slacker to his institution.

PERSONAL LIBERTY.
The writer is informed that there is a movement under way to deprive girls of week end dates if they fail to make an average of 80% on their work. How anyone can stand for this restriction is a dark mystery. We must all agree that all students in every school are not perfect. If we were we would have a hard time finding ANYONE suitable to associate with. We come to school to learn. We do not expect to make crackjack grades for if we did, we fear the courses would have to be changed. Simply because a girl enrolls in a hard course and fails to make 80 is no reason why she should be caged up as a criminal and deprived of social pleasures. If we are going that strong, why not make it an even 100 and have a PERFECT bunch?

LET YOUR CRITICISM BE CONSTRUCTIVE.

Last week, we made an attempt at an editorial, asking the students to use discretion in changing the name of the Weekly. We propounded the question, "If we can not find a better name than the WEEKLY why change?" In answer to our conscientious question, one of our bright pros answered, "It now has the right name because it IS WEEKLY, so keep the name WEEKLY." We welcome criticism as long as it is constructive. We realize that our little sheet has not attained perfection, and probably it would be neater, if we had more boosts and less knocks. We respectfully ask all to put away their little hammers and remember that this is OUR school, whether you are student or are on the pension list, and let all boost and work like—for A BIGGER AND BETTER VARSITY!

PLEASE DISMISS CLASSES ON TIME.

The saying that "no souls are saved after the first twenty minutes" seems very truthful. Some instructors save the best wine until the last and the essence of the ball retain the students overtime until they are marked late in getting to the next class. Wouldn't it be better to carefully utilize the time allowed and dismiss on time, thereby allowing the students the chance to be marked on time at the next class?

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY ENTIRELY OUTGROWS SPACE

Miss Wilma Loy Shelton, B. A., B. L. S., Librarian of the State University, has just completed a survey of the materials on hand and has ascertained that the library of the State University contains thirty-nine thousand six hundred and eighty-eight volumes and in addition eleven thousand eight hundred and fifty-five pamphlets. A memorandum of the contents of large collection, amount all together to some fifty thousand books and pamphlets. Miss Shelton is administering the library according to the methods of modern library science but is greatly embarrassed at the present time because of inadequate space and of insufficient help in cataloging the books and documents on hand. It is also recognized by the University authorities that this greatest and most valuable collection of books and documents in the State of New Mexico is daily in danger of conflagration, for the old Administration building at the University is far from being fire-proof.

President Hill calls attention to the fact that this great collection of books and documents is of priceless value to the citizens of the whole state of New Mexico, as well as to the students of the State University of New Mexico, and that there is imperative need of a new library building at the State University. It would be a fitting thing, he says, to erect upon the campus of the State University a modern, fire-proof library building and in connection therewith a beautiful auditorium which would be a center for great public meetings for the citizens of the whole state. Such a library and auditorium would be a beautiful memorial to our soldiers who have died in the World war.

Miller made it first and ten. Calkins made, nine off end. A pass Miller to L. Gerphelide placed the ball on the Aggie one yard line. The referee penalized the Varsity twenty yards because the crowd had gathered on the side lines. This lost the game for the Varsity and the game ended with the ball on the Aggies twenty yard line.

VAN SURDAM OF TIMES PICKS DREAM TEAM

"The writer does not remember of an instance of where such a light man as McClure, weighing only 148 pounds, has played a tackle position on a college team. This player is all grit and because of his weight and wonderful showing deserves even more credit than the other line men of greater weight."
Ben Gerphelide was placed at right end on the second eleven and Byard Witten, center for the Varsity, received favorable mention. Had it not been for injuries sustained by L. Gerphelide and Witten which cut down their effectiveness they would have undoubtedly made places on the "dream" eleven.

Coach Johnson is given much credit for developing such a good team with such light material. Football in the Southwest has a bright future. Coaches and managers have worked with the greatest of harmony with the idea of lining out the best in the game. We may look forward to the coming seasons with the keenest of anticipation. Real football is being played in this section.

Football Dance.
While plans are not yet completed, all those current and just splay enough to have the Varsity girls and boys "going." They are planning an inter-fraternity dance for some time next month, and the football team will be the guests of honor. However, that isn't the point. It's going to be a leap year dance—the girls will make the "dates," and will fill out the programs. And one would be surprised, but those dear girls are simply "terribly frantic" over the idea, because as one said, "We'll just show some of those old boys that they aren't so popular with us after all, and well let them know what it means to go without dances."—Evening Herald.

"Madam, you have had three husbands now," said her legal adviser, "and even all and well let them know what it means to go without dances."—Evening Herald.

Yes, sir, answered the fair client, "what I think I've got now is a safe and sane fourth."

and then Mann punted to Sionaker on the 10 yard line, who ran back 15 yards. Varsity failed to gain and Manzo punted to Mann on the 40 yard line. With four yards to go Wafford intercepted a New Mexico pass on the 35 yard line. The half ended with the ball on the New Mexican 35 yard line in the Varsity's possession. Score: New Mexico 7, Varsity 0.

Third Quarter.
McMillan came back into the game and kicked to Mann on the New Mexican goal line. Mann ran the ball back thirteen yards before he was downed. Wiley substituted for Erb, who had to be taken out on account of his ankle. Mann punted to the Varsity 5 yard line. Hobbs carried the ball around and for 23 yards and followed it with another short gain, through left tackle. With ball on their 10 yard line, New Mexico was penalized five yards for off-side. On the next play New Mexico was penalized one-half the distance to the goal for being off-side. Manzo went through center for one and a half yards. Manzo went through center for the score on the next play. Clymer converted.

The Varsity tried an on-side kick and Hobbs fell on the ball on the 50 yard line. After two plays, Sionaker and Wafford worked a forty yard pass. With the ball on the New Mexican seven yard line, a pass from Sionaker to Marlar failed and the ball was brought out to the 20 yard line. Arizona recovered a fumble on the 33 yard line. Calkins went out and Miller took his place at New Mexico's right half. The Varsity again failed to complete a pass after they had worked the ball down to New Mexico's 22 yard line and the New Mexicans received the ball. Mann's spectacular running made first down for New Mexico twice, and then Mann punted to the 35 yard line.
McMillan returned the punt to Mann who dropped it when tackled by Marlar. Clymer fell on the ball. After two plays for short gains, Sionaker passed to McMillan for ten yards. The quarter ended with the ball in the Varsity's possession on the New Mexican 10 yard line and no downs to go. Score: Varsity 7, New Mexico 7.
