COPYRIGHT ESSENTIALS FOR HSC FACULTY MEMBERS: RESPECTING EVERYONE'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Tuesday, January 30, 2007
9:00am to 10:30am

Can you use a copyrighted work in your presentations, your class materials, your web site, and your publications? What copyright protections do you have for your own work? Attend this presentation to learn about the application of copyright law, particularly the fair use exception to copyright holder's rights.

MARSHA L. BAUM, JD

Marsha's career in legal education began two decades ago. She is a Dickason Professor of Law at the University of New Mexico. Her teaching concentration is in the area of intellectual property, with emphasis on copyright law and the Internet. In 2005, Marsha co-authored Internet Surf and Turf Revealed: The Essential Guide to Copyright, Fair Use, and Finding Media. This title won the 2006 "Texty" award for textbook excellence.
