LITERARY SOCIETY PLANS BIG PROGRAM

Many Intercollegiate Debates Are Scheduled.

All Urged to Turn Out for Debating Activities.

The executive committee of the Lowell Literary Society met Tuesday, December 7, 1920, to discuss the ensuing intercollegiate debates.

Communication from Arizona states that we will debate them there about April 28, and promises us expenses to Arizona University and entertainment while there, provided we guarantee them the same for next year. The University of Southern California will debate us here sometime in March. The question submitted by Arizona which will be debated with both Arizona and the University of Southern California, is: Resolved, That the candidates for the presidency of the United States should be elected by a national system of direct primaries. We are given a choice of sides and will probably take the negative side of the question at Arizona and the affirmative side with U. of S. C.

The complete schedule of debates has not yet been made; but besides the debate with Arizona and U. of S. C. we will probably meet the Colorado College in debate here and the Aggies at Las Cruces. Negotiations for these debates are now under way and, as soon as complete arrangements are made, the schedule will be posted.

Various means of choosing a debating team were discussed and it was thought that, in order to discover the best forensic talent in our school and thus to pick a winning team, every student interested in debating should be given an opportunity to discuss the question that has been submitted in an open debate, allowing each one to argue on the side most interesting to him. Possibly the best debaters from both sides of the group will be allowed to debate again to determine which team is to be the winning debating team of U. N. M. to compete in the intercollegiate debates.

Now, the question is, Are you personally interested in debating? If so, come and try out for the team. If not interested in debating personally, are you interested in the intellectual aspect of University life improved by combat with other trained minds? If so, get out and boost the Literary Society and the big debates. We need your help. Why let football "pop" die? Turn it into a new channel and let's show the Southwest that we develop brains as well as brawn.

ENGINEERS TO START SOMETHING

The Engineers of the University met on the night of December 1 and after very interesting short talks by Ed Ross and Dean Eyre started the ball rolling on subjects of general interest.

A committee consisting of Huffine and Dunnegan was put onto the job of getting up a banquet to be given at the earliest possible date at the Country Club. Several members of the Albuquerque chapter of the A. A. E. will be invited guests. The Engineers will show how such a thing is really done.

There was also some discussion on getting out an Engineers' edition of the Weekly. It will be the object of the Engineers to show what real pep looks like in print. Watch for this edition and in the meantime every A. P. S. wants to walk softly and watch his step for the Engineers have a keen nose for news.

A. A. E.—Active, Aggressive, Efficient.

REVENUE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS THAT SCHOOLS CONSOLIDATE

If the next New Mexico state legislature sees fit to adopt the recent report of the revenue commission the consolidation of the State University, the State College of Agricultural and Mechanical Arts and the School of Mines will be an assured fact. As reasons for such consolidation the revenue commission in its report makes the following statement:

"By combining these three schools an institution of respectable proportion can be built up with a competent corps of instructors and a body of enthusiastic students. The overhead expense can be greatly reduced. The amount required for salaries may be as much as one-third less, as also the duplication of the cost of buildings and equipment. If the consolidated school shall be placed at a central point, there will be a material saving of expenses for students and for the institution."

Great bluffs from little study grow.

EIGHTEEN MEN GRANTED FOOT BALL LETTERS

Four Three-Letter Men This Year
Five Two-Letter Men.

The following men have been granted football letters for the 1920 season:

Grant Mann, Louie Gerphiede, Ben Gerphiede, Ralph Hernandez, Walter Hernandez, Louis Hesselden, O. B. Witten, Chester Dungan, Thomas Calkins, Floyd Miller, Rex Craig, Cullen Pearce, Stuart MacArthur, Harold Booker, Frank Greenleaf, Dwight McClure, Vernon Wilfley, Wm. Sganzi.

Of this number Booker, Greenleaf, McClure and Hesselden are three-letter men in football; Mann, Louie Gerphiede, Bill Sganzi, Ralph Her-

FRESHMEN SAY SOPHS WAITED UP ALL NIGHT

There have been rumors afloat concerning a so-called Sophomore "intrigue." It involves the gathering of an "outlaw" organization of the second year men, who intend to get a little previous with the annual class scrap.

Several "Frosh" received word to the effect that the "outlaw" organization would be after them about "2 G. M. in the morning." Immediate steps were taken to avoid being caught unprepared.

Early in the evening one of the wily Sophs returned to his room in the dormitory, and the Fresh, with their characteristic magnifying powers of observation and deduction, sent one of their men to inquire into what their friend was doing. The Freshman called in, "Zat you, Bob?"

"Yell, why?" came the reply. "Just wondered." Upon investigation, an open back window, a "Sunday suit" which had been replaced by "fight clothes" were found. And the Freshman "watch party" continued, growing more determined and hostile as the time passed.

The "deep plotters!" Scouts bring news of a Sophomore meeting, or rather a rendezvous of the "outlaws" had been discovered at the football field.

Soon the word came that the "outlaws" had given up their expedition and had retired to bed behind locked and barred doors. The waiting Fresh broke up their meeting in "deep disgust."

ALPHA DELTAS PLAN SERIES OF SMOKERS

The Alpha Delta fraternity of the University of New Mexico has decided to give a series of smokers to all men in the University including the faculty.

The first of the series probably will be held next Sunday afternoon at the fraternity house on Central avenue near the school. It is planned to give a smoker to each fraternity separately and then one to the faculty and a fourth to the non-fraternity men.

The fraternity has appointed a committee to provide for arrangements.

Lloyd Kellam, who was prominent in dramatic circles on the hill last year, is a visitor here over the Christmas vacation. Mr. Kellam has been studying music in New York city.

SOUTHWEST DIVISION OF AMERICAN ASSOCIATION ADVANCEMENT SCIENCE MET IN EL PASO

Pres. Hill, Dr. Hessler and Dr. Coan Represent University at Meeting.

The first annual meeting of the Southwest Division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science was held in El Paso last week and the University of New Mexico was represented by Dr. Hill, Dr. Hessler and Dr. Coan. The meeting was presided over by Dr. Hewitt of Albuquerque, president of the association. Meetings were also held by Southwestern branches of the American Archeology Association, Medical and Engineering Associations in connection with the general meeting. Dr. A. E. Douglas of Tucson was selected as the next president and the next meeting will probably be held at Tucson.

Dr. Hill made two addresses, the subjects of which were, "Basic Principle of Research" and "The Relation of Psychology to Educational Administration." Dr. Coan gave an address entitled, "Materials for the History of the Southwest." This address was given at a meeting which was held in Juarez. "The History of Language" was the address given by Dr. Hessler. Arizona, New Mexico, were nora and Chihuahua, Mexico, were represented. The last meeting was held in Juarez.

RENEWED ACTIVITIES ON EASTERN FRONT

Frosh-Soph Scrap Raises Dust and Ends in Tie.

Green Cap Girls Win Tug of War Easily.

After a short period of rest and quietness, the football bleachers were once more permitted to view a good scrap, before taking their Christmas vacation.

About 1 o'clock last Saturday afternoon, sundry students attired in fancy dress, could be seen wandering aimlessly around the tennis courts. It was noticeable that only students who were either Freshmen or Sophomores were so dressed. By about 2 o'clock quite a number had appeared, where they all chatted amiably together for about a quarter of an hour. Presently, arm in arm, they all wandered down the field.

It was rumored about this time that there was to be a Freshman-Sophomore fight, and as the respective classes then separated into two groups, it certainly looked more like it. Ink was smeared, apparently, indiscriminately on the faces and necks of the would-be gladiators, and what, to the bleachers, looked like shoestrings were handed to each of them.

Everyone looked expectant, somehow—even the bleachers. There was a short pause—then, suddenly, out of the distance, came several sharp squeaks. These were repeated at short intervals. Then a long, narrow line of girls appeared around the corner of the girls' gym. Mild interest shown by the warriors. The squeaks presently became distinguishable into what sounded like "We, we, we are fresh." More excitement shown by the warriors.

At this point a huge rope was unrolled; it seemed, somehow, as if it were trying to make up for the palsy of the other ropes. It appeared that a prominent Sophomore with the referee team in between, tug-of-war expert had forgotten her legging. Intense excitement in both camps. Fighting almost manfully under this great handicap, and aided by the coach, the Sophomores had a good pull but were overcome by the Freshman team. It seems that the

DENNIS CHAVEZ ADDRESSES MEETING OF SPANISH CLUB

At the meeting of the El Circulo Espanol Wednesday evening, December 1, an interesting program was presented and the members enjoyed a very pleasant evening. After the business of the club was attended to Mr. Dennis Chavez, the speaker of the evening, gave a most interesting lecture in Spanish on the advantage of being a Spanish student at our institution and the opportunities offered for the practical use and practice of the language in the city.

Among the musical numbers given were a violin solo very ably rendered by Mr. Elmer Bryan, and two piano selections by Miss Helen Gurule, both of which showed remarkable talent in expression and technique. After the program games were played and coffee and sandwiches were served.

MIRAGE MANAGER PLEADS CO-OPERATION AND SPIRIT

Editor U. N. M. Weekly:

The time has arrived when the management of the Mirage must hustle in order to put out a real year book on time. Our editor and staff are busy and we appeal to every student to do their utmost to help us make it a winner.

Our book this year will have a cow-hide cover in brown leather with a green imprint of the main building. We have signed a contract with one of the best engraving houses in the country to insure first class engraving. The fraternity sections will be revised. The athletic section will be something new. The beauty and popularity pages will be the best feature of the book comparing favorably with those sections in the best annuals of the country. We are securing borders and sets of art work that are going to be keen. All we want is the wholehearted 100 per cent support of every student that is not ashamed of our Alma Mater. When the management secures

SUSPICIOUS FRESH STAGE WATCH PARTY

First Year Men Forget That Hazing in College is Thing of the Past.

Sophomores Get the Spirit of the Thing and Carry on the Deception.

The Freshmen staged a watch party on last Friday night. Some one had very carefully tipped them off that the Sophomores contemplated having a tie-up.

A few Freshmen and Sophomores were enjoying a little party when interrupted by a knock at the door. Upon admitting the unknown party it was found that he desired speech with the Frosh scrap leader. The wily Freshman had received word by a very secretive route of the supposed attack and were panic-stricken.

After the little social was over the masculine members made for the dormitory to ascertain the truth of the rumor. What they found was the majority of the Freshmen grouped in one of the rooms, all waiting for the onslaught. A few were trying to sleep. Some were debating the most approved methods of striking an assailant with an arm chair. Others were condemning college institutions for tolerating such an unlawful element as the traditional Sophs.

Thus the watch continued long into the night and into the wee hours of morning. The Frosh talked onward in the night while the wiser Sophs slept; dreaming of the clever trick they had hung on the lower classmen.

The truth of the matter is that the Sophomores, robbed of their usual unorganized fight, decided to put the fear of God into the unsuspecting Frosh. Consequently they carefully planned a sham attack. Several of the members were careful to spill the fact that there was to be a meeting of the Sophs at the football field at one. A handful of the upper classmen sacrificed sleep in order to add color to the deception. After being assured that a Freshman scout had noted their congregation, they retired to their beds.

One upper classman very soon climbed from his window and slipped away in the dark, but not until he had taken pains to have been observed by a dozen scouts.

After a weary time of waiting, the Freshmen amassed enough courage to disband, but not until elaborate precautions and observations had been taken. In one fraternity house they all retired in one room for the sake of strength and placed all the available furniture against the door, after having tied the door knob to the bed post.

One Freshman happened to be riding early in the evening with two or three Sophomores and due to their whisperings and other acts necessary to the successful execution of the farce became suspicious. At his first opportunity he escaped the would-be persecutors and struck out for the bush, not arriving home until early in the morning, and not then until after a careful survey of the situation.

Thus it all the Sophomores enjoyed a hearty laugh and sweet dreams, while the Freshmen watched and waited for naught.

HONORARY SOCIETY RECEIVED NEW MEMBERS TUESDAY LAST

Number of Prominent Men Honored; Dinner Follows.

Several new members of the State University faculty and other prominent New Mexicans who have distinguished themselves along literary and scientific lines were initiated into the local chapter of the national honorary fraternity, Phi Kappa Phi, last Tuesday evening in the Chemistry building at 5:15.

The initiation was followed by a dinner at the Country Club. Dr. Edgar L. Hewitt of the American School of Research, who is giving extension lectures on archeology at the University, gave a talk after the dinner.

The membership of the chapter is made up of both men and women of particular intellectual ability. Each year a certain per cent of the graduating class of the State University of high scholarship standing are admitted to membership. Those who were initiated are, E. Dana Johnson, H. J. Hagerman, R. H. Hanna, Edgar L. Hewitt, Aldo Leopold, David Spence Hill, Thomas Erye, C. F. Coan, L. B. Hessler, R. W. Ellis, Edna Mosher, Myrtle Greenfield.

The many friends of Miss Ethel Hickey will be grieved to hear of the death of her mother, Mrs. M. M. Hickey, who died Tuesday, December 7, at her home on North Walter. The body will be taken to Peabody, Kansas, for interment.

BEATEN BUT NOT WHIPPED.

In football this year we have been defeated in half of the games played. Two of these defeats would have made us Southwestern Champions and State Champions if the tide had gone the other way. Yet our team is not whipped for they put up the best they had to the last whistle which ended the season. They deserve lots of credit for the work shown for without question the Varsity team this year met better and stronger teams from the institutions with which we contested than last year's team met. The breaks in the game and the injuries received in practice seemed this year to rest with us more than the year before. Such alibi are often scouted at but no coach or close follower of the game will forget them when the final summary comes. Now is the time, however, not to look behind but to the front. Next year is but a step away and will be on us before we realize. Now is the time to prepare for the football next year. We want the Southwestern Championship for 1921.

COACH JOHNSON.

Coach Johnson who is with us for his first year has not only made a lasting impression on the football team but on all the students for his interest in his work and the whole-hearted way he has thrown himself into our athletics. Those who have been fortunate enough to get really acquainted with the coach will tell of his real worth and those who have worked with him on the football field will praise his coaching ability. Coach Johnson is a representative of that sterling manhood which football and college develop. All praise to Coach Johnson and may he have success with all his athletics in the future.

LAST WEEK'S PAPER.

The Weekly week before last came out with the editor away on the football trip. The issue was in the hands of the staff and under the direct supervision of the assistant editor. This is evidence of the interest which the Weekly staff is taking in its work and of its ability to edit the paper. We believe that only under such a system which makes the staff of a student publication a real, vital element in the life of the institution can the student paper become a real factor in student life. This paper is not a one man affair as it has been in the past at different times, but the work of those students who have the interest and ability to give to their school. The Weekly staff deserves the praise of the student body.

NEEDS OF FOOTBALL.

One of the outstanding features of this season's football is the lack of competent officials to conduct the inter-collegiate games in this section. Good referees and umpires are scarce. Often even the offer of big money to work at a game will not bring an official who is competent. This is a matter which can be worked out this winter between the coaches of the respective institutions and be settled by next year. It will not be so much a matter of picking and choosing over officials as it will of finding them. The Southwestern Football Officials Association organized in El Paso may be the solution of the needs of this section of the country.

It is our earnest endeavor to put out a book that, whether you are sunning this summer at Long Beach or climbing the lofty peaks in Estes, and you meet a college student you can with pride pull out this Mirage and show him a condensed history of our year's activities; and forty or fifty years onward, when your posterity is considering colleges, we want this to be the kind of a book that will record for him your life

YOU ORDER BY NUMBER

This is a great country for system. Even in getting an education you can order by number—just as in selecting collars or tooth brushes.

We've been looking at some college catalogs to see what they are now offering in the way of samples. The universities, of course, have a wider selection of staple goods to select from, but even some of the smaller colleges now have a good assortment of the newest styles.

The descriptive paragraphs which accompany the various lots are not very illuminating, however, and perhaps that is why so many people who "order by number" come out of college with nothing but a sheepskin to cover their ignorance.

When a person specifies "English 101," how can he be certain the brand will measure up to the label? And when you order a dose of "Biology 4," how are you to know whether they're not trying to slip in an inferior grade of "3's"?

The only fair thing for the catalogues to do is to put a complete description of the course alongside the number. For example:

English 101—Patented tongue; copyrighted; fully equipped with idioms and metaphors; with slang improvements. Guaranteed to cure "ain't's," "have saws," "he don'ts," etc.

English 102—Patented Eastern accent; course with Boston improvements, and broad "a." Will provide the student with English to use at tea parties and highbrow lectures. Special instruction in "cawn't," "awf'ness," "good-of-you-to-come," and other bunk.

English 103—Patented domestic course, for home consumption, with all the up-to-date safety valves for the relief of feelings; guaranteed not to slip in an emergency; special attention paid to husbands and wives, and individual instructions for mothers-in-law. Cuss words, their use and abuse, etc.

College is supposed to fit one for life. So why should it neglect home life?—Los Angeles Examiner.

SOCIETY

The inter-sorority leap year dance will be held tomorrow night, Saturday, at the Masonic Temple. This affair is causing more comment and even disturbance than any other social event so far this season. One prominent student said the other day, "Gosh, I thought I was a lady's man; I saw my program and it was sure abbreviated. I honestly feel sorry for that girl trying to fill it."

It seems to be the unanimous opinion of the men that the girls show very poor taste in asking them for a date and gently hinting that they have no intention of hiring a "service car."

But, at that, it's going to be a real party. Look who's giving it! The girls! Look who they're giving it for! The Lobos!

The pledges of the local chapter of Alpha Chi Omega entertained with one of the prettiest and "peppiest" little parties of the season at the Woman's Club last Saturday evening. The hall was tastefully decorated with the sorority colors, crimson and green. The refreshments, too, carried the colors. Christmas trumpets were given as favors. Mrs. L. B. Hessler acted as chaperone. The guests were: Cleveland, Helen Stowell, Gail Beckman, Dorothy Alard, Hazel Morris, Mary Wood, Mary Mize, Juliet Fleisher, Helen Lindsay, Jessie Harrington, Edna Hill, Miriam Schube, Susan Tully, Laura Crawford, Madge Gibbs, Clarissa Parsons, Ruth Hefflin, Betty Morrisette, Dorothy Stephenson, Mayme Hart, Helen McIlvain, Clyda Wilson, Carol Wilson, Edna

The chaperons will be Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Hessler. Miss Mary Mize is in charge.

The most important social event of last week on the hill was the Sigma Chi pledge dance at the local chapter house. The house was decorated in blue and gold, the fraternity colors. The program and refreshments also carried out the fraternity colors. The chaperons are: Mrs. Harriett St. Louis and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shuffelbarger. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Rodey, Mr. and Mrs. Will Keeler and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ross; Misses Helen McIlvain, Floyd Sain, Lorena Burton, Helen MacArthur, Edna Miller, Helen Jackson, Juliet Fleisher, Lorraine Cleveland, Dorothy Stephenson, Mary Mize, Dorothy Bowman, Evelyn Moans, Elizabeth Hill, Blanche Guley, Gochenour, Viola Herkenhoff, Frances Bear, Mary Louise McGuire, Joy Spruce, Katherine Angle, Cordelia Pearl, Helen Darrow, Helen Stowell, Belle Barton, LeClair Cavannah, and Dr. Harris, Coach Johnson, Stewart MacArthur, John Seruges, George Sampson, Dana Collins, Dwight McClure, Harold Booker, Floyd Miller, George Bryan, John Fernstrom, Hugh Graham, Ralph Brooks, Louis Gerphide, Charles Caldwell, Grant Mann, Victor Miller, Walter Berger, Norman Mayne, Robert Albers, Sam Wells, O. STUDENT COUNCIL

An annual custom for the University will be started by the student council in the form of a Christmas party to be given Friday, December 17. Each member of the student body will draw the name of another student for whom he will buy a small gift appropriate to the student. These will be placed on a Christmas tree in Rodey hall and distributed by our old friend, Santa Claus. Then each fraternity will put on a stunt lasting 10 minutes. The party will be terminated by a dance.

The student council read and approved the Engineers' Constitution at its last meeting Wednesday, December 8. According to the new constitution all organizations are to file their constitutions with the student council. All organizations please take notice and send in their constitutions.

The student council has decided that owing to the fact that the Freshman-Sophomore fight was a tie that the honors will be conferred on a winner of the Freshman vs. Sophomore basketball series.

"I want to know," said the grim-faced woman, "how much money my husband drew out of the bank last week."
"I cannot give you that information, madam," answered the man in the cap.
"You're the paying teller, aren't you?"
"Yes, but I am not the telling payer."

KOLLEGE KLIPPINGS

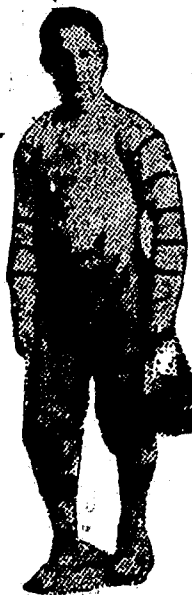

Is This You?
Sub—Has she many suitors?
Deb—Oh, yes, but none of them do.
Sub—Do what?
Deb—Sutor—Widow.

Bob Warren speaks:
The barbers cut your danbling hair
And charge you fifty cents;
I let my hair grow long and cut
The overhead expense.
—Chaparral.

A very poor student named Pease
For underwear wore B. V. D's; Jack Frost said, "I like you,
How do I strike you?"
Pease said, "From my shoes to my knees."
—Siren.

Frank, if Nothing.
Co-ed: "The flowers you sent today were so lovely and fresh. Why I believe there is some dew on them yet."
Stude (broke): Well, yes, there is, but I'll pay that off tomorrow."
—Scalper.

Almost, but Not Quite!
I gazed upon her pretty face,
Her graceful form,
Her raven hair;
Her lips bewitched me;
Thrilled me, filled me
With a longing, a desire
To crush her in my arms.
A primal passion seized me—
I MUST kiss her!
I put my arms about her waist,
Drew her closer to me.
She quivered as if a zephyr
Had shaken her frail form;
But she did not resist!
My lips drew close, and Prepared to take this toll
Of sweetness—
Then she sneezed!
—Scalper.

Sophomores weren't able to hoist the Freshman anchor.

First blood to the Freshmen!
Next came the big scrap. Both teams lined up opposite each other instead of the expected thirty Sophs, there were only twenty—but there was nothing very "select" about either team. The motto of both was "Let 'em all come."

The scrap started with a rush. A cloud then descended upon the field, and the rest is lost in dust. Then the small, still voice of the coach called time, and when the air cleared a bit it was discovered that five men of both classes had been tied.

Dick Angle, a warrior in the Freshman class, who had been falsely reported as dead, came very much to life which made the number of tied men five-four in favor of the Fresh.

MacArthur and Ferguson then entered the ranks of the Sophomores.
This aroused some rather fierce opposition, but the matter was finally more or less peacefully settled.

The dust seemed to have settled, too, in the meantime. At any rate more details could be seen of the fight in the second half. Brown and Gerpheide did mighty deeds, as did Hernandez and Pierce. The two new fighters, MacArthur and Ferguson, went down fighting gallantly against tremendous odds. Every man, however did his duty "as a man is bound to do." There had been some misunderstanding in the second half as to the tying. Although to the casual observer the Freshmen seemed to have had all the best of the fight, the result was given as a draw.

So much for the wearing of the green.
In the words of the poet, "What fools these mortals be!"

AD REFERENDUM

Why haven't all the boys dates for the football dance?

Blanche—I want to take George.
Bevo—I'm only an apprentice seaman and I got no legins on.
Coan—The lady hasn't the nerve to ask me yet.

Coach—Because all the boys haven't dates.

Arthur Stern—Because I bought them something for fifteen cents.

Fritz Ward—Have to leave town
Saturday.

Monk—I dunno.

Hughie—Because they all wanted to take me.

Slippery Sol—Because I'm broke.

Optimistic Oliver—More boys than girls.

Bob Hopewell—Somebody is always taking the joy out of my life.
