Bulletin of Selected Books

INTERNATIONAL

Choix de Notices Critiques

A quarterly guide to notable books published throughout the world, except in France, Great Britain and the United States. The literature of countries with limited means of inter-communication receives special attention. The main features are condensed reviews contributed by experts. Each number contains two articles related to international literature or translation. Additional items of information appear in the section entitled Events—Inquiries—Requests.

THE BULLETIN OF SELECTED BOOKS provides information of special interest to students of literature and current affairs, educationalists, sociologists, writers, translators, librarians and publishers.

Subscription rate: U.S.A. $2 yearly in advance. British Isles and all countries outside U.S.A. 33/6 yearly in advance.
