THE NEW MEXICO QUARTERLY is a regional review alive to the place of the Southwest in the nation's cultural and economic development. It invites literary, educational, and political articles and creative writing which treat of the living present and the living past. Among its contributors have been Mary Austin, Witter Bynner, Haniel Long, Paul Horgan, Kyle Crichton, Erna Fergusson, John Gould Fletcher, Alice Corbin, Edgar Hewett, and many other leaders in varied fields.

"I think New Mexico was the greatest experience from the outside world that I have ever had. It certainly changed me forever."

D. H. LAWRENCE.

"... I have seen America emerging; the America which is the expression of the life activities of the environment, aesthetics as a natural mode of expression"

MARY AUSTIN.

"People of the blue-cloud horizon,
Let your thoughts come to us!"

ZIA SONG FOR RAIN.

New Mexican Adobes

Here in this autumnal Spain
Adobes live with little rain
And even crumbling seem to me
Sweeter than a spring can be
In any other land than this
Where an eternal autumn is.

WITTER BYNNER.
