GENERAL INFORMATION

ACCREDITING

The University has been a member of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools since 1922. Approval of the Association of American Universities was given to the University in 1933, and the American Association of University Women recognized the University in the same year. In 1937 the College of Engineering was approved by the Engineering Council for Professional Development.

SITUATION

The University is situated in Albuquerque, a metropolitan area of 81,000 inhabitants. The elevation of the campus is over 5,000 feet above sea level. The climate is mild throughout the year. Albuquerque is noted for its dry and sunny weather.

The city is on the main line of the A. T. & S. F. Railway and is served by transcontinental bus and air lines. U. S. Highways 66 (the Will Rogers Highway) and 85 intersect at Albuquerque.

Historic Santa Fe is approximately sixty miles to the north, and the picturesque Indian pueblos of Taos, Jemez, Isleta, and Acoma are within easy driving distance.

HISTORY

The University of New Mexico was created by an act of the Territorial Legislature in 1889, opened as a summer normal school on June 15, 1892, and began full-term instruction on September 21 of the same year. Its development in the fifty-seven years since its inception has been extraordinary. The 20 acres allotted by Territorial Legislature for a campus have become more than 400; buildings have increased from a single structure to thirty. Enrollment has grown from one college enrollee in 1895-96 to 3662 registered in the fall of 1946.

The development of new colleges and divisions have kept pace with the physical growth of the institution. The College Department became the College of Literature and Arts in 1898, later changing to its present title of College of Arts and Sciences. The College of Engineering opened in 1906, and the Graduate School and Extension Division, in 1919. In 1928, the College of Education was created; in 1935, the General College; and in 1936, the College of Fine Arts. A unit of the United States Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps was established May 20, 1941. The School of Inter-American Affairs was instituted during the same year. In 1945, the following new divisions became an active part of the University program: the College of Pharmacy, the Division of Governmental Research, and the Bureau of Business Research. In 1946, the Division of Research and Development and the Institute of Meteoritics were added to the University's research program. The College of Business Administration will begin operation in 1947.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

The State Bar of New Mexico having previously adopted a resolution to that end, and the Legislature of New Mexico having at its last session made financial provision, the Regents of the University of New Mexico, on March 31, 1947, as expressly authorized by Laws 1889, Ch. 138, §15, approved the establishment of a College of Law. Professor Alfred L. Gausewitz, then of the University of Wisconsin, was appointed Dean on June 18, 1947.

GENERAL AIMS OF THE COLLEGE OF LAW

It is the democratic ideal, of which the Christian ethic of sympathy is a religious expression, that the human personality always be respected and that each individual be left as free to develop and express himself spiritually, politically, socially and materially, as is compatible with the general principle. For the law, this means that every individual shall be treated on his merits, on the basis of what he is and is capable of becoming, his past life being significant only as evidence of his character and potentialities. This also means that those who seek to make and administer the law must be properly motivated, well aware of social objectives and values and sensitive to human needs and aspirations.

The aim of the College of Law will be to insure, without efforts at indoctrinating the students with particular views, that its graduates understand the democratic ideal and the role of law and of the lawyer in our striving to attain it. To this end, it will be urged that students enter the law school with as broad a cultural and educational background as it is possible for them to have. At present, the minimum requirement is, as stated below, three years of college work, with certain exceptions for persons with a maturity gained from military service or otherwise. In the College of Law, the students will not only study the ideas, ideals and ways of life expressed in the substantive law and in legal literature, and the procedures provided for their application, but will also have kept before them the obligations of their profession.

The right of the lawyer to just compensation for his services will be recognized, but the duties of a lawyer as adviser, draftsman, negotiator, advocate, judge, legislator, teacher, official, and citizen, and the personal satisfaction to be gained from work well done, will continually be stressed as paramount to personal gain, especially to financial reward obtained for position and influence and not earned by professional services rendered.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

Every effort will be made to promote technical skill and competence. But this will be done primarily by methods aimed at understanding and power of analysis through the case method and learning by doing, rather than by methods of learning how to do a particular type of work through imitation. The ambition of the College of Law will be that its graduates be both educated and trained.

PRESENT PLANS

Only one class can be admitted and only the first year of work can be given in 1947-1948. A year of work will be added each succeeding year until the full course is given.

STANDARDS OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION AND OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN LAW SCHOOLS

The standards of the American Bar Association are as follows:

The American Bar Association is of the opinion that every candidate for admission to the bar should give evidence of graduation from a law school complying with the following standards:

It shall require as a condition of admission at least 2 years of study in a college.

It shall require its students to pursue a course of 3 years' duration, if they devote substantially all of their working time to their studies, and a longer course equivalent in the number of working hours, if they devote only part of their working time to their studies.

It shall provide an adequate library available for the use of the students.

It shall have among its teachers a sufficient number giving their entire time to the school to insure personal acquaintance and influence with the whole student body.

The College will comply with these standards and intends to secure the official approval of the American Bar Association as soon as is feasible, and, in any event, before the first class is graduated.

The standards of the Association of American Law Schools are set forth in Article Sixth of its Articles of Association. Its requirements relating to student work will be found in the Admission Requirements and Requirements for Degree set forth below, except that New Mexico will require more than the minimum amount of pre-legal education required by either Association.

BAR EXAMINATIONS

The degree in law from this University will not confer the privilege of practicing law in New Mexico or elsewhere. It is expected, however, that the degree will satisfy the requirement of New Mexico, insofar as New Mexico requires graduation from a law school approved by the American Bar Association as a prerequisite for bar admission. Whether it will satisfy other states having such a requirement may depend upon the interpretation of the requirement in each state, since such approval will probably not have been received before classes commence.

COLLEGE OF LAW

FACULTY AND STAFF

The College expects to open with a staff of four faculty members, consisting of the Dean and three full-time professors, selected from men who have devoted themselves to a teaching career. There will also be a full-time secretary and such library and other assistants as are needed. Additional faculty members will be added as more work is given. Special lecturers will be obtained for particular subjects.

LAW BUILDING

Plans are being made for construction of a law building to be completed within the next three years. Until then, the school will be housed in the Stadium Building, with classroom, library, reading room, and offices adjacent. The library and all facilities will be so administered as to be readily available to both students and faculty.

THE LIBRARY

Generous gifts made by Francis C. Wilson, of Santa Fe; Francis E. Wood, of Albuquerque; Milton J. Helmick, formerly of Albuquerque, now in Shanghai, China; Mrs. Ann Webster, of Santa Fe; Mrs. George R. Craig, of Albuquerque; Louis C. Ilfeld, of Las Vegas; Pearce Rodey, of Albuquerque; John Simms, of Albuquerque; and others, and provision made by appropriations, will enable the College to open with, or shortly to have, a library that will more than meet the requirements of the American Bar Association of seventy-five hundred well-selected, usable volumes, that will include all of the books deemed essential by the Association of American Law Schools, and that will have ten thousand volumes, not counting duplications, before the end of the first year, as required by the latter.

DIRECTIONS FOR CORRESPONDENCE

All communications regarding entrance should be addressed to the Dean of the College of Law. No student is assured of entrance until he has received an official notice of admission from the Director of Admissions.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

A student should not attempt the law unless he has a taste and aptitude for that type of study as demonstrated by his having stood at least in the upper quarter of his class in high school or the upper half in college. Otherwise, he probably will be neither happy nor successful in the study or practice of law.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must have (1) received a first degree; or (2) must have completed, in residence, at least 94 semester hours (and 4 P.E.) of the course of study acceptable for the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree at the University of New Mexico, or (3) at least three-fourths of a 4-year course of study in some other college or university, acceptable for a Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science or other equivalent bachelor's degree at the state university of the state in which the pre-legal work is taken, or in the event that there is no state university, then at a principal college or university located therein. Not more than 10 per cent of the credit presented for admission may include credit earned in non-theory courses in military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, vocal or instrumental music, or other courses without intellectual content of substantial value. All such pre-legal work, exclusive of non-theory courses, must have been completed with an average of "C" or better and a scholastic average at least equal to the average required for graduation in the institution attended. If more than one institution has been attended, the scholastic requirements of the last institution will be applied, but based upon the entire pre-legal work, exclusive of non-theory credits, undertaken in all institutions attended.

The first semester of 1947-1948, persons who have completed at least 60 semester hours of credit of the character described in the preceding paragraph, at the University of New Mexico, or who are residents of New Mexico, may in special cases be accepted as candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Veterans of World War II who have served for a substantial period of time in the armed forces of the United States or of a co-belligerent and who have been discharged or released under conditions other than dishonorable may be admitted, who present credits acceptable to the University of New Mexico for a Bachelor of Arts degree, equal to one half of the work required for that degree.

Students desiring to be admitted to the College of Law should have their applications, together with a transcript of their pre-legal work, in the hands of the University Director of Admissions not later than September 1 for first-semester registration. Students completing their pre-legal work in some other college or university must furnish, in addition to a transcript of their record, a certificate from the Registrar of the institution where such work was completed to the effect that the grade average attained is at least equal to the average required for graduation in that institution.

COLLEGE OF LAW

A written statement as to previous attendance at other law schools, and as to previous applications for admission to other law schools, is also required.

Credit earned through correspondence, or by examination, is not acceptable as pre-legal credit for the College of Law.

It is expected that beginning students will be admitted at the opening of the Fall semester only.

NON-RESIDENT STUDENTS

A limited number of non-resident students who have a first degree with a good record of scholarship and a valid reason for desiring to come to New Mexico will be admitted this year. Students who have taken their pre-legal work at New Mexico are not considered non-residents for this requirement though they are non-residents for purposes of tuition and fees and for bar admission requirements.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

A limited number of students with fewer than the academic credits required of candidates for the law degree may be admitted as special students. An applicant for admission as a special student must be at least 23 years of age, and his experience and educational training must have been such as, in the judgment of the Law Faculty, to have specially equipped him for the successful study of Law. Application for admission as such special student must be made to the Director of Admissions of the University well in advance of the beginning of the regular academic year for the purpose of submission to the Dean of the College of Law. Such applications will be considered and acted upon at the first meeting of the Law Faculty after September 1 of each year. Special students are not candidates for the law degree, and upon completion of their law study are not eligible for bar examinations in New Mexico nor in such other states as require graduation from a law school approved by the American Bar Association as a prerequisite for bar admission.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Since only the first year of work will be given this year, it is unlikely that credit can be given the first semester for work done elsewhere.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

A student, transferring to the College of Law of the University of New Mexico will not be given credit toward the law degree for courses of law pursued in another American law school which at the time the credit was earned was not either (1) a member of the Association of American Law Schools or (2) approved by the American Bar Association. However, credit may be given for work taken in an American law school within the 2-year period immediately preceding its admission to the Association of American Law Schools.

A student transferring from a law school which is approved by the American Bar Association but which is not a member of the Association of American Law Schools may be admitted and may be given credit toward the law degree for courses of law study pursued in such law school upon petition approved by the College of Law Faculty.

A student transferring from a law school which is a member of the Association of American Law Schools will be given credit toward the law degree for courses of study satisfactorily pursued in such law school with allowance for proper equation of credit.

A transferring student must present:

1. An official transcript of his pre-legal course of study, which must be sufficient to meet the requirements for admission to the College of Law of the University of New Mexico.
2. An official transcript of his law study.
3. A letter from the dean of the law school from which he transfers to the effect that he is presently eligible to reregister in that law school.

Admission will not be granted to a student who has been disqualified or placed on probation in another law school, or who has an average of less than "C" on all law work previously attempted. The number of semester hours with a barely passing grade credited to students admitted to advanced standing may not exceed 20 per cent of the total number of hours completed.

REQUIREMENTS FOR BACHELOR OF LAWS DEGREE

To secure the degree in law from the University of New Mexico, a candidate for such degree must:

1. Have met fully all pre-legal requirements established by the University of New Mexico for admission of degree candidates to its College of Law.
2. Have spent at least 3 full academic years in residence study of law in accredited law schools. The work of the third or last year, comprising not less than 24 semester hours of law credit, must be done in residence in this University.

COLLEGE OF LAW

3. Have secured by and during such 3 or more years of residence study, not less than 80 semester hours of credit of satisfactory grade in courses of law study, in which must be included the courses of law study that may be designated as "Required."

4. In order that a student's final (sixth) semester of regular residence work may be accepted as a part of the required "3" full academic years of residence study of "law," such student must register for, and successfully complete during such semester, not less than 6 semester hours of law study, even though a lesser number of units would enable such student to meet the quantitative requirement (80 semester hours) for the law degree.

COURSE OF STUDY

The course of study will be determined by the faculty. It will, as to both content and method, follow the standardized curricula of good law schools, with such modifications and additions as sound educational progress and conditions special to New Mexico indicate. The first year of work will probably consist of courses in Agency, Contracts, Criminal Law, Legal Bibliography, Procedure, Property, and Torts, with some introduction to the study of law. Special work and services such as moot court and legal aid will be instituted as soon as possible.

COMBINED COURSE OF STUDY LEADING TO TWO DEGREES

A candidate for the bachelor's degree in arts and sciences may offer, in lieu of the last thirty hours at the University of New Mexico, the full first year's work (satisfactorily passed and properly certified) in the College of Law, provided: (1) that written notice of this intention be submitted to the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences before the end of the junior year; (2) that the first three years of work (94 semester hours and 4 P.E.) shall have been taken in residence at the University of New Mexico; (3) that, before entrance into the College of Law, the candidate shall have completed all specific and group requirements, and major and minor requirements, in accordance with University regulations; (4) that at least 75 per cent of the hours completed before entrance into the College of Law shall have been of "C" grade or better, and that the total of grade-points shall at least equal the total number of

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

hours which the student has attempted. (Under the Admission Requirements of the College of Law, all pre-legal work exclusive of non-theory courses, must have been completed with an average of "C" or better, and a scholastic average at least equal to the average required for graduation in the institution attended.)

TUITION AND FEES

All fees are due at the time of registration. A fee of $2.00 will be assessed if registration is not completed on the days specified.

In addition to the matriculation fee of $5.00, which is paid once by each student upon his first registration in the University; other fees are charged according to the number of semester hours in the student's course. Auditors pay fees at the same rate as those enrolled for credit.

ACADEMIC REGULATIONS

Class Hours and Credit Hours

A class hour consists of fifty minutes. One class hour a week of recitation or lecture, throughout a semester, earns a maximum of one credit hour.

Grades

The grades awarded in all courses are indicative of the quality of work done. Their significance is as follows:

- A. Excellent. 3 grade points per credit hour.
- B. Good. 2 grade points per credit hour.

† Includes $.86 Federal Tax.

‡ Paid once yearly and refundable.

COLLEGE OF LAW

C. Average. 1 grade point per credit hour.

D. Barely Passed. No grade points.

F. Failed. F is also given in any course which the student drops after the fourth week of a semester while doing failing work.

I. Incomplete. The grade of I is given only when circumstances beyond the student's control have prevented his completing the work of a course within the official dates of a session.

W. Dropped Without Discredit. W is given in any course which the student drops after the fourth week of the semester, while doing passing work.

Scholarship Index

A student's academic standing is referred to in terms of a scholarship index obtained by dividing his total number of grade points by the total number of hours attempted. All honors and prizes depending upon scholarship are determined by ranking students according to this index.

Transcript of Credits

Each time a student completes work in the University, he is entitled to one complete transcript of record without charge. For each additional copy, a charge of one dollar is made, except that when several copies are to be made at the same time, all copies in addition to the first will be charged for at the rate of twenty-five cents each. Transcripts of credits cannot be issued until all accounts with the University are settled.

Scholarship Regulations

The standing of all students with respect to scholarship is checked at the end of each semester. At such times, all students who are deficient in scholarship are placed on probation, or suspended, in accordance with the regulations stated below. A student placed on probation at any time will remain on probation until the next final examination period.

Probation

A student is placed on probation at the end of any semester when the total number of points earned drops below the total number of hours which he has attempted. Hours given a mark of W will be excluded in this computation, but hours of F will be counted.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

Suspension

A student is suspended for a period of one calendar year at the end of any semester when he has been placed on probation for the second successive time.

A student who has been suspended for poor scholarship; or who, after having been placed on probation at the end of the semester fails to re-register for the following semester; or who withdraws from the University while on probation, shall be considered as on probation upon his return to the University, and the scholarship rules shall apply as though he had not been away.

The Dean may require a student who is on probation at the time of registration to enroll for a minimum number of hours, and he may at any time require a student on probation to drop as many hours as seem to be in excess of the student's ability.

Suspension by Scholarship Committees or Deans

Regulations on probation and suspension as described above apply only at the end of a semester. However, during the progress of any semester, the Dean may refer the case of a delinquent student to a college committee on scholarship; and such committee may recommend to the Dean probation or suspension from the University for such student.

Attention is also called to the possibility of suspension as a result of excessive absence.

Attendance

Students are expected to attend all meetings of the classes in which they are enrolled. No extensions of the vacation periods are given to any students, regardless of the location of their homes. Non-attendance at classes due to late registration is considered the same as absence incurred after registration.

Instructors will keep a record of class attendance, and will report all absences to the Dean.

No absences can be ignored, no matter how excused. Attendance of at least 60 per cent of the classes is required for credit in any subject. The faculty may require a higher percentage and will probably require additional work to be taken for an aggregate of absences though the maximum for a particular course is not exceeded.

Special Examinations

Unless necessary because the student is a candidate for a degree, no special examination can be given. The examination must be taken the next time an examination in the course is regularly given.

DINING AND RESIDENTIAL HALLS

For regulations governing residence in University halls, see p. 46 of the general catalog.

New Students

The Director of Admissions will study each student's application for admission and his high school or college transcript. When these are found to be in order, and it has been determined that housing facilities are available, the procedure will be as follows:

1. The student will be informed of his acceptance and will be requested to forward a check or money order to cover room and board charges for one month in advance. This remittance should be made to the Director of Admissions, University of New Mexico.
2. When the student's remittance is received at the University, the Personnel office will advise the student regarding a definite residential hall assignment and will provide a list of furnishings needed. When the student has received this assignment information, any further correspondence regarding living quarters should be sent directly to the Personnel office. Men students should address their correspondence to the Dean of Men, women students to the Dean of Women. Upon arrival at the University the new student should report directly to the Head Resident of the residential hall to which he has been assigned. The student should plan his time of arrival between 8:00 a. m. and 10:00 p. m. Receipts for advance room and board should be presented to the Head Resident and to the Collection Manager for Dining and Residential Halls.

Students Requesting Readmission

A student who has previously attended the University, but who is not presently enrolled and is requesting readmission, should follow the procedure outlined above for new students. The student requesting readmission should correspond with the Director of Admissions. The student will be informed that his admission records have been verified, and that housing facilities are available, and he will be requested to make remittance to cover board and room for one month in advance. A residential hall assignment will be made when the student's remittance is received.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

Students Continuing Attendance

Students in attendance are required to make housing reservations for the following term not less than three weeks before the ending of the term in which they are enrolled. Requests for such reservations should be made through the Personnel office. Student occupancy in residential halls, including the Kirtland Housing Project, is on a semester basis. Unless advance notice of intention to remain for the following semester is made in writing to the Personnel office, living quarters may be assigned to another student. Specific information regarding exact dates and amount of advance room and board payments will be announced in time for the student to make necessary arrangements.

Changes in Student's Plans

Should an applicant for admission or readmission to the University find it impossible to keep an advance reservation, he should notify the Personnel office not later than one week before the first day of registration. In such cases advance room and board payments will be refunded.

Meals for Students Living in Residential Halls

All students occupying rooms in residential halls, including Kirtland Field, are required to take their meals at the University dining halls. Room and board are therefore considered as one charge, the amount varying slightly depending upon the type of residential assignment for each student. Room and board charges are payable in advance and are due before the first day of each month.

Student Contracts

All students residing in residential halls are required to sign a contract form covering rules and regulations of the University.
