VARSIITY WALLOPS THE AGGIES AND HAS CINCHED STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

Varsity Eleven completely outclassed the Aggies Thanksgiving afternoon by a score of 51 to 0, and have proved themselves champions of New Mexico. The overwhelming defeat administered to the Farmers did away with any and all disputes as to the championship honors.

The first three quarters of the game were very exciting and well worth looking at, but the last quarter resolved itself into a first class track meet, and the spectators began to leave one by one, when the Varsity had oiled up a lead sufficient to assure her of victory. Not a single score was made in the first half although both goals were in danger on several occasions. Our men were not working together in the first two periods, while the Aggies were fighting stronger at this time than toward the end of the contest. For the visitors, Foster was easily the star, although their entire team played good football. The playing of Steed, Wilfley and Aydelotte throughout the entire contest was easily considered the feature of the attraction. Steed ploughed through the line every time the ball was given him for the necessary gain. Out of the seven touchdowns, Steed carried three across the line, while Ayrelotte and Wilfley divided honors evenly, making two each. Wigely kicked seven goals without any effort at all. Wilfley, who is playing his first year college football distinguished himself by mixing in every play and never missing a tackle. The speed shown by the little fellow in the end runs and fake plays was well worth noticing. A brief synopsis of the game follows:

First Quarter.

Aggies kicked and ball went through Varsity line out of bounds. Scrimmage started with ball in Varsity possession on twenty yard line. On first down Lapraik punted 35 yards. An exchange of punts took place which netted the Varsity about five or ten yards. Captain Brorien made an end around end run for 40 yards. Wigely attempted a field goal from the 35 yard line but failed. Aggies were unable to make their downs. Varsity fumbled, Foster recovered and ran 50 yards but was overtaken by Aydelotte, our speedy little half. Farmers were unable to make their downs and ball changed hands. With a series of fake plays, Varsity carried ball down the field without any trouble, but first quarter ended with ball in Aggies possession on Varsity 20 yard line.

Score U. N. M., 0; Aggies, 0.

Second Quarter.

Ladd went around end for a gain of 25 yards, but was forced to kick on next second down. End runs netted the Aggies good gains, and Ladd attempted a field kick from the 40 yard line but failed. Repeated line smashes netted the Varsity three first downs. Wigely attempted another field goal from the thirty yard line, but missed. Aggies, being unable to make their gain were forced to kick and Aydelotte advanced the punt about 15 yards before he was downed. Aydelotte made a forward pass for about thirty yards which Brorien pulled in out of the side lines, but the whistle blew at this stage for the end of first half.

Score, U. N. M., 0; Aggies, 0.

Third Quarter.

Varsity kicked. Aggies were again forced to kick on fourth down, but recovered, although they were penalized 10 yards for interference. Ball changed hands again on fourth down, and, by a series of line plunges mostly by Steed, the ball was carried to the five yard line, when Wilfley carried it across the line for the first touchdown. Wigley kicked goal. Aggies kicked again and by using forward pass and fake end run plays Varsity carried ball down the field, and Wilfley pushed it across for the second time. Wigley kicked goal. Aggies kicked again, but quarter ended with the ball in Varsity possession of 45 yard line.

Score, U. N. M., 14; Aggies 0.

Fourth Quarter.

At this stage of the game the Mesilla men went to pieces and Varsity made two touchdowns without any effort at all. Then Ladd was downed behind the line by F. Lee, making a safety and adding two more points to the score. Three more touchdowns were made in rapid succession by means of the forward pass mainly. Steed continued to play stellar like and went through the line with two and three men hanging on him. Wigely kicked goals without fail.

Final score, U. N. M., 51; Aggies, 0.

One of the most important reasons for our victory was the fact that our line held the Aggies from making their line plunges. Any gains that were made by the Farmers were by end runs. Our line was just like a brick wall, and the Aggie men were seen to bounce back when attempting to make their way through. F. Lee, Langston, Sinesio and Tom Williams deserve special mention for their work on the line.

"Doggie" was hurt in the first few minutes of play and forced to retire in favor of Wilfley, who filled the bill admirably. The letter men beside the regular team will more than likely be Wilfley, Fullerton and Shields.

Football Captain for next year will be elected some time soon and Floyd Lee seems to be the logical candidate for this position.

The Aggies have always had the reputation of playing clean football and they certainly came up to their standard in the game last Thursday. Good losers are hard to find, but the Aggies are that in every sense of the word.

The financial report of the football season has not been made public, but it will be submitted to the student body just as soon as possible.

The motto, "BEAT THE AGGIES" worked out so well that our next will be "PASS THE COURSE."

EDUCATIONAL MEETING PROVES BIG SUCCESS

Hospitality of Ancient City Proves fatal to Albuquerque, and educators vote to return to Santa Fe next year for the convention.

Thirty years ago the New Mexico Educational Association was organized at Santa Fe with about forty members from over the territory. At that time there was no University nor any state educational institutions, nor any city public schools, nor any school laws that resembled adequate legislation for education.

Last week the Educational Association met again in Santa Fe for its thirty-first convention, enrolling 1,400 members and taxing the hospitable ancient city to house and feed them all. Be it said here, however, that no city ever before did the job so systematically, so promptly and so satisfactorily.

At the first meeting in 1886, the teachers all met in one body, all listening to the same papers and addresses. At the last convention there were twenty different sections, each considering its own particular problems, in the morning meetings, while in the afternoon all came together in the beautiful Scottish Rite Cathedral to discuss the broader problems of education and life. Two speakers of national reputation were present—Dr. Carroll G. Pearse, presi-

BRORIEN IS WINNER IN ORATORICAL CONTEST

Captain of football team shows Ability in other lines, and is given decision over Agricultural representative.

Carl D. Brorien won the State Oratorical Contest in Santa Fe last Wednesday night. The contest was very close although there were only two representatives. One from the Agricultural College in Las Cruces, and Brorien, representing the University. This is once again we have been placed on the map by producing a man who delivers the goods.

"Slaves of Freedom" was the subject of Brorien's address, and he handled it in the best fashion possible.

Some dispute has been raised since the final decision, and it was decided that the other contestant, representing the Aggies, should be given a medal, as well as Brorien. This decision met with the approval of all concerned, but our representative was proclaimed winner of the contest.

Guy Hamilton, a former student, now assistant professor of agronomy at the agricultural college, was initiated into the Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity during his stay in this city with the football team. "Ham" was one of the most popular students at the Varsity a few years ago, and his numerous friends were glad to see him.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL IS REORGANIZED

Great Opportunity is offered students who desire to speak and write the Spanish language; attend the Meeting tonight at home of Miss Chaves

For those who are anxious to speak and write Spanish fluently, join this circle! Meetings will be held on the first and third Tuesdays of each month at the respective homes of the girls of the organization.

The first regular meeting will be held Tuesday night, December 5, at the home of Catherine Chaves, 624 North Eleventh Street. All members or prospective members are invited to come.

A good time will be enjoyed at these meetings of course but all conversation will be carried on in Spanish. Regular programs will be carried out, consisting of Spanish music and recitations, and more elaborate things will be undertaken as the ability of the members increases. It has even been hinted that there will be Spanish refreshments, but you cannot be sure about all you hear.

This is one club which requires no fee. The only qualification is the ability to understand a little Spanish and the desire to understand more.

This is an opportunity well worth while and those who are interested should get behind the circle and should boost it.

SPORTSMANSHIP.

Clean sportsmanship is one of the foremost characteristics of a good college team of any kind. To take a good licking is harder than it appears. An team representing an institution is in a position to display just what it has been taught, and by so doing is able to build up or retard the growth of the institution in the minds of people whom they are placed before. The conduct of the visiting team showed very clearly, that their first aim is to play clean football and take things just as they are deserved. The Agricultural College is to be congratulated as well as the individual members of the Aggie team for their clean sportsmanship.

"PASS THAT COURSE."

WHERE IS IT?

"Did you go to the Junior Dance Thanksgiving night? The decorations were very effective, weren't they? The Juniors borrowed those footballs from Matson's and Strong. When it came time to return them, one was missing, which of course, happened to be one of the best collection—a $5 ball. Some one must be held responsible. It is rather hard on the Juniors to have the added expense of making good this loss, as a return for their cordial hospitality. They are justly angry about the affair and have a right to be. It is sincerely hoped that the missing football will prove similar to proverbial bad penny, and "turn up soon."

"PASS THAT COURSE."

BE HONEST.

At the football game last Thursday afternoon, one of the officials, a United States Army Officer lost his silver bars, and silver crossed guns. The loss was reported to the Athletic Council, but no definite action was taken. This is a mighty serious offense and the council has put the matter off hoping that it will disclose itself in the next week. No one in particular is suspected, but the council is in a position to find out who the guilty person is. The most convenient way to settle this matter is to return the bars if anyone of our number has them.

BASKET BALL MEN URGED TO REPORT FOR PRACTICE

First practice of the season was well attended by those interested in basket caging sport. New material is decidedly advantageous.

All men interested in basket ball will report at the gym every night from now on, at four o'clock. Practice was started Monday afternoon and quite a squad appeared for the first time. The basketball season is now open and every effort will be directed toward rounding into shape one of the best basketball teams ever representing the University.

With all of last year's men back except Claiborne, and the additional new material which has showed up very well, we should be able to have a real "Quintette."

The schedule has not been definitely arranged as yet but will more than likely include a trip into Colorado, as well as games with Silver City Normal, Agricultural College and probably the Las Vegas Normal School.

The interest taken in basketball has been shown more clearly than ever before, with the addition of the Y. M. C. A., which is now in full sway, and where basketball games are held every Wednesday night.

Now is the time to determine whether you will land yourself a position on the first team. The constant practice, as well as the ability to produce the goods will enable Hutch to decide more easily on who shall represent the Varsity.

"PASS THAT COURSE."

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

During the Thanksgiving holidays the Y. W. C. A. has continued its good work. Two large baskets full of every kind of Thanksgiving "goodies," were gathered up from the wives of the faculty members and the girls themselves. The Y. M. boys lent welcome aid in this undertaking. The Civic Betterment League gave the girls the names of two needy families, and a basket full of these delicacies was given to each party. It is needless to say these were welcome gifts. The same thing will be done by the girls at Christmas time. This is indeed a very good precedent to establish and the Y. W. is to be congratulated for making this effort.

dent of the State Normal School at Milwaukee and Supt. Frank W. Slutz of Denver.

The University of New Mexico was well represented by members of the faculty and alumni, in membership, on the program and in various official positions.

Santa Fe aided in making this convention a great success, and her invitation to return in 1917 was cordially accepted. The Varsity Band was one of the various organizations to discourse sweet music, and Carl D. Brorfen won the state oratorical contest.

Junior Dance.

On Thanksgiving night the Juniors entertained the student body at a very successful dance in Rodey Hall. The Junior colors, "purple and gold," were much in evidence, giving a varicolored and festive effect. The Aggies, who were all invited to the dance and given the privilege of tag dances, but the Aggies were extremely bashful and most of them enjoyed the dance as on-lookers. "51" brand was supplied in honor of the great football victory and was especially enjoyed by those of the masculine persuasion. Everyone was keyed to the highest pitch of excitement after the afternoon's victory and this together with music furnished by the popular rag time picker, "Jonesie" forms a combination which is bound to produce a highly joyful result. So the Juniors are to be congratulated for giving the student body one of the best times of the year.

Alpha Delta Banquet.

The Alpha Delta fraternity gave a banquet at the Alvarado on Wednesday night in honor of Adlai Feather who successfully passed the examinations for Rhodes scholarship. Richard Upton acted as toastmaster and those responding to toasts were: Milan Doering, "Reminiscences in the Future;" Adlai Feather, "Greek and Greeks;" and Edward King, "Achievements of the Fraternity." A splendid dinner was enjoyed after which fraternity songs were sung.

Rotary Dance.

On Saturday night the Sigma Chi were hosts to the fraternities, sororities and Greek letter people on the hill. The decorations were exquisite, representing much labor, and the punch was of a rich and luscious variety. Splendid music was furnished by Miss Blueher and Ralph Hill. Mr. Coors, Phi Delta Theta, gave a very interesting talk. Everyone enjoyed the dance immensely.

Helen Vincent entertained a number of University people at a very impromptu and delightful little party on Sunday evening.

On Friday night Professor Worcester and Professor Wand took their table at the dining hall to the Country Club for dinner. Mr. Turpening furnished the turkey, which was cooked in a highly satisfactory manner. The people who enjoyed Professor Worcester and Professor Wand's hospitality were: Allie Atkinson, Rebecca Skymit, Don Richardson, Mr. Turpening, and Mr. Masten.

Signia Chi Banquet.

The Sigma Chis gave their first annual Thanksgiving banquet at their house on December 1. A splendid dinner was served. P. C. Rodey acted as toastmaster and the following toasts were given: "When College Days are Over," William Keleher, Zeta; "The Bunch," Ed Ross, Beta Xi; "Those Pledges," William Grimmer; "The Fraternity Man," Kenneth Balcomb, Beta Xi; "Beta Xi This Year," Allen E. Bruce, Beta Xi.

After the banquet the pledges put on a high class stunt in original vaudeville which was enthusiastically applauded by their audience. Those present were: C. E. Aydelotte, A. E. Bruce, P. L. McClellan, S. G. Morgan, L. Vanchelet, J. L. Walt, C. D. Brorein, J. A. La Fraik, H. R. Miller, H. M. Shields, L. S. Vincent, R. G. Wigley, H. A. Carlisle, H. M. Frank, J. J. Redfield, E. Ross, E. C. DR. ESPINOSA Praised FOR SPANISH GRAMMAR

Following letter proves value of former Instructor of Romance languages at the University. Ten years ago he occupied position now held by Prof. Nelson.

We have sent you a copy of Espinosa's elementary Spanish reader. If this were just "another Spanish reader" we would not have published it. It stands by itself in a number of particulars. First, and not the least important, it is the first book to appear in our Hispanic series. We want this series to be a household word with you.

The technical excellences of the elementary Spanish reader are set forth by Dr. Espinosa in his preface much better than we can tell them to you here. We wish particularly to mention some of the things that Dr. Espinosa's modesty will not let him set forth in his preface. Dr. Espinosa has drawn on his authoritative, knowledge of New Mexican, Mexican, Californian and Spanish folk lore. No people are richer in folk lore than those of the Spanish speaking countries. Dr. Espinosa has made a special study of the folk lore of these countries. He is himself literary, and his choice of material has been guided by his fine literary sense. Every line of the text is palpitant with Spanish life and thought, feeling and tradition. You will find the notes admirable in every respect, and vocabulary is a storehouse of condensed information.

We want you, first, to introduce this elementary Spanish reader at the earliest opportunity; second, to tell us what you think of it.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) BENJ. A. SANBORN & CO.

NOTE TO STUDENTS

Final examinations will be held December 26, 27, 28.

Students who do not succeed in passing one-half of their registrations are liable to be denied re-admission. In the operation of this rule to date, the Committee on Student Standing does not mean to give who is graduated via the back door.

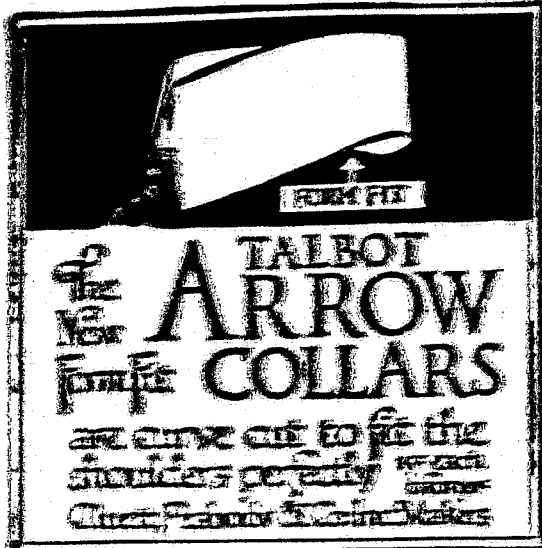

One-tenth of a credit hour is deducted for each over cut. Excused absences are not penalized, provided that the lost work has been made up. It is necessary that the yellow excuse card be filed with the registrar. Otherwise deduction will be made in credit hours for the total number of absences reported in each course.

Registration for next semester must be completed before the end of the current semester, except the payment of fees. Students may register in the last two weeks before vacation. Opening day of next semester is set apart for the payment of fees by old students, in case any fees are due, and for the registration of new students.

Students are strictly held for the program of studies for which they are registered. Changes can be made only in the regular way by filling out a blue card. A student can not withdraw from a course by simply absenting himself and informing his instructor that he has dropped the course.

The schedule for next semester can be seen this week between 10 and 12, in room 9, main building. Students are invited to examine the new schedule. Conflicts between courses required for graduation should be reported to the chairman of the schedule committee, Professor Kirk.

Preparatory students who need one unit in history expect to take United States history next semester, will please hand their names to Professor Hill or Professor Mitchell. Preparatory students and students in the School of Applied Science who need Algebra beyond quadratics to meet entrance conditions or who desire to take this course towards college entrance, will please give their names to Professor Edington.

"GO ASK WILLIE" IS RAPIDLY PROGRESSING

Musical Comedy to be staged December 15th at the Crystal Theatre is bound to be successful from all appearances.

The University annual play will be given at the Crystal Theatre on December 15. Director Joe Scott has been spending most of his time on the bill lately and rehearsals have been progressing steadily.

The principals can all know about. There are four choruses. The Indian chorus should certainly be appreciated by an audience in this part of the country, and the address of their "call" reminds one of Isleta or San Domingo. They will appear in their brown dresses with the necessary rigmarole of beads.

There will be a carnival crew consisting of several characters, such as a Turkish maid and man, a balloon girl, etc., each in costume, proclaiming his nationality.

A whole company of merry-makers will appear, having the time of their lives. Their costumes will consist of airy, fairy green dresses with slippers to match, and a long black cape with a startling checkered lining. The boys of this chorus will be "regular sports."

To keep order in all this carnival and merry-making there will be four feminine cops! These cops have an extremely busy time of it, and their blue uniforms will be greatly in prominence on all occasions, but especially at all "carnival hops."

"PASS THAT COURSE."

Professor Roscoe E. Hill has been confined to his room for the last ten days with a huge carbuncle on the back of his neck. Professor Hill will not be able to attend any of his classes this week, but has made arrangements for all students to be properly taken care of, in regard to their lessons. His class will meet the same as usual.

"PASS THAT COURSE."

The El Paso Herald states that the football attendance for 1915 threatens to smash all records. "The country has become afflicted with pigskin mania and is pouring its gold into the coffers of the college in exchange for 'gazes' at the performing athletes." The four big games in the east this year will draw close to 200,000—and the gross receipts will go above $300,000 for those four games alone. The Harvard-Princeton combat drew 40,000 at $2.00 per head; the Yale-Princeton game drew the same sized multitude, while the attendance at the Yale-Harvard frolic will be around 65,000. And then there's the Army-Navy game in New York that drew about 44,000 at $3.00 per head.
