CONTRIBUTOR

✿ DOROTHY DUNN has spent more than thirty years of research in American Indian painting, and this work has led her into many of the leading institutions of America, Europe, and the Middle East. In recognition of her work she has been named Officier d'Académie by the government of France. Married to Max Kramer, a professor of mathematics, she lives in Los Altos, California.

✿ GEORGE P. HAMMOND, noted Spanish scholar, was director of the Bancroft Library and Professor of History at the University of California, Berkeley. He has made many significant contributions to the history of New Mexico and the Southwest.

✿ The author of two novels and numerous articles in the field of political science, CHARLES JUDAH for many years has been Professor of Government at the University of New Mexico. He and George Winston Smith have collaborated on two historical, book-length studies prior to Chronicles of the Gringos, an excerpt of which appears in this issue.

✿ ROBERT W. LARSON is an associate professor of history at Colorado State College, Greeley, Colorado. He received his A.B. and A.M. at the University of Denver and his Ph.D. at the University of New Mexico. His articles have appeared in New Mexico Historical Review and Mid-America.

✿ N. SCOTT MOMADAY, poet and novelist, is the author of House Made of Dawn, a new novel to be issued this summer by Harper and Row. His poems and fiction have appeared in many national magazines, including NMQ. Currently he is an associate professor of English at the University of California, Santa Barbara.

✿ Known as a translator of many works from the Spanish, AGAPITO REY is a former professor at Indiana University. He and Dr. George Hammond have collaborated on three volumes of the Coronado Historical Series published by the University of New Mexico Press.

✚ A distinguished American poet, WINFIELD TOWNLEY SCOTT (1910-1968) wrote poetry and prose which appeared in leading magazines and anthologies. NMQ has published much of his work. His latest volume was New and Selected Poems published recently by Doubleday. This spring Hallmark issued a new selection of Emily Dickinson's works which Scott edited and for which he wrote the foreword.

✚ MARC SIMMONS, who received his A.B. from the University of Texas and his M.A. and Ph.D. from the University of New Mexico, is the author of numerous articles in scholarly journals and the translator of two volumes for Stagecoach Press. He is a visiting assistant professor of history at the University of New Mexico.

✚ GEORGE WINSTON SMITH is an historian whose studies and articles have been widely published. He is professor of history at the University of New Mexico.

✚ JOSEPH SOMMERS is an associate professor of Spanish language and literature at the University of Washington, Seattle.

✚ Before his death in 1957, HENRY R. WAGNER was notable as an authority on the discovery and conquest of the New World. His final and most important study, written in collaboration with Helen Rand Parish, was The Life and Writings of Bartolomé de las Casas, a portion of which appears in this issue of New Mexico Quarterly.

✚ CHARLES E. WYZANSKI, JR. is a distinguished jurist and a leading scholar on contemporary legal issues. He is United States District Judge for Massachusetts and author of a recent book, Whereas: A Judge's Premises.
