New Mexico Quarterly Review

Volume XIX, Winter, 1949. Number 4

PUBLISHED BY THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO

---

ISSUED quarterly in Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter, and printed at the University of New Mexico Printing Plant. Entered as second-class matter February 6, 1931, at the post office at Albuquerque, New Mexico, under the act of March 3, 1879.

Opinions expressed or implied by contributors do not necessarily reflect the views of the editors or of the University of New Mexico.

Manuscripts not accompanied by self-addressed and stamped envelope cannot be returned. The QUARTERLY, conscious of one of its important functions, is interested in considering unpublished authors. Articles and stories of moderate length preferred, not to exceed 4,000-5,000 words. A decision on all manuscripts will be made within thirty days after receipt. Payment on publication.

Editorial and business address: New Mexico Quarterly Review, The University of New Mexico, Box 85, Albuquerque, N. M.

Subscriptions are $2.00 a year; $3.50 for two years; $5.00 for three years; single copies, 60 cents. Back issues, $1.00 each. Canadian and foreign subscriptions, add 50 cents.

Articles in this magazine are listed in the Annual Magazine Index and the Inter-American Periodicals Index.

DIALOGUE.

C R I T E S.

WHAT became of The EXPLICATOR?
Leander. Became of it, Sir! It's the best Post-
Bag of News on what Writers do for readers!

Crites. You mean it's still fighting the Battle of the Books?

Leander. 'Pon my word, yes. Future Scholars, Sir, will clamour for Microfilm copies, but all Gentleman-Scholars can get numbers hot from the Press.

Crites. It needs a Broadside, Sir! What shall we say?

Leander. Let's say—send $1.50 to subscribe. That includes eight Numbers, Index, and annual Checklist of all Explications printed everywhere. Or ask for a sample copy.
